The TV Arab By Jack G Shaheen:

The TV Arab Jack G. Shaheen, 1984 Dr Shaheen studying over 100 different popular entertainment programs cartoons and major documentaries telecast on network independent and public channels totaling nearly 200 episodes that relate to Arabs has thrown new and revealing light on the stereotypes of people from the Middle East

The Making of Arab Americans Hani J. Bawardi, 2014-05-01 While conventional wisdom points to the Arab Israeli War of 1967 as the gateway for the founding of the first Arab American national political organization such advocacy in fact began with the Syrian nationalist movement which emerged from immigration trends at the turn of the last century Bringing this long neglected history to life The Making of Arab Americans overturns the notion of an Arab population that was too diverse to share common goals Tracing the forgotten histories of the Free Syria Society the New Syria Party the Arab National League and the Institute of Arab American Affairs the book restores a timely aspect of our understanding of an area then called Syria that comprises modern day Syria Lebanon Jordan Israel and Palestine Hani Bawardi examines the numerous Arab American political advocacy organizations that thrived before World War I showing how they influenced Syrian and Arab nationalism He further offers an in depth analysis exploring how World War II helped introduce a new Arab American identity as priorities shifted and the quest for assimilation intensified In addition the book enriches our understanding of the years leading to the Cold War by tracing both the Arab National League's transition to the Institute of Arab American Affairs and new campaigns to enhance mutual understanding between the United States and the Middle East Illustrated with a wealth of previously unpublished photographs and manuscripts The Making of Arab Americans provides crucial insight for contemporary dialogues

A Community of Many Worlds The Museum of the City of New York, 2002-06-01 New York City's main Arab communities exemplify the continuity and change that has taken place throughout the city's rich history The Museum of the City of New York in partnership with the Middle East Institute at Columbia University and a group of local Arab and non Arab scholars activists and educators undertook a long overdue exploration of New York's Arab populations The result is a revealing collection of writings and photographs that document and tell the stories of these communities

Arab Media in the Information Age The Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research, 2006-01-02 The Arab media has been able to effect a qualitative and quantitative improvement in the past few years Today it is disseminating more information to a wider and growing audience In fact it has not only made its presence felt on the world stage but has even been able to influence the course of international events This change has largely been brought about by Arab satellite news channels Arab websites and international Arabic newspapers In spite of these achievements the Arab media still suffers from several structural shortcomings which it needs to immediately address and overcome The book contributes towards promoting the cause of the Arab media enrich its expertise and chart its future course It seeks to diagnose the ills facing the Arab media assess its orientation content and performance study its social responsibilities and functions evaluate the extent of its influence on

Arab public opinion and its role in presenting Western views to the Arab world The book also studies the experiences of the new Arab satellite channels In addition the book delves into certain contentious issues such as the independence and credibility of the media and the relationship of the press with commercial interests and political influence It also covers a comparative study of the Western and Arab media and examines the role of the press in times of war besides focusing on the growing role of the Internet in the Arab world The book draws on the expertise and insight of a distinguished group of contributors which consist of eminent media professionals prominent researchers and academicians from the Arab world and beyond

Religious Fundamentalism in the Contemporary World Santosh C. Saha, 2004-01-01 Today new and ever more pernicious forms of terrorist violence threaten the world Because these new forms of violence are so often linked to religious radicalism modern terrorism has challenged the secular ethics of contemporary civil society There is a pressing need to understand modern religious movements that have added militancy and belligerence as fundamental elements of religious practice Contributors to this volume painstakingly tackle the question of how to define the contours of current religious fundamentalism as they examine the private and public postures of fundamentalist rhetoric the importance of its regional variants and the damage it can do to regional and national education systems Their analysis tracks trends in religious movements that aspire to radicalize reform and violently topple governments and nations while highlighting the difference between fundamentalist interpretations and other longstanding juridical political and intellectual traditions

The United States and the Middle East Hooshang Amirahmadi, 1993-01-01 This book advances a critical analysis of U S Middle East policy and offers alternative perspectives It highlights areas of policy shortcomings in the wake of ongoing global and domestic changes and draws attention to the need for a new and more plausible U S policy The United States and the Middle East evaluates the roots and consequences of post World War II diplomatic and military initiatives including the Arab Israeli conflict the Palestinian question United States relations with Iran following the Iranian revolution Irangate the reflagging of Kuwaiti tankers and the war led by the United States against Iraq The important roles of U S media and Middle East studies and education in influencing U S foreign policy are also emphasized A concluding chapter focuses on the ongoing global restructuring and the U S quest for world leadership in the wake of the Persian Gulf War

