The View from Saturday E. L. Konigsburg, 1999-05 Four students with their own individual stories develop a special bond and attract the attention of their teacher a paraplegic who chooses them to represent their sixth grade class in the Academic Bowl competition Mrs Eva Marie Olinski always gave good answers Whenever she was asked how she had selected her team for the Academic Bowl she chose one of several good answers Most often she said that the four members of her team had skills that balanced one another That was reasonable Sometimes she said that she knew her team would practice That was accurate To the district superintendent of schools she gave a bad answer but she did that only once only to him and if that answer was not good her reason for giving it was The fact was that Mrs Olinski did not know how she had chosen her team and the further fact was that she didn't know that she didn't know until she did know Of course that is true of most things you do not know up to and including the very last second before you do And for Mrs Olinski that was not until Bowl Day was over and so was the work of her four sixth graders They called themselves The Souls They told Mrs Olinski that they were The Souls long before they were a team but she told them that they were a team as soon as they became The Souls Then after a while teacher and team agreed that they were arguing chicken or egg Whichever way it began chicken or egg team or The Souls it definitely ended with an egg Definitely an egg

The View from Saturday E.L. Konigsburg, 2010-12-21 From the Newbery Medal winning author of the beloved classic From the Mixed Up Files of Mrs Basil E Frankweiler comes four jewel like short stories one for each of the team members of an Academic Bowl team that ask questions and demonstrate surprising answers How had Mrs Olinski chosen her sixth grade Academic Bowl team She had a number of answers But were any of them true How had she really chosen Noah and Nadia and Ethan and Julian And why did they make such a good team It was a surprise to a lot of people when Mrs Olinski's team won the sixth grade Academic Bowl contest at Epiphany Middle School It was an even bigger surprise when they beat the seventh grade and the eighth grade too And when they went on to even greater victories everyone began to ask How did it happen It happened at least partly because Noah had been the best man quite by accident at the wedding of Ethan's grandmother and Nadia's grandfather It happened because Nadia discovered that she could not let a lot of baby turtles die It happened when Ethan could not let Julian face disaster alone And it happened because Julian valued something important in himself and saw in the other three something he also valued Mrs Olinski returning to teaching after having been injured in an automobile accident found that her Academic Bowl team became her answer to finding confidence and success What she did not know at least at first was that her team knew more than she did the answer to why they had been chosen

Dust Off the Gold Medal Sara L. Schwebel, Jocelyn Van Tuyl, 2021-08-23 The oldest and most prestigious children's literature award the Newbery Medal has since 1922 been granted annually by the American Library Association to the children's book it deems most distinguished Medal books enjoy an outsized influence on American children's literature figuring perennially on publishers lists on library and bookstore shelves and in school curricula As such they offer a compelling window into the history of US children's literature and publishing as well as into changing societal attitudes about which books are best for America's schoolchildren Yet literary scholars have disproportionately ignored the Medal winners in their research This volume provides a critically and historically grounded scholarly analysis of representative but understudied Newbery Medal books from the 1920s through the 2010s interrogating the disjunction between the books' omnipresence and influence on the one hand and the critical silence surrounding them on the other Dust Off the Gold Medal makes a case for closing these scholarly gaps by revealing neglected texts insights into the politics of children's literature prize and by demonstrating how neglected titles illuminate critical debates currently central to the field of children's literature In particular the essays shed light on the hidden elements of diversity apparent in the neglected Newbery canon while illustrating how the books respond sometimes in quite subtle ways to contemporaneous concerns around race class gender disability nationalism and globalism
