Roar Michael Clinton, 2022-09-13 ROAR is for everyone who is thinking about where they are in life and those who want more out of life From author Michael Clinton former president and publishing director of Hearst Magazines ROAR helps both those considering retirement and those who have no wish to retire get on with fulfilling their dreams before it s too late We are living in a time when everyone is constantly reassessing what is next for them In the mid career group people who have spent years working in a business are now seeing their industry changing dramatically and are facing the question What does that mean for me in the next twenty years At the same time the post career group is also going through massive change Many in this group are still not prepared financially logistically or emotionally to make the decisions necessary to face the next phase of their lives While they may be thinking about retiring they don t necessarily want to do nothing ROAR will help both groups think about what is really important to them and how to plan and take meaningful action so that the second half of their lives can be happy and productive The book offers a unique and dynamic 4 part process called ROAR Reimagine yourself Own who you are Act on what s next and Reassess your relationships This is the method Michael uses himself to pursue a purposeful life and now he shares his technique and approach so you can expand your own life too Prescriptive and inspiring with personal anecdotes from his life as well as from others he interviewed for the book ROAR is highly accessible entertaining and transformative

RESET: Living in God's Emotional and Instinctual Balance Dr. Susan Grove, 2024-08-19 Have you ever felt stuck Have you been praying but feel like you re not getting any traction Do you ever feel like you just need to start all over hit the reset button This book can walk you through the process of uncovering and discovering what is blocking you from living a life filled with the fruits of the Spirit With a simple chart of nineteen instincts and emotions that can get out of balance it s possible to identify key areas to recalibrate in order to claim the joy that Christ gifted us with The middle column of the chart illustrates a balanced joyful and fruitful life while the rest of the chart looks at the signs along the way that indicate we re out of balance There are key elements of our faith that can help us to move toward this balance Getting to know our Savior better Donning the full armor that God provides us with to battle our very real enemy Looking with eyes wide open at the temptation we face today Centering our lives on Christ Demystifying and using prayer A closer look at these elements can help us reset leading us to a life free of the bondage of emotions and instincts that are out of control

Psychology of Prejudice and Discrimination Mary E. Kite, Bernard E. Whitley, Jr., 2016-06-10 Psychology of Prejudice and Discrimination provides a comprehensive and compelling overview of what psychological theory and research have to say about the nature causes and reduction of prejudice and discrimination It balances a detailed discussion of theories and selected research with applied examples that ensure the material is relevant to students Newly revised and updated this edition addresses several interlocking themes such as research methods the development of prejudice in children the relationship between prejudice and discrimination and discrimination in the workplace which are developed in greater detail than in other textbooks The first theme introduced is the nature of prejudice and discrimination which is followed by a discussion of research methods Next comes the psychological underpinnings of prejudice the nature of stereotypes the conditions under which stereotypes influence responses to other people contemporary theories of prejudice and how values and belief systems are related to prejudice Explored next are the development of prejudice in children and the social context of prejudice The theme of discrimination is developed via discussions of the nature of discrimination the experience of discrimination and specific forms of discrimination including gender sexual orientation age ability and appearance The concluding theme is the reduction of prejudice An ideal core text for junior and senior college students who have had a course in introductory psychology it is written in a style that is accessible to students in other fields including education social work business communication studies ethnic studies and other disciplines In addition to courses on prejudice and discrimination this book is also adapted for courses that cover topics in racism and diversity For instructor resources consult the companion website <http://www.routledge.com/cw/Kite> which includes an Instructor Manual that contains activities and tools to help with teaching a prejudice and discrimination course PowerPoint slides for every chapter and a Test Bank with exam questions for every chapter for a total of over 1 700 questions

Ronald Reagan and the Space Frontier John M. Logsdon, 2018-11-26 When Ronald Reagan was elected in 1980 limits on NASA funding and the lack of direction under the Nixon and Carter administrations had left the U S space program at a crossroads In contrast to his predecessors Reagan saw outer space as humanity's final frontier and as an opportunity for global leadership His optimism and belief in American exceptionalism guided a decade of U S activities in space including bringing the space shuttle into operation dealing with the 1986 Challenger accident and its aftermath committing to a permanently crewed space station encouraging private sector space efforts and fostering international space partnerships with both U S allies and with the Soviet Union Drawing from a trove of declassified primary source materials and oral history interviews John M Logsdon provides the first comprehensive account of Reagan's civilian and commercial space policies during his eight years in the White House Even as a fiscal conservative who was hesitant to increase NASA's budget Reagan's enthusiasm for the space program made him perhaps the most pro space president in American history

Crimes of States and Powerful Elites Claudia Radiven, Simon Prideaux, 2021-07-06 This book explores fourteen case studies of state crime crimes immoralities of the powerful including disasters caused by neglect pharmaceutical fraud state sponsored or instigated crime corporate crime organisational crime and state terrorism The book offers a valuable contribution to critical social science perspectives on criminality providing analysis which explores issues of accountability and social harm and linking these to wider structural contexts particularly the role of neoliberal ideologies At the same time the book will provide a critical perspective on historical case studies which continue to have legacies in the present and which help to shed light on histories of domination and inequalities and to illustrate continuities and changes in crimes of the powerful over time
