Architecture Order Approaches Material Cultures:

Architecture and Order Michael Parker Pearson, Colin Richards, 2003-09-02 This book offers contributions ranging from studies of hunter gatherer camp organization to the use of space in Classical and Medieval worlds

Gender and Material Culture in Archaeological Perspective Moira Donald, Linda Hurcombe, 2000-09-30 Case studies drawn from many different periods and areas develop concepts and theories as diverse as the social contexts of production and artifact

Caring Architecture Ebba Högström, Catharina Nord, 2017-03-07 Architecture is hard stuff It is formed by walls roofs floors all components of hard materials stone glass and wood It distributes people in space and directs their doings and movements Institutions are even harder stuff Order is pushed a step further by the coerciveness of discursive architectural models and caring practices restricting options to certain ways of thinking and acting This book illuminates how people and spaces negotiate and often challenge regularities and patterns embedded in the meeting between architecture and institutions It contains a number of essays by authors from disciplines such as human geography architecture planning design social work and education The contributions discuss different examples from institutions in which care is carried out such as assisted living facilities residential care for children psychiatric care facilities hospitals and prisons By adopting a non representational perspective emergent practices render visible capacities of being flexible and mouldable in which institutional architecture is defied contested and transformed New situations appear which transgress physical space in partnership with those who populate it whether humans or non humans This book reveals the relational and transformative conditions of care architecture and the ways in which institutions transform or not into caring architecture

An Anthropology of Architecture Victor Buchli, 2020-05-15 Ever since anthropology has existed as a discipline anthropologists have thought about architectural forms This book provides the first overview of how anthropologists have studied architecture and the extraordinarily rich thought and data this has produced With a focus on domestic space that intimate context in which anthropologists traditionally work the book explains how anthropologists think about public and private boundaries gender sex and the body the materiality of architectural forms and materials building technologies and architectural representations Each chapter uses a broad range of case studies from around the world to examine from within anthropology what architecture does how it makes people and shapes sustains and unravels social relations An Anthropology of Architecture is key reading for students of anthropology material culture geography sociology architectural theory design and city planning

Pieter Bruegel and the Culture of the Early Modern Dinner Party Claudia Goldstein, 2017-07-05 Mining a rich interdisciplinary mix of sources including stoneware jugs personal correspondence paintings inventories and literature written for the dining room this study offers a critical and entirely original examination of the function of early modern images for the people who owned and viewed them The study explores the emergence functions and material culture of the Antwerp dinner party during the heady days of the mid sixteenth century when Antwerp's art market was thriving and a new wealthy non noble class dominated the city The author recontextualizes some of Bruegel s work within the cultural nexus of the dining room where material culture and theatrical performance met humanist wit and the desire for professional advancement The narrative also touches on the reception of Northern art in Lombardy on intersections among painting material culture and theater and on intellectual history

The Oxford Handbook of Material Culture Studies Dan Hicks, Mary C. Beaudry, 2010-09-02 Written by an international team of experts the Handbook makes accessible a full range of theoretical and applied approaches to the study of material culture and the place of materiality in social theory presenting current thinking about material culture from the fields of archaeology anthropology geography and science and technology studies

Religion, Material Culture and Archaeology Julian Droogan, 2012-12-27 Charts a new understanding of the materiality of religion by drawing on the field of archaeological theory and method

Time, Culture and Identity Julian Thomas, 2002-01-31 Time Culture and Identity questions the modern western distinctions between nature and culture mind and body object and subject Drawing on the philosophy of Martin Heidegger Julian Thomas develops a way of writing about the past in which time is seen as central to the emergence of the identities of people and objects

Theory and Practice in Archaeology Ian Hodder, 2004-08-02 An overview of the way the archaeological debate has developed over the last 10 years Hodder aims to break down the separation between theory and practice and reconcile the division between the intellectual and the dirt archaeologist

