Handbook to Life in America Rodney P. Carlisle, 2009 Changing International affairs and the forces of technological innovation shaped the lives of Americans in the last decades of the 20th century While the end of the Cold War and the collapse of the Soviet Union gave rise to hopes of peaceful international relations the Gulf

War and the attacks of September 11 2001 on the World Trade Center in New York shattered these aspirations In the social sphere cell phones CDs and the Internet completely transformed the ways by which people communicated and conveyed information The election of an African American man to the presidency marked the successful continuation of the struggle for equal civil rights bolstering America's reputation as a radically changing place in this contemporary period

The Air They Breathe Debra Hendrickson, 2025-07 A timely revelatory first look into the impact climate change has on children the greatest moral crisis humanity faces today by a pediatrician in the fastest warming city in America Wildfires hurricanes and heat waves make headlines But what is happening in Debra Hendrickson's clinic tells another story of this strange and unsettling time Hendrickson is a pediatrician in Reno Nevada the fastest warming city in the United States where ash falls like snow during summer wildfires In The Air They Breathe Dr Hendrickson recounts patients she's seen who were harmed by worsening smoke smog and pollen two boys in Arizona stricken by record setting heat while hiking children who fled for their lives from Hurricane Harvey and the Tubbs Fire and a little girl whose life was forever altered by the Zika virus outbreak in 2016 The climate crisis is a health crisis and it is a health crisis first and foremost for children Children's bodies are interwoven with and shaped by their surroundings As the planet warms and their environment changes children's health is at risk The youngest are especially vulnerable because their brain lungs and other organs are forming and growing every day and because their physiology is so different from that of adults Childhood has always been a risky period of life throughout history babies and children have met peril from polio to famine from cyclones to war Yet they have never quite had to face in quite this way the potential loss of the future itself The Air They Breathe is not just about the health impacts of global warming but something more a soul stirring reminder of our moral responsibility to our children and their profound connections to this unique and irreplaceable world

Jefferson's Muslim Fugitives Jeffrey Einboden, 2020 On October 4 1807 Thomas Jefferson was handed documents written entirely in Arabic penned by two African Muslims fleeing captivity in rural Kentucky Jefferson's Muslim Fugitives recounts the untold story of escaped West African slaves in the American heartland whose Arabic writings reached a sitting U S President prompting him to intervene on their behalf Revealing Jefferson's lifelong entanglements with slavery and Islam Jeffrey Einboden uncovers the lost Muslim manuscripts which circulated among Jefferson and his prominent peers while questioning why such vital legacies from the American past have been entirely forgotten

Heading Out Terence Young, 2017-06-06 Who are the real campers Through hiking backpackers traversing the Appalachian Trail The family in an SUV making a tour of national parks and sleeping in tents at campgrounds People committed to the RV lifestyle who move their homes from state to state as season and whim dictate Terence Young would say all of the above Camping is one of the country s most popular pastimes tens of millions of Americans go camping every year Whether on foot on horseback or in RVs campers have been enjoying themselves for well more than a century during which time camping s appeal has shifted and evolved In Heading Out Young takes readers into nature and explores with them the history of camping in the United States Young shows how camping progressed from an impulse among city dwellers to seek temporary retreat from their exhausting everyday surroundings to a form of recreation so popular that an industry grew up around it to provide an endless supply of ever lighter and more convenient gear Young humanizes camping s history by spotlighting key figures in its development and a sampling of the campers and the variety of their excursions Readers will meet William H H Murray who launched a craze for camping in 1869 Mary Bedell who car camped around America for 12 000 miles in 1922 William Trent Jr who struggled to end racial segregation in national park campgrounds before World War II and Carolyn Patterson who worked with the U S Department of State in the 1960s and 1970s to introduce foreign service personnel to the real America through trailer camping These and many additional characters give readers a reason to don a headlamp pull up a chair beside the campfire and discover the invigorating and refreshing history of sleeping under the stars

Steering Human Evolution Yehezkel Dror, 2020-05-07 Humanity must steer its evolution As human knowledge moves a step ahead of Darwin s theories this book presents the emergence of human made meta evolution shaping our alternative futures This novel process poses fateful challenges to humanity which require regulation of emerging science and technology which may endanger the future of our species However to do so successfully a novel humanity craft has to be developed main ideologies and institutions need redesign national sovereignty has to be limited a decisive global regime becomes essential some revaluation of widely accepted norms becomes essential and a novel type of political leader based on merit in addition to public support is urgently needed Taking into account the strength of nationalism and vested interests it may well be that only catastrophes will teach humanity to metamorphose into a novel epoch without too high transition costs But initial steps such as United Nation reforms are urgent in order to contain calamities and may soon become feasible Being both interdisciplinary and based on personal experience of the author this book adds up to a novel paradigm on steering human evolution It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern history evolution sciences future studies political science philosophy of action and science and technology It will also be of wide appeal to the general reader anxious about the future of life on Earth Comments on the Corona pandemic add to the book's concrete significance
