African-American Children at Church Wendy L. Haight, 2002 African American Children at Church explores African American socialization beliefs and practices based on findings of a unique four year long study in a Baptist church in Salt Lake City Utah By combining the ethnographic approaches of anthropology with the detailed naturalistic observations of developmental psychology Dr Haight provides a rich description of actual socialization practices along with an interpretation of what those patterns mean to the participants themselves Based on extensive interviews with successful African American adults involved with children this book begins with the exploration of adults beliefs about socialization issues focusing on the role of religion in the development of resilience Drawing from naturalistic observations of adult child interaction the book then describes actual socialization contexts and practices that help to nurture competencies in African American children The text focuses on Sunday School and includes narrative practices and patterns of adult child conflict and play Outlines of Bible Study George McKendree Steele, 1889 Bloody, Brutal, and Barbaric? William J. Webb, Gordon K. Oest, 2019-12-03 Christians cannot ignore the intersection of religion and violence In our own Scriptures war texts that appear to approve of genocidal killings and war rape raise hard questions about biblical ethics and the character of God Have we missed something in our traditional readings Identifying a spectrum of views on biblical war texts Webb and Oest pursue a middle path using a hermeneutic of incremental redemptive movement ethics Present and Future of Biblical
