A Thousand Miles in the Rob Roy Canoe on Rivers and Lakes of Europe (1866) John MacGregor, 2015-12-23 John MacGregor 1825 1892 John MacGregor through his extremely popular books and magazine articles from 1865 to 1892 practically invented the sport of canoeing or kayaking we would call it today One correspondent tells us MacGregor spent part of his youth in Halifax Nova Scotia where his father was stationed in the 30s in a fort He may have picked up some canoeing experience there He graduated from Trinity College Cambridge earned an M A and became a barrister at law in the Temple London He formed and became Captain of the Royal Canoe Club England From reading his books you will notice he carried in his canoe a number of religious tracts in this movement called Muscular Christianity written in the local language and was always ready to hand them out He did not travel on Sundays but did lecture on his travels and gave much of the profits to charities especially to boys in the inner cities He published accounts of several other canoe cruises including one to Scandinavia and another to Jordan and Egypt We have seen the Baltic cruise book but haven't had time to scan it yet The appendix to that book gives some construction details for his canoe designs      A thousand miles in the Rob Roy canoe ...
