A Shattered Peace David A. Andelman,2014-11-25 How the Treaty of Versailles is still influencing current events with a new Foreword by Sir Harold Evans and a new Introduction by the author For more than half a century it has been widely recognized that the Treaty of Versailles created the circumstances that led inevitably to World War II Less acknowledged and understood is the treaty s profound impact on many other parts of the world an impact that echoes to this day in the Middle East the Far East the Balkans and yes in Iraq In A Shattered Peace veteran foreign correspondent David A Andelman takes a fresh new look at the Treaty of Versailles as the point of origin for many of today s most critical international issues In this revealing history Andelman turns the spotlight on the many errors committed by the peacemakers that led to crises and bloodshed from Kosovo to Iraq wars from Israel to Vietnam Focusing on the small nations and minor players at the negotiations including figures such as Ho Chi Minh and Charles de Gaulle who would later become boldfaced names he traces the outcome of the deliberations through the history of the twentieth century and into the twenty first Andelman also paints a vivid picture of the glittering and often chaotic social whirl that accompanied the negotiations Elsa Maxwell threw her first party young Franklin Delano Roosevelt flirted with Parisian widows to the humiliation of his wife Eleanor princesses and young gentlemen in formal attire danced gaily to the hot new sound of American jazz all this as prime ministers Georges Clemenceau and David Lloyd George ogled huge maps dividing up territories and cementing their nations positions as leading world powers for decades to come Complete with a new foreword by Sir Harold Evans a new introduction from the author and a never before published chapter on establishing a global economy as well as insightful quotations from the diaries and correspondence of participants and previously unpublished photographs of the proceedings and their surroundings A Shattered Peace will change the way you think about twentieth century history its influence on current events and where we should go from here Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
