All Roads Lead North Amish Raj Mulmi, 2022-01-05 During the June 2020 territorial dispute over Kalapani India blamed tensions on a newly assertive Nepal's deepening relations with China. But beyond the accusations and grandstanding this reflects a new reality: the power equations in South Asia have been redrawn to make space for China. Nepal did not turn northwards overnight. Its ties with China have deep historical roots built on Buddhism dating to the early first millennium. While India's unofficial 2015 blockade provided momentum to the rift with Delhi, Nepal has long wanted deeper ties with Beijing to counteract India's oppressive intimacy. With China's growing South Asian and global ambitions, Nepal now has a new primary bilateral partner and Nepalis are forging a path towards modernity with its help both in the remote borderlands and in the cities. All Roads Lead North offers a long view of Nepal's foreign relations today underpinned by China's world power status. Sharing never before told stories about Tibetan guerrilla fighters, failed coup leaders, and trans-Himalayan traders, Nepal analyst Amish Raj Mulmi examines the histories binding mountain communities together across the Sino-Nepali border. Part history, part journalistic account, Mulmi's is a complex, compelling, and rigorously researched study of a small country caught between two neighbourhood giants.
