Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there

Medieval Ethiopian Kingship, Craft, and Diplomacy with Latin Europe Verena Krebs,2021-03-17 This book explores why Ethiopian kings pursued long distance diplomatic contacts with Latin Europe in the late Middle Ages It traces the history of more than a dozen embassies dispatched to the Latin West by the kings of Solomonic Ethiopia a powerful Christian kingdom in the medieval Horn of Africa Drawing on sources from Europe Ethiopia and Egypt it examines the Ethiopian kings motivations for sending out their missions in the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries and argues that a desire to acquire religious treasures and foreign artisans drove this early intercontinental diplomacy Moreover the Ethiopian initiation of contacts with the distant Christian sphere of Latin Europe appears to have been intimately connected to a local political agenda of building monumental ecclesiastical architecture in the North East African highlands and asserted the Ethiopian rulers claim of universal kingship and rightful descent from the biblical king Solomon Shedding new light on the self identity of a late medieval African dynasty at the height of its power this book challenges conventional narratives of African European encounters on the eve of the so called Age of Exploration

The Traditional Teaching of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tāwahedo Church Christine Chaillot,2023-11-06 Christine Chaillot s new book The Traditional Teaching of the Ethiopian Orthodox T wahedo Church Faith and Spirituality presents a topic that is little if at all known outside Ethiopia even in Christian circles Moreover it is a much neglected field in the wider study of African education It is a teaching based on ancient texts and books taught orally to the students who will become the future clergy and who will then share their knowledge with the faithful in Church life The studies of the different disciplines are pursued at different schools and at different levels in liturgy theology with commentaries of books Old and New Testaments books of the Church fathers and monks as well as composition of poems genes and iconography All this teaching presented in the present volume is deeply related to the faith and spirituality of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church This teaching is a unique intangible cultural heritage One wonders however what its future will be in the context of the modern educational methods and social attitudes that have evolved in Ethiopia over the last half century
