

Opening Remarks at the Miss India Holland Pageant
Sunday, 5th December 2010

Dear Friends,

1. It is with great pleasure that I accepted the kind offer to be a Special Guest at the Miss India Holland Pageant. This is an unique event which is not only a beauty pageant but a pageant in which Indian ladies present their culture. It is symbolic of how Indian culture is represented here in the Netherlands. The lucky winner will participate in the Miss India world wide Pageant to be held in Dubai, UAE, next year.

2. It would therefore be appropriate to recall the place of women in our history and civilizations going back to Millenia. Women have a unique place in Indian culture including the inter-linkage with nature. It is for this reason that we say Mother Earth, Mother India, Maa Ganga etc. Indian culture has been sustained for more than 5000 years primarily because of the role of women. All of you are familiar with the role of women in Indian mythology but perhaps it is important to recall that even in the last century Margaret Noble became Sister Nivedita and disseminated the word of Vivekananda while the Mother was a spokesperson for Aurovindo. The Indian woman has traditionally been equated with "Shakti" - "Power" derived from the Sanskrit word of "Power" or "Energy". Shakti represents creation, fire, the brilliance of the Sun and the very life force of all living beings. She also represents intelligence (Buddhi), compassion (Daya) and divine love (Bhakti) among her many functions. The women we see here today symbolize the Indian women in all these different manifestation. Feminism came to India thousands of years ago. Indeed, part of the Rig Veda (2250-1500 B.C.) is known as "Devi Sukta" and symbolizes recognition of Shakti as a cosmic principle. Throughout history, the Indian woman played this twin role of beauty and compassion on one hand and intelligence on the other. This is what makes the Indian women unique!

Meditations for the Lone Traveler Mark W. Hamilton, 2017-05-31 These twenty two meditations on the songs prayers and stories of the Bible invite readers to imagine themselves as part of a world in which human beings may fully live into their sufferings and joys as part of a vibrant while still critically searching faith in God Here we see prophets and poets as well as ordinary men and women embrace the realities of life without apology or fear Each meditation opens with the author's fresh translation of the biblical text and concludes with a prayer that seeks the critical edge of faith as an active stance toward human existence The movement from text to commentary to prayer reflects a basic conviction that the encounter with the Bible allows persons of many cultures whether believers or unbelievers to engage the deepest layers of human existence today These reflections come out of the author's search across cultures to find a common humanity before God Since the Bible is a non Western book in its origins and much of its present life interpretation of that book can both confront the particularities of Western Christianity with its own limitations and offer sources of renewal for communal and individual spirituality These reflections aim to contribute to that larger end

War in Words Marco Formisano,Hartmut Böhme,2010-12-23 Although the paradoxical reality of warfare may elude definition since antiquity war has been a constitutive element of Western culture seen from a historical perspective it gives access to a broad array of tensions between various models of knowledge and different kinds of tradition The essays in this volume approach the phenomenon of war from antiquity to Clausewitz from the perspective of a variety of disciplines Particular attention is given to texts images and their interaction

Language, Globalization and the Making of a Tanzanian Beauty Queen Sabrina Billings,2013-11-29 Through micro analysis of language use this book chronicles young women s pathways to becoming a Tanzanian beauty queen offering an original perspective on the intersection of language with globalization nationalism and inequality in urban East Africa This compelling linguistic ethnography considers the real life effects both on and off stage of language policy education and gender dynamics for the women competing in the pageants While highlighting many contestants struggles for escape from poverty and patriarchy the book also emphasizes their creative strategies linguistic and otherwise for bettering their lives and shows how people living in a global economic periphery take part in and sometimes feel left out of the wider world

A Feeling of Belonging Shirley Jennifer Lim,2006 When we imagine the activities of Asian American women in the mid twentieth century our first thoughts are not of skiing beauty pageants magazine reading and sororities Yet Shirley Jennifer Lim argues these are precisely the sorts of leisure practices many second generation Chinese Filipina and Japanese American women engaged in during this time In A Feeling of Belonging Lim highlights the cultural activities of young predominantly unmarried Asian American women from 1930 to 1960 This period marks a crucial generation the first in which American born Asians formed a critical mass and began to make their presence felt in the United States Though they were distinguished from previous generations by their American citizenship it was only through these seemingly mundane American activities that they were able to overcome two dimensional stereotypes of themselves as kimono clad Orientals Lim traces the diverse ways in which these young women sought claim to cultural citizenship exploring such topics as the nation s first Asian American sorority Chi Alpha Delta the cultural work of Chinese American actress Anna May Wong Asian American youth culture and beauty pageants and the achievement of fame of three foreign born Asian women in the late 1950s By wearing poodle skirts going to the beach and producing magazines she argues they asserted not just their American ness but their humanity a feeling of belonging

