Skinner,2012-12-06 School psychologists are on the front lines in dealing with the most significant challenges facing children and the educational community today And in a world of ever increasing risks and obstacles for students school psychologists must be able to use their in depth psychological and educational training to work effectively with students parents teachers administrators and other mental health professionals to help create safe learning environments By recognizing each individual student s unique circumstances and personality school psychologists are able to offer specialized services to address such crucial children s issues as family troubles e g divorce death school assignments depression anger management substance abuse study skills learning disabilities sexuality and self discipline The Encyclopedia of School Psychology provides school psychologists and other educational and mental health professionals with a thorough understanding of the most current theories research and practices in this critical area In addition the Encyclopedia offers the most up to date information on important issues from assessment to intervention to prevention techniques Shengren Thorsten J. Pattberg,2012-10-01 The shengren is the single most important concept in Chinese history Since the Europeans had not anything like it but refused to hold the candle to China instead they withheld the shengren and talked about some lesser versions of Greek philosophers or Christian holy men The English soon found a slightly better translation they called the shengren sages The Germans however the descendants of the Holy Roman Empire of German Nation never had a concept for sages or sagehood In their effort to christen China the Germans called the shengren saints Few people realize how the fate of the shengren was inextricably linked to the German obsession with Holiness The European imperialists soon engaged in a fierce battle over China s most valuable possessions its names Pagan Christianity? Frank Viola,George

Barna,2010-09-30 Have you ever wondered why we Christians do what we do for church every Sunday morning Why do we dress up for church Why does the pastor preach a sermon each week Why do we have pews steeples and choirs This ground breaking book now in affordable softcover makes an unsettling proposal most of what Christians do in present day churches is rooted not in the New Testament but in pagan culture and rituals developed long after the death of the apostles Coauthors Frank Viola and George Barna support their thesis with compelling historical evidence and extensive footnotes that document the origins of modern Christian church practices In the process the authors uncover the problems that emerge when the church functions more like a business organization than the living organism it was created to be As you reconsider Christ s revolutionary plan for his church to be the head of a fully functioning body in which all believers play an active role you ll be challenged to decide whether you can ever do church the same way again Revelation, Truth, Canon and Interpretation Craig D. Allert,2015-12-22 This volume treats the concepts of revelation truth canon and interpretation as four pillars of early Christian theology Using Justin Martyr as a case study his Dialogue with Trypho is examined with a view toward discerning how a second century Christian father understands and develops these concepts Justin s intellectual background is discussed within the nuanced context of Middle Platonism Particular attention is paid to his use of biblical sources which is grounded in the foundational chapter on revelation in Justin Justin is placed within the wider context of theological developments in pre Nicene Christianity and includes a warning against judging Justin by anachronistic post Nicene developments Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb,2008 This encyclopedia spans the relationships among business ethics and society with an emphasis on business ethics and the role of business in society

Interface Between Igbo Theology and Christianity Akuma-Kalu Njoku,Elochukwu Uzukwu,2014-10-21 Interface between Igbo Theology and Christianity is a timely book that provides new scholarly thinking concerning the convergence of Christianity and Igbo Traditional Religion taking place in the Igbo culture area This book a fruit of multidisciplinary conversation among Igbo scholars and Igbophiles offers concepts themes issues and case studies with deep ethnographic details some of which do not exist anywhere else in print It is a major statement of how modern Igbo scholars social scientists philosophers theologians liturgists and active pastors and parish priests understand the intersection of Igbo Traditional Religion and Christianity in postcolonial Nigeria The editors and authors of the chapters of this book draw from their wealth of experience to offer to students scholars researchers community based organizations and NGOs and practitioners in interfaith dialogue a must have manual to engage in and develop mutual respect and trust among Christian denominations and between them and Igbo Traditional Religion This book will serve as a blueprint for a deep dialogue among the Igbo in both city and rural settings in the context of clan and community life context and in the Christian parish setting The book will certainly appeal to numerous communities in Africa wishing to share similar local experiences and collective memories but which do not have the channels to talk about themselves in scholarly writing Knowing Nature in Early Modern

Europe David Beck, 2015-10-06 Today we are used to clear divisions between science and the arts But early modern thinkers had no such distinctions with knowledge being a truly interdisciplinary pursuit Each chapter of this collection presents a case study from a different area of knowledge CD-ROM, an Interactive Study Guide for Soccio's Archetypes of Wisdom
