German-Language Children's and Youth Literature In The Media Network 1900-1945. Petra Josting, Marlene Antonia Illies, Matthias Preis, Annemarie Weber, 2023-11-16. With the research of German language children's and youth literature and its media associations in the period from 1900 to 1945 as well as the recording of all data in an online portal for research and visual analysis, an innovative contribution to the historiography of children's and youth literature is available. The introduction provides information on the criteria for inclusion, central sources, theoretical frameworks, and the spectrum of the media associations investigated. Part I assembles three overview articles on the media of radio, film, and theater for children and young people, as well as a contribution on the conception and development of the online portal. In the second part, 18 selected media alliances are presented, sorted into the categories: pioneers, conquer the new media stage, children migrate to radio and/or film, fairy tales in film and radio, classics in all media, school stories in the theater, book and on the screen, crime and scandal on the screen, political, conquers book and film.

The Films of Konrad Wolf. Larson Powell, 2020. This is the first book in any language on the films of Konrad Wolf, 1925-1982, East Germany's greatest filmmaker, and puts Wolf in a larger European filmic and historical context.

Propaganda and the German Cinema, 1933-1945. David Welch, 2001-03-23. This is the most comprehensive analysis to date of Nazi film propaganda in its political, social, and economic contexts, from the pre-war cinema as it fell under the control of the Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels through to the end of the Second World War. David Welch studies more than one hundred films of all types, identifying those aspects of Nazi ideology that were concealed in the framework of popular entertainment.

The Concise Cinegraph ans-Michael Bock, im Bergfelder, 2009-09-01. This comprehensive guide is an ideal reference work for film specialists and enthusiasts. First published in 1984 but continuously updated ever since, CineGraph is the most authoritative and comprehensive encyclopedia on German-speaking cinema in the German language. This condensed and substantially revised English language edition makes this important resource available to students and researchers for the first time outside its German context. It offers a representative historical overview through bio-filmographical entries on the main protagonists from the beginnings to the present day. Included are directors and actors, writers and cameramen, composers and production designers, film theorists and critics, producers and distributors, inventors and manufacturers. An appendix includes short introductory essays on specific periods and movements such as Early Film, Weimar, Nazi Cinema, DEFA, New German Cinema, and German film since unification, as well as on cinematic developments in

Austria and Switzerland Sections that crossreference names around specific professional groups and themes will prove equally invaluable to researchers
