Beautiful China: 70 Years Since 1949 and 70 People's Views on Eco-civilization Construction Jiahua Pan, Shiji Gao, Qingrui Li, Jinnan Wang, Dekai Wu, Chengliang Huang, 2021-03-01 This book discusses and studies the basic course of ecological civilization construction in the 70 years since the founding of the People's Republic of China and summarizes the experience and lessons. It contains 75 articles from 75 top experts and government officials in the field of ecological civilization policy making and basic theory research in China including Xi Jinping Thought on Ecological Civilization, ecological culture, green industry, economy, environmental quality, legal system, ecological security, and so on, so as to provide reference for understanding and studying the progress of ecological environment protection since the founding of China.

Heritage Conservation and Tourism Development at Cham Sacred Sites in Vietnam Quang Dai Tuyen, 2023-10-12 This open access book considers the growing field of heritage tourism from community perspectives. It explores how the Cham in Vietnam's large ethnic minority reconcile their needs for economic development with the boundaries circumscribed by their traditional culture. It examines struggles that local minority stakeholders like the Cham face when trying to participate in areas of development that typically fall under State control. How will tourism affect the ancient sacred spaces that are the Cham's lifeblood? In what areas is their participation permitted? From what areas are they excluded? Through a novel mix of indigenous methods, participant observation, local voices, and rich ethnographic description, this book provides a rare glimpse into the discourses that have been percolating throughout the community in recent years. The relevance of this study extends beyond the Cham community and aims to resonate with experiences of the myriad indigenous and minority communities around the world who face similar issues with heritage conservation and tourism development. This book is of interest to students and researchers of heritage studies, tourism management, cultural studies, Asian studies, as well as policymakers and academicians seeking current research on the connections between culture, conservation, sustainable development, and tourism.

Engaging Children and Young People in Planning Teresa Strachan, 2024-03-25 Engaging Children and Young People in Planning places planners' skills for engagement with children and young people centre stage by discussing several projects delivered or supported by planning students to young people in the Northeast of England. Urban or town and country planning is a largely unfamiliar concept to children and young people. Moreover, in England, the environment in which young people live, play, and go to school is shaped by a local planning process which lacks their input. This book explores the nature of the gap between that planning process and the voice of the younger members of the community, as well as the barriers that impede this engagement. It highlights why an engagement process is beneficial for those young people, for the wider community, and for the planning process itself. At a time when our relationship with and impact on the environment is being re-examined, this book challenges the planning professional to identify, develop, and reflect upon the engagement skills that will help to transform planning into a more inclusive practice. It will be of use to scholars and practitioners in urban planning.

Metropolitan Australia Stephen Hamnett, Robert Freestone, 2017-10-24 Australia has long been a highly sub urbanized nation but the major distinctive feature of its contemporary settlement pattern is that the great majority of Australians live in a small number of large metropolitan areas focused on the state capital cities The development and application of effective urban policy at a regional scale is a significant global challenge given the complexities of urban space and governance Building on the editors previous collection The Australian Metropolis A Planning History 2000 this new book examines the recent history of metropolitan planning in Australia since the beginning of the twenty first century After a historical prelude the book is structured around a series of six case studies of metropolitan Melbourne Sydney Adelaide Perth the fast growing metropolitan region of South East Queensland centred on Brisbane and the national capital of Canberra These essays are contributed by some of Australia s leading urbanists Set against a dynamic background of economic change restructured land uses a more diverse population and growing spatial and social inequality the book identifies a broad planning consensus around the notion of making Australian cities more contained compact and resilient But it also observes a continuing gulf between the simplified aims of metropolitan strategies and our growing understanding of the complex functioning of the varied communities in which most people live This book reflects on the raft of planning challenges presented at the metropolitan scale looks at what the future of Australian cities might be and speculates about the prospects of more effective metropolitan planning arrangements Principles and Methods of Pocket Park Planning and Design Conghui

Zhou,2025-07-31 This book focuses on the planning and design methods of pocket parks in the disciplines of urban planning and landscape architecture It fills the gap in the current pocket park planning by innovatively exploring the service mechanism and planning methods of the pocket parks to alleviate the scarcity of outdoor recreational spaces in the high density environments This book integrates the results of previous research and our latest research results Taking urban renewal as the planning scenario the book systematically introduces the basic characteristics of mini parks planning principles and methods and development promotion and assurance strategies This book is used as a textbook for planning and design courses as well as a professional reference book for urban planners and landscape architects The authors have also made great efforts to use simple language and a large number of visual illustrations in the text Through these approaches the authors expected that the publication of this book would not only facilitate teaching and practical application but also attract more interest and attention from ordinary people and motivate them to actively participate in the planning design and management of mini parks around them Only when this goal is achieved can the original value of mini park development be finally realized

The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras,2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term Nearly everything we treasure in the world s most beautiful cities was built over a century ago Cities like Prague Paris and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture walkable neighborhoods and human scale Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years not because of traffic population growth or other practical hurdles but because of ill considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question The solutions being offered today sustainability walkability smart and green technologies hint at what has been lost and what may be regained but they remain piecemeal and superficial In The Art of Classic Planning architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism With hundreds of full color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects planners administrators and developers The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto Vienna and Venice and by the great successes of L'Enfant's Washington Haussmann's Paris and Burnham's Chicago Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today's world The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities Bushwick's Bohemia Mario

Hernandez, 2023-12-19 Viewed as a symbol of urban blight and decline in the late 1970s and 1980s Bushwick today is bustling and bursting with color creativity and commerce Cozy and cool cafes small boutiques trendy restaurants vibrant street murals and art galleries now adorn the neighborhood in the northern part of Brooklyn stoking its growing reputation as one of the more desirable places to live work in and visit In this book Mario Hernandez paints a precise picture that portrays the redevelopment evolution and ensuing gentrification of the Brooklyn neighborhood over recent decades Drawing on interviews developer reports and historical and civic records the author focuses closely on the artists and creative industries that moved to Bushwick and over time shaped the Bohemian art scene in the neighborhood and contributed to the growth of its vibrant urban economy The book connects the emergence and ongoing development of the neighborhood's art scene to neoliberal policies and city planning efforts that have also facilitated and led to the increasing displacement of long time Black and Latinx residents It also documents community efforts to counteract forces of displacement and development revealing the complex competing and collective efforts to shape Bushwick and its future Culture and capital collide converge and contribute to rapid and radical change in Bushwick's bohemia making this an important read for those interested in urban life gentrification and social issues Street Fights in Copenhagen Jason Henderson, Natalie Marie

Gulsrud, 2019-05-21 With 29 percent of all trips made by bicycle Copenhagen is considered a model of green transport This book considers the underlying political conditions that enabled cycling to appeal to such a wide range of citizens in Copenhagen and asks how this can be replicated elsewhere Despite Copenhagen's global reputation its success has been a result of a long political struggle and is far from completely secure Car use in Denmark is increasing including in Copenhagen's suburbs and new developments in Copenhagen include more parking for cars There is a political tension in Copenhagen over the spaces for cycling the car and public transit In considering examples of backlashes and conflicts over street space in Copenhagen this book argues that the kinds of debates happening in Copenhagen are very similar to the debates regularly occurring in cities throughout the world This makes Copenhagen more not less comparable to many cities around the world including cities in the United States This book will appeal to upper level undergraduates and graduates in
