Religious and Non-Religious Perspectives on

Happiness and Wellbeing Sharada Sugirtharajah,2022-04-25 This book explores the theme of happiness and well being from religious spiritual philosophical psychological humanistic and health perspectives Taking a non binary approach it considers how happiness in particular has been understood and appropriated in religious and non religious strands of thought The chapters offer incisive insight from a variety of perspectives including humanism atheism and major religions such as Christianity Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Judaism Together they demonstrate that although worldviews might vary substantially there are concurrences across religious and non religious perspectives on happiness that provide a common ground for further cross cultural and interreligious exploration What the book makes clear is that happiness is not a static or monolithic category It is an ongoing process of being and becoming striving and seeking living ethically and meaningfully as well as arriving at a tranquil state of being This multifaceted volume makes a fresh contribution to the contemporary study of happiness and is valuable reading for scholars and students from religious studies and theology including those interested in interreligious dialogue and the psychology of religion as well as positive psychology Whose Agency Megan

Hershey,2019-06-04 Nongovernmental organizations NGOs are ubiquitous in the Global South Often international in origin many attempt to assist local efforts to improve the lives of people often living in or near poverty Yet their external origins often cloud their ability to impact health or quality of life regardless of whether volunteers are local or foreign By focusing on one particular type of NGO those organized to help prevent the spread and transmission of HIV in Kenya Megan Hershey interrogates the ways these organizations achieve or fail to achieve their planned outcomes Along the way she examines the slippery slope that is often used to define success based on meeting donor set goals versus locally identified needs She also explores the complex network of bureaucratic requirements at both the national and local levels that affect the delicate relationships NGOs have with the state Drawing on extensive original quantitative and qualitative research Whose Agency serves as a much needed case study for understanding the strengths and shortcomings of participatory development and community engagement Nostra Aetate, Non-Christian Religions, and Interfaith Relations Kail C. Ellis,2020-10-01

This book explores how Nostra Aetate the Declaration on the Relation of the Church with Non Christian Religions of the Second Vatican Council can influence inter religious dialogue and understanding in the modern world Although influential in religious academic and scholarly circles it is relatively unknown outside these areas The contributors remedy that deficit by highlighting the declaration s difficult historical and social context and the Church s evolving relationship with non Christians Contentious topics are examined such as the link between the Jewish people and the land and state of Israel that questions the Catholic understanding of the relativity of national borders and identity and the challenges posed to the Church s relationship with Islam by its prioritization of human rights and religious freedom for Christians and minorities in certain

Muslim regimes Given its scope it is an ideal resource for graduate students and researchers in the fields of political science international relations religion and minority studies Proceedings of the Oecumenical Methodist Conference.
