The Report: Indonesia 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-05-21 On the cusp of 2014 national elections and the 2015 integration of the ASEAN Economic Community Indonesia is poised to continue its rapid economic expansion While the country's natural resources are still plentiful by channelling foreign direct investment into the right areas the government is ensuring that true potential in terms of value and manufacturing is achieved By inviting targeted investment and adapting existing regulatory frameworks the government has taken significant steps to facilitate foreign investment and the development of value added industries Indonesia is a country renowned for its abundance of natural resources which include oil gas coal nickel tin copper gold and silver While slightly down on the previous year the country's total oil production for 2012 stood at 861 000 barrels per day accounting for approximately 1.2% of the world's oil production Indonesia remains the world's largest exporter of thermal coal exporting a total of 304m tonnes in 2012 to countries such as Japan South Korea China and India The country continues to be the dominant nation in South east Asia politically and economically and its participation within ASEAN in particular will likely determine the shape of regional integration with the introduction of the ASEAN Economic Community AEC in 2015 looming as the bloc's next major milestone

The Public Understanding of Law Peter Smith, 2025-05-14 This insightful book discusses how law schools engage with the public to develop their understanding of the law It shows that effective engagement necessitates recognising the people involved as a shared community working towards both individual and collective goals      Unlocking regional potentials Bo Storrang,2017-04-20 Ecosystem services in the Nordic countries entail a high potential with regard to regional growth and job creation The report Unlocking regional potentials describes recent policy actions taken by the Nordic countries regarding natural and cultural heritage as a valuable resource in sustainable regional development In addition the report introduces examples of European and Nordic research and development activities concerning valuation of natural and cultural heritage Nordic experiences underline the need to apply a broad view on regional development including the importance of natural and cultural heritage to human health well being social inclusion and local identity There is also a need to develop regional platforms for interaction between different interest groups and to carry out further analyses of regional assets with regard to natural and cultural heritage      An IUCN situation analysis of terrestrial and freshwater fauna in West and Central Africa ,2015-06-01 This situation analysis was undertaken to inform responses to several resolutions made at the 5th World Conservation Congress in 2012 about the plight of large vertebrates in West and Central Africa It draws on a wide range of information to provide information on the status of these species important sites pressures legislation the effectiveness of protected areas and both community based incentives for conservation and institutional responses The overriding conclusion is of substantial wildlife declines and inadequate responses to either long standing pressures or rapidly escalating threats that have emerged in recent years      Regional Environmental Governance and Avenues for the Ecosystem Approach to management in the Baltic Sea Area Sara Söderström,2017-01-17 This thesis explores the avenues for the ecosystem approach to management in the Baltic Sea Region This region is one of the most contaminated water bodies in the world although the first Regional Seas Convention was created here and theregion has a long history of cooperation and environmental protection The current environmental governance arrangements are examined with specific focus on governance structures cross sectoral integration and ecological boundaries The ecosystem approach to management as both a tool and vision of holistic management of natural resources is traced through the evolution of environmental governance as well as its manifestation in contemporary environmental policies in the region It is found that the major EU directives as well as HELCOM polices promote the ecosystem approach and that its presence has increased in recent years it is now the major guiding principle in European marine governance However the governance structures impede implementation in different ways The environmental problem areas in the region all require different governance arrangements thus obstructing a holistic approach The environmental problems per se also affect each other necessitating far reaching sectoral integration and cross border cooperation which at present is the major obstacle regarding implementation The contemporary trends combining solid regionalisation through HELCOM with increased Europeanisation and macro regionalisation by different EU initiatives offer some promise but the cross sectoral impediments must be resolved if the ecosystem approach is to become apactical approach and not just a policy principle      Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Bangladesh Ali Riaz, Mohammad Sajjadur Rahman, 2016-01-29 In the past decade Bangladesh has achieved significant social and economic progress Despite high population density a limited natural resource base underdeveloped infrastructure frequent natural disasters and political uncertainty the country has recorded positive developments in terms of broad economic and social indicators This Handbook presents a comprehensive and interdisciplinary resource on the politics society and economy of Bangladesh today Divided into six thematic sections the Handbook focuses on relevant issues and trends on History and the making of contemporary Bangladesh Politics and institutions Economy and development Energy and environment State society and rights Security and external relations Written by a team of international experts in the field the chapters provide an accessible and up to date insight into contemporary Bangladesh The Handbook will be of interest to students and academics of South Asian studies as well as policymakers journalists and others who wish to learn more about this increasingly important country      Routledge Handbook of National and Regional Ocean Policies Biliana Cicin-Sain, David Vanderzwaag, Miriam C. Balgos, 2015-05-15 This comprehensive handbook prepared by leading ocean policy academics and practitioners from around the world presents in depth analyses of the experiences of fifteen developed and developing nations and four key regions of the world that have taken concrete steps toward cross cutting and integrated national and regional ocean policy All chapters follow a common framework for policy analysis While most coastal nations of the world already have a variety of sectoral policies in place to manage different uses of the ocean such as shipping fishing oil and gas development in the last two decades the coastal nations covered in the book have undertaken concerted efforts to articulate and implement an integrated ecosystem based vision for the governance of ocean areas under their jurisdiction This includes goals and procedures to harmonize existing uses and laws to foster sustainable development of ocean areas to protect biodiversity and vulnerable resources and ecosystems and to coordinate the actions of the many government agencies that are typically involved in oceans affairs The book highlights the serious conflicts of use in most national ocean zones and the varying attempts by nations to follow the prescriptions emanating from the 1982 UN Law of the Sea Convention and the outcomes of the 1992 2002 and 2012 sustainable development summits The interrelationship among uses and processes in the coast and ocean requires that ocean governance be integrated precautionary and anticipatory Overall the book provides a definitive state of the art review and analysis of national and regional ocean policies around the world      40 Years of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea Tomasz Kamiński, Karol Karski, 2025-01-15 This book discusses contemporary challenges within the law of the sea a domain of international law extensively codified in United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea Given the considerable time elapsed since the convention s adoption and nearly three decades of its implementation the book analyses the interplay and influence of its provisions on international customary law as well as to identify issues arising from its application The book explores and discusses crucial aspects of the law of the sea addressing challenges and future perspectives related to UNCLOS provisions such as the delimitation of maritime areas maritime security safety environmental protection and the implications of advancing technologies particularly in the realm of unmanned vessels Additionally the book delves into recent maritime legal challenges arising from the conflict in Ukraine and the global impact of the COVID 19 pandemic The book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of the law of the sea international relations and international law The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
