An Architecture of the Ozarks Marlon Blackwell, David Buege, Dan Hoffman, Juhani Pallasmaa, 2005-04-07 I live practice teach and build in northwest Arkansas in the foothills of the Ozark Mountains It s a place considered to be in the middle of nowhere yet ironically close to everywhere It is an environment of real natural beauty and simultaneously one of real constructed ugliness Abandonment exploitation erasure and nostalgia are all aspects of this place and are conditions as authentic as its natural beauty and local form This land of disparate conditions in not just a setting for my work it is part of the work By choosing to live and work here to call it home I ve been able to get beyond the surface of things to turn over the rock and discover the complex and rich underbelly of my place its visceral presences and expressive character that so informs and sustains my efforts I am working from the conviction that architecture is larger than the subject of architecture Marlon Blackwell Marlon Blackwell is a passionate polemicist He s also a very gifted architect The projects in this first monograph on the radical ruralist as touted by the Royal Institute of British Architects offer a new architectural language that at once celebrate the vernacular and transgress the boundaries of the conventional The results are we can t help it there s no better word beautiful Incisive essays by David Buege Dan Hoffman and Juhani Pallasmaa and lush photography by Tim Hursley Richard Johnson and Kevin Latady explore Blackwell s projects including his widely acclaimed Keenan TowerHouse the award winning Moore HoneyHouse 2Square House and Flynn Schmitt BarnHouse studios and institutional buildings