White Christian Privilege Khyati Y. Joshi, 2021-09-14 A pervasive Christian privilege dominates the United States today Christian beliefs norms and practices infuse our society and lie embedded in our institutions even dictating the structure of our week from Sunday closings for the Christian Sabbath to blue laws restricting the sale of alcohol The US is recognized as the most religiously diverse country in the world and yet Christianity has always been integral to the country's national identity These customs which many of us have come to see as natural features of American life keep the freedom of religion declared in the pages of the Constitution from becoming a reality White Christian Privilege traces Christianity's influence on the American experiment from before the founding of the Republic to the social movements of today Mapping the way through centuries of salavery westward expansion immigration and citizenship laws the volume also reveals how Christian privilege in the US has always been entangled with notions of white supremacy Drawing on the voices of Christians and religious minorities Khyati Y Joshi explores how Christian privilege and white racial norms affect the lives of all Americans often in subtle ways that society overlooks By shining a light on the inequalities these privileges create Joshi highlights a way forward urging readers to help remake America as a diverse democracy with a commitment to true religious freedom Desert Passions Hsu-Ming Teo, 2012-11-15 The Sheikh E M Hull's best selling novel that became a wildly popular film starring Rudolph Valentino kindled sheik fever across the Western world in the 1920s A craze for all things romantically Oriental swept through fashion film and literature spawning imitations and parodies without number While that fervor has largely subsided tales of passion between Western women and Arab men continue to enthrall readers of today's mass market romance novels In this groundbreaking cultural history Hsu Ming Teo traces the literary lineage of these desert romances and historical bodice rippers from the twelfth to the twenty first century and explores the gendered cultural and political purposes that they have served at various historical moments Drawing on high literature erotica and popular romance fiction and films Teo examines the changing meanings of Orientalist tropes such as crusades and conversion abduction by Barbary pirates sexual slavery the fear of renegades the Oriental despot and his harem the figure of the powerful Western concubine and fantasies of escape from the harem She analyzes the impact of imperialism decolonization sexual liberation feminism and American involvement in the Middle East on women's Orientalist fiction Teo suggests that the rise of female authored romance novels dramatically transformed the nature of Orientalism because it feminized the discourse made white women central as producers consumers and imagined actors and revised reversed or collapsed the binaries inherent in traditional analyses of Orientalism Arabs and Muslims in the Media Evelyn Alsultany, 2012-08-20 After 9 11 there was an increase in both the incidence of hate crimes and government policies that targeted Arabs and Muslims and the proliferation of sympathetic portrayals of Arabs and Muslims in the U S media Arabs and Muslims in the Media examines this paradox and investigates the increase of sympathetic images of the enemy during the War on Terror Evelyn Alsultany explains that a new standard in racial and cultural representations emerged out of the multicultural movement of the 1990s that involves balancing a negative representation with a positive one what she refers to as simplified complex representations This has meant that if the storyline of a TV drama or film represents an Arab or Muslim as a terrorist then the storyline also includes a positive representation of an Arab Muslim Arab American or Muslim American to offset the potential stereotype Analyzing how TV dramas such as The Practice 24 Law and Order NYPD Blue and Sleeper Cell news reporting and non profit advertising have represented Arabs Muslims Arab Americans and Muslim Americans during the War on Terror this book demonstrates how more diverse representations do not in themselves solve the problem of racial stereotyping and how even seemingly positive images can produce meanings that can justify exclusion and inequality Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities

The Journal of International Communication ,2001 Race and Arab Americans Before and After 9/11 Amaney Jamal,Nadine Naber,2008-02-27 Bringing the rich terrain of Arab American histories to bear on conceptualizations of race in the United States this groundbreaking volume fills a critical gap in the field of U S racial and ethnic studies The articles collected here highlight emergent discourses on the distinct ways that race matters to the study of Arab American histories and experiences and asks essential questions What is the relationship between U S imperialism in Arab homelands and anti Arab racism in the United States In what ways have the axes of nation religion class and gender intersected with Arab American racial formations What is the significance of whiteness studies to Arab American studies Transcending multiculturalist discourses that have simply added on the category Arab American to the landscape of U S racial and ethnic studies after the attacks of September 11 2001 this volume locates September 11 as a turning point rather than as a beginning in Arab Americans

