AFROCENTRIC THEATRE Carlton W. Molette and Barbara J. Mole, 2013 Afrocentric Theatre updates the Molettes groundbreaking book Black Theatre Premise and Presentation that has been required reading in many Black theatre courses for over twenty five years Afrocentric theatre is a culturally based art form not a race based one Culture and values shape perceptions of such phenomena as time space heroism reality truth and beauty These culturally variable social constructions determine standards for evaluating and analyzing art and govern the way people perceive theatrical presentations as well as film and video drama A play is not Afrocentric simply because it is by a Black playwright or has Black characters or addresses a Black theme or issue Afrocentric Theatre describes the nature of an art form that embraces and disseminates African American culture and values Further it suggests a framework for interpreting and evaluating that art form and assesses the endeavors of dramatists who work from an Afrocentric perspective