Shakespeare's Comedies of Love Karen Bamford, 2008-12-01 Borrowing its title from renowned scholar Alexander Leggatt's landmark 1974 study Shakespeare's Comedies of Love is a tribute to a critic who has shaped the way the world understands Shakespeare and his comedies To help celebrate his distinguished career as a teacher and scholar this collection of essays presents a wide range of new work on the Bard's comedies The contributors cover diverse areas of inquiry including the use of the comedies as a source of women's empowerment in nineteenth century America civic drama in Elizabethan London male anxiety about women in the comedies anti-Semitism in The Merchant of Venice as well as some key productions of Shakespeare's comedies Rich in detail and broad in scope Shakespeare's Comedies of Love is a celebration of Leggatt's distinguished career and an enduring collection of work on the world's most famous writer American Eloquence, 1867 The World's Great Speeches Lewis Copeland, Lawrence W. Lamm, Stephen J. McKenna, 2012-04-24 Nearly 300 speeches provide public speakers with a wealth of quotes and inspiration from Pericles' funeral oration and William Jennings Bryan's Cross of Gold speech to Malcolm X's powerful words on the Black Revolution Includes 7 selections from the Common Core State Standards Initiative Finding Common Ground Ian Boxill, 2023-06-06 This book Finding Common Ground: Selected Newspaper Columns of Ian Boxill 1993-2000 literally represents the best articles written by Ian Boxill over a period of seven years March 1993 to August 2000 on the opinion page of the Daily Gleaner in Jamaica The book seeks more so than the individual articles themselves which were written with the general public in mind to help graduates across the Caribbean region fulfil that obligation to become habitual readers and writers The hope is that they will not only read on matters relating to their own training and work but also on issues of interest and concern to society in general and to the world today In particular the book also targets pre-university and first-year university students especially those enrolled in degrees that involve basic or advanced expository or argumentative writing In addition it lends itself to 6th form students those in community colleges teacher training colleges and other tertiary level institutions who are learning to formulate and express a personal but informed opinion in speech or writing on topical events From the Editor's Preface Women's Movements Sandra Grey, Marian Sawyer, 2008-04-24 This comparative book brings together scholars to examine the changing patterns of feminist activism and the new local global and cyber spaces in which it is to be found It addresses the question where have women's movements gone People of Kituwah John D. Loftin, Benjamin E. Frey, 2024-04-30 According to Cherokee tradition the place of creation is Kituwah located at the center of the world and home to the most sacred and oldest of all beloved or mother towns Just by entering Kituwah or indeed any village site Cherokees reexperience the creation of the world when the water beetle first surfaced with a piece of mud that later became the island on which they lived People of Kituwah is a comprehensive account of the spiritual worldview and lifeways of the Eastern Cherokee people from the creation of the world to today Building on vast primary and secondary materials native and non-native this book provides a window into not only what the Cherokees perceive and understand their notions of space and time marriage and love death and the afterlife healing and traditional medicine and rites and ceremonies but also how their religious life evolved both before and after the calamitous coming of colonialism Through the collaborative efforts of John D Loftin and Benjamin E Frey this book offers an in depth understanding of Cherokee culture and society China and the Philippines Phillip B. Guingona,2023-11-23 Challenging global history s Euro American orientation this study centres China and the Philippines in the early twentieth century English Civic Pageantry, 1558-1642 David M. Bergeron,2003 This revised book seeks to call renewed and vigorous attention to this sometimes marginalized dramatic form by insisting that civic pageants constituted a major part of cultural and theatrical life in early modern England Bergeron s fresh look at this material seeks to recover and analyze the world of English civic pageantry opening its richness for inspection and wonder BOOK JACKET "There She Is, Miss America" E. Watson,2004-09-18 While some see the Miss American Pageant as hokey vestige of another era many remain enthralled by the annual Atlantic City event And whether you love it or hate it no one can deny the impact the contest has had on American popular culture indeed many reality television shows seem to have taken cues from the pageant Founded in 1921 the Miss America Pageant has provided a fascinating glimpse into how American standards of femininity have been defined projected maintained and challenged At various times it has been praised as a positive role model for young American women protested as degrading to women by feminists and shamed by scandals such as the one caused by the Penthouse photos of Vanessa Williams in 1984 In this first interdisciplinary anthology to examine this uniquely American event scholars defend critique and reflect on the pageant grappling with themes like beauty race the body identity kitsch and consumerism There She Is Miss America provides a fascinating examination of an enduring American icon Turkey between Nationalism and Globalization Riva Kastoryano,2013-02-11 Turkish society has been going through institutional and ideological change that has affected its social cultural and political practices This book examines these contemporary tensions which have led to a re appraisal of Turkey as a nation and Turkish nationalism as it tries to situate itself as a regional and global power Analysing the internal and external dynamics of Turkey and the role played by nationalism this book considers how the understanding of the nation and nationalism has changed since the creation of the Republic of Turkey and how it has now become central to its desire to become a global power Despite on going negotiations about entry into the EU an ambition for Turkey to be a regional power feeds nationalist feeling that contradicts institutional discursive and cultural changes Presenting interdisciplinary perspectives from experts in history sociology political sciences and economics the contributors offer new perspectives on contemporary Turkey and its future Turkey between Nationalism and Globalization will be of interest to students and scholars of Turkish studies globalization studies nationalism studies Middle Eastern and Mediterranean studies international relations political science and sociology How the Platform Professionals Keep 'em Laughin' James Blakely,Jeanne Robertson,Joe Griffith,1987 A guide to weaving humor into oral presentations and speeches together with a compendium of jokes for all occasions collected under topics As You Like It

Edward Tomarken, 2014-05-01 This essay collection offers a lengthy introduction describing trends in criticism and theatrical interpretation of As You Like It. Twenty six major essays on the play including several written especially for this volume highlight the work coupled with twenty three reviews of various productions ranging from 1741 to 1919. Edward Tomarken edited this valuable collection with a contents that includes pieces by Samuel Johnson, Charles Gildon, J. Payne Collier, Denton J. Snider, Charles Wingate, Victor O. Freeburg, J. B. Priestly, Cumberland Clark, Margaret Maurer and others. Liberal Education and the Canon Laura Christian Ford, 1994 Liberal Education and the Canon is not written for the specialist; it is intended to be both informative to scholars and accessible to persons with no prior familiarity with the five texts discussed. Written in lucid jargon free prose, it is a unique blending of the timeless with the timely. Drawing from sources as long ago as Homer and as recent as current headlines, this book makes the continuity of the human experience evident.