Handbook of Material Culture Chris Tilley, Webb Keane, Susanne Kuechler, Mike Rowlands, Patricia Spyer, 2006-01-05 The study of material culture is concerned with the relationship between persons and things in the past and in the present in urban and industrialized and in small scale societies across the globe The Handbook of Material Culture provides a critical survey of the theories concepts intellectual debates substantive domains and traditions of study characterizing the analysis of things It is cutting edge rather than simply reviewing the field as it currently exists It also attempts to chart the future the manner in which material culture studies may be extended and developed The Handbook of Material Culture is divided into five sections Section I maps material culture studies as a theoretical and conceptual field Section II examines the relationship between material forms the human body and the senses Section III focuses on subject object relations Section IV considers things in terms of processes and transformations in terms of production exchange and consumption performance and the significance of things over the long term Section V considers the contemporary politics and poetics of displaying representing and conserving material and the manner in which this impacts on notions of heritage tradition and identity The Handbook charts an interdisciplinary field of studies that makes an unique and fundamental contribution to an understanding of what it means to be human It will be of interest to all who work in the social and historical sciences from anthropologists and archaeologists to human geographers to scholars working in heritage design and cultural studies

New Approaches to Ancient Material Culture in the Greek & Roman World Catherine Cooper, 2020-11-16 New Approaches to Ancient Material Culture in the Greek Roman World is about Classical Archaeology at its broadest and is important reading to all Classicists As part of a recent movement to highlight the rich diversity of the subject it overcomes traditional disciplinary boundaries to show the variety of current approaches to the study of Classical Antiquity from the Late Bronze Age to the Late Antique period The multi disciplinary papers deal with archaeology and art history museum objects and fieldwork data ancient texts and material culture archaeological theory and historiography and technical and literary analysis The international contributors discuss a selection of methodologies currently used to study ancient material and illustrate their relevance through case studies which span the Greek and Roman world

Social Transformations in Archaeology Kristian Kristiansen, Michael Rowlands, 2005-10-05 Social Transformations in Archaeology explores the relevance of archaeology to the study of long term change and to the understanding of our contemporary world The articles are divided into broader theoretical issues post colonial issues in a wide range of contexts archaeological examination of colonialism with case studies from the Mediterranean in the first millenium BC and historical Africa

Photographs Objects Histories Elizabeth Edwards, Janice Hart, 2004-06-01 This innovative volume explores the idea that while photographs are images they are also objects and this materiality is integral to their meaning and use The case studies presented focus on photographs active in different institutional political religious and domestic spheres where physical properties the nature of their use and the cultural formations in which they function make their objectness central to how we should understand them The book s contributions are drawn from disciplines including the history of photography visual anthropology and art history with case studies from a range of countries such as the Netherlands North America Australia Japan Romania and Tibet Each shows the methodological strategies they have developed in order to fully exploit the idea of the materiality of photographic images

Mind, Materiality and History Christina Toren, 2005-08-15 How do we become who we are How is it that people are so similar in the ways they differ from one another and so different in the ways they are the same Christina Toren s theory of mind as not only a physical phenomenon but an historical one sets out to answer these questions by examining how the material world of objects and other people informs the constitution of mind in persons over time This theory of embodied mind as a microhistorical process is set out in the first chapter providing a context for the nine papers that follow Questions explored include the way meaning making processes reference an historically specific world and are responsible at once for continuity and change how ritual informs children s constitution of the categories adults use to describe the world and how people represent their relationships with one another and in so doing come to embody history Mind Materiality and History has direct relevance to current debates on the nature of mind and consciousness and demonstrates the centrality of the study of children to social analysis It will be a valuable resource for students and scholars with an interest in anthropological theory and methodology as well as those engaged in material culture studies