Friends, Lovers, Co-Workers, and Community Mary Erickson,Kathleen M. Ryan,Noah J. Springer,Deborah A. Macey,2016-05-26 Friends Lovers Co Workers and Community analyzes how television narratives form the first decade of the twenty first century are powerful socializing agents which both define and limit the types of acceptable interpersonal relationships between co workers friends romantic partners family members communities and nations This book is written by a diverse group of scholars who used a variety of methodological and theoretical approaches to interrogate the ways through which television molds our vision of ourselves as individuals ourselves as in relationships with others and ourselves as a part of the world This book will appeal to scholars of communication studies cultural studies media studies and popular culture studies

Islam in the Eyes of the West Tareq Y. Ismael,Andrew Rippin,2010-07-02 From the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 in New York to the Madrid and London bombings of 2004 and 2005 the presence of Muslim communities in the West has generated security issues and major political concern The government the media and the general public have raised questions regarding potential links between Western Muslims radical Islam and terrorism This speculation has given rise to popular myths concerning the Islamic world and led to a host of illiberal measures such as illegal warranting denial of Habeas Corpus black prisons and extreme torture throughout the democratic world This book challenges the authenticity of these myths and examines the ways in which they have been used to provide an ideological cover for the war on terror and the subsequent Iraq war It argues that they are not only unfounded and hollow but have also served a dangerous purpose namely war mongering and the empowering of the national security state It further considers the origin and transmission of these myths focusing on media government policy and popular discourse

Media - Migration - Integration Rainer Geißler,Horst Pöttker,2015-09-15 Following economists and scientists politicians of various European countries have realized that a modern society with a declining birthrate is in need of immigrants What can journalists contribute in order to enable migrants to feel at home in their receiving country What can be missed and ruined by journalists and media with regard to the integration of ethnic minorities Scholars from Austria Canada France Germany Russia Switzerland The Netherlands and the U S present their findings on the matter of media integration of migrants Can European media learn from experiences in the classic countries of immigration in North America

Pickens, 2018-01-19 Arab American Aesthetics enlists a wide range of voices to explore if not tentatively define what could constitute Arab American aesthetics in literature material culture film and theatre This book seeks to unsettle current conversations within Arab American Studies that neglect aesthetics as a set of choices and constraints Rather than divorce aesthetics from politics the book sutures the two more closely together by challenging the causal relationship so often attributed to them The conversations include formal choices but also extend to the broad idea of what makes a work distinctly Arab American That is what about its beauty ugliness sublimity or humor is explicitly tied to it as part of a tradition of Arab American arts The book opens up the ways that we discuss Arab American literary and fine arts so that we understand how Arab American identity and experience begets Arab American artistic enterprise Split into three sections the first offers a set of theoretical propositions for understanding aesthetics that traverse Arab American cultural production The second section focuses on material culture as a way to think through the creation of objects as an aesthetic enterprise The final section looks at narratives in theatre and how the impact of such a medium has the potential to recreate in both senses of the word play and invention By shifting the conversation from identity politics to the relationship between politics and aesthetics this book provides an important contribution to Arab American studies It will also appeal to students and scholars of ethnic studies museum studies and cultural studies

Television Show Trends, 2016-2020 Yvonne D. Leach, Nicholas J. Natalicchio, 2023-11-20 What do Euphoria Normal People Atlanta Ramy Vida I May Destroy You Stranger Things and Lovecraft Country have in common In the 2016 2020 time period they were created these TV shows exemplified one or more of four noteworthy trends authenticity diversity sexual candor and retrospection This is the first book to examine live action fictional television shows produced within a five year period through the lens of the trends that they epitomize For each show the following is discussed the significance of the platform and the format the intentions of the creators and showrunners pertinent background information similar shows and precedents the storytelling approach the cinematic form and finally how the show is emblematic of that particular trend Since trends have the possibility of becoming part of the mainstream they are important to identify as they emerge especially for viewers who have a keen interest in narrative television shows