Material Culture Kenneth L. Ames, 1985 Time and Material Culture Julie Deschepper, Antony Kalashnikov, Federica Rossi, 2024-07-05 This edited volume offers an original exploration into the ways in which Soviet culture and experience of time were unique examining the temporalities expressed in the world of socialist things from the objects of everyday life to urban architecture Grounding the analysis of Soviet temporalities in their material incarnations not only lends concreteness to discussions of temporal culture but also draws out ways in which the specificities of Soviet things and their planning design manufacture and consumption mediated and produced particular ways of experiencing perceiving and representing time As such Time and Material Culture turns a new page in the study of the temporal and material culture of Soviet socialism and in doing so contributes to broader debates on the changing experiences of time in the global twentieth century The book integrates interdisciplinary perspectives as well as regional approaches sensitive to the multinational nature of the Soviet project Time and Material Culture will be useful to academics upper level undergraduates and graduate students interested in twentieth century cultures of time

Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic David Frankfurter, 2019-03-19 In the midst of academic debates about the utility of the term magic and the cultural meaning of ancient words like mageia or khesheph this Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic seeks to advance the discussion by separating out three topics essential to the very idea of magic The three major sections of this volume address 1 indigenous terminologies for ambiguous or illicit ritual in antiquity 2 the ancient texts manuals and artifacts commonly designated magical or used to represent ancient magic and 3 a series of contexts from the written word to materiality itself to which the term magic might usefully pertain The individual essays in this volume cover most of Mediterranean and Near Eastern antiquity with essays by both established and emergent scholars of ancient religions In a burgeoning field of magic studies trying both to preserve and to justify critically the category itself this volume brings new clarity and provocative insights This will be an indispensable resource to all interested in magic in the Bible and the Ancient Near East ancient Greece and Rome Early Christianity and Judaism Egypt through the Christian period and also comparative and critical theory Contributors are Magali Bailliot Gideon Bohak Vronique Dasen Albert de Jong Jacco Dieleman Esther Eidinow David Frankfurter Fritz Graf Yuval Harari Naomi Janowitz Sarah Iles Johnston Roy D Kotansky Arpad M Nagy Daniel Schwemer Joseph E Sanzo Jacques van der Vliet Andrew Wilburn

Elements of Architecture Mikkel Bille, Tim Flohr Sorensen, 2016-02-26 Elements of Architecture explores new ways of engaging architecture in archaeology It conceives of architecture both as the physical evidence of past societies and as existing beyond the physical environment considering how people in the past have not just dwelled in buildings but have existed within them The book engages with the meeting point between these two perspectives For although archaeologists must deal with the presence and absence of physicality as a discipline which studies humans through things to understand humans they must also address the performances as well as temporal and affective impacts of these material remains The contributions in this volume investigate the way time performance and movement both physically and emotionally are central aspects of understanding architectural assemblages It is a book about the constellations of people places and things that emerge and dissolve as affective mobile performative and temporal engagements This volume juxtaposes archaeological research with perspectives from anthropology architecture cultural geography and philosophy in order to explore the kaleidoscopic intersections of elements coming together in architecture Documenting the ephemeral relational and emotional meeting points with a category of material objects that have defined much research into what it means to be human Elements of Architecture elucidates and expands upon a crucial body of evidence which allows us to explore the lives and interactions of past societies Material Culture Matters John R. Spencer,Robert A. Mullins,Aaron J. Brody,2014-05-12 Dr Seymour Gitin is completing his tenure as Director and Dorot Professor at the W F Albright Institute of Archaeological Research in Jerusalem Much of his long career has been spent helping young scholars expand their contacts and hone their skills This volume is a collection of articles by some of the many developing scholars and Albright fellows with whom Sy has shared his time and knowledge Their appreciation shows in the quality of their articles the breadth of their interests and their dedication to Sy Gitin The articles range from a discussion of tomb robbing in Palestinian areas to a geographical analysis of the Shephelah region to Islamic historical texts to Israelite cult stands to Middle Bronze Age burials In addition there are several articles by former members of the Tel Migne Ekron staff that draw on the finds from that site and further demonstrate Sy s willingness to mentor and to share the publication of the site s rich trove of materials This book not only honors Dr Gitin by the willingness of fellows to contribute to the volume it also expands our knowledge base of the southern Levant and shows that Material Culture Matters Tools to Manage the Past Joseph A.
