Cuttings Joanne Jakovich, 2006 Shifting economies have left the world's post industrial cities with isolated zones of abandonment iconic yet dormant sites that are both physically and culturally vacant These sites are typically dislocated contaminated and often construed as a danger to be made safe or an economic burden to be made profitable They exist within the urban fabric though through disuse or disconnection they exist distinct from that fabric They are Urban Islands The research articles and design projects in this book consider how postindustrial sites may be used as templates for new ways of energising cities with cultural activity The Urban Islands Project on Cockatoo Island is a pointer to the possibilities Advances in Petrochemical Engineering and Green Development Bin Guan,2022-11-10 Advances in Petrochemical Engineering and Green Development is a compilation of selected papers from the 3rd International Conference on Petrochemical Engineering and Green Development ICPEGD 2022 and focuses on the research of petrochemical engineering The proceedings features the most cutting edge research directions and achievements related to geology and green development Subjects in this proceedings include Petroleum and Petrochemical Engineering Fossil Technologies Oil Gas Production Renewable Energy Sources and Technology Green Synergy Innovation Urban Crisis Management The collection of papers in this proceedings will promote the development of petrochemical industry and energy resource sharing flexibility and high efficiency Thereby it will promote scientific information interchange between scholars from top universities research centers and high tech enterprises working all around the world Courtyard Housing Brian Edwards,2006 This book demonstrates through discussions on sustainability and regional identity and via a series of case studies that the courtyard housing form has a future as well as a past Season to Taste Caroline J. Smith,2023-05-18 2024 Honorable Mention Recipient for the Emily Toth Award for the Best Single Work by One or More Authors from the Popular Culture Association Between 2000 and 2010 many contemporary US American women writers were returning to the private space of the kitchen writing about their experiences in that space and then publishing their memoirs for the larger public to consume Season to Taste Rewriting Kitchen Space in Contemporary Women s Food Memoirs explores women s food memoirs with recipes in order to consider the ways in which these women are rewriting this kitchen space and renegotiating their relationships with food Caroline J Smith begins the book with a historical overview of how the space of the kitchen and the expectations of women associated with it have shifted considerably since the 1960s Better Homes and Gardens as well as the discourse of the second wave feminist movement tended to depict the space as a place of imprisonment The contemporary popular writers examined in Season to Taste such as Ruth Reichl Kim Sun e Jocelyn Delk Adams Julie Powell and Molly Wizenberg respond to this characterization by instead presenting the kitchen as a place of transformation In their memoirs and recipes these authors reinterpret their roles within the private sphere of the home as well as the public sphere of the world of publishing whether print or digital publication The authors examined here explode the divide of private feminine and public masculine in both content and form and complicate the genres of recipe writing diary writing and memoir These women writers through the act of preparing and consuming food encourage readers to reconsider the changing gender politics of the kitchen Urban Design Jon Lang,2006-08-11 Urban Design provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to urban design presenting a 3 dimensional model with which to categorise the processes and products involved It not only defines the subject but also considers the future direction of the field and what can be learned from the past 50 international case studies demonstrate the variety of urban design efforts that have occurred in recent history

Sustainable Ho Chi Minh City: Climate Policies for Emerging Mega Cities Antje Katzschner, Michael Waibel, Dirk Schwede, Lutz Katzschner, Michael Schmidt, Harry Storch, 2015-12-01 As climate change and urban development are closely interlinked and often interact negatively this edited volume takes Ho Chi Minh City HCMC Vietnam's first mega urban region as a case study to analyse its vulnerability to climate change and to suggest measures towards a more sustainable urban development The book offers an overview on land use planning regarding the aspects of urban flooding urban climate urban energy and urban mobility as well as spatial views from the angle of urban planning such as the metropolitan level the city the neighbourhood and building level It shows that to a significant degree measures dealing with climate change can be taken from the toolbox of sustainable urban development and reflects how institutional structures need to change to enhance chances for implementation given socio cultural and economic constraints This is merged and integrated into a holistic perspective of planning recommendations supporting the municipal government to increase its adaptive capacity The authors are members of a German government funded research project on how to support HCMC's municipal government to adapt to risks related to climate change

The Securitization of Memorial Space Nicholas S. Paliewicz, Marouf Hasian, Jr., 2019-11 The Securitization of Memorial Space argues that the National September 11 Memorial and Memorial Museum is a securitized site of memory what Foucault called a dispositif that polices visitors and publics to remember trauma darkness and victimage in ways that perpetuate the necessity of the Global War on Terrorism Contributing to studies in public memory rhetoric and argumentation and critical security studies Nicholas S Paliewicz and Marouf Hasian Jr show how various human and nonhuman actors participated in complicated argumentative formations that have mobilized political performative and militaristic practices of anti terroristic violence in other parts of the world While there were times that certain argumentative stakeholders such as local New Yorkers questioned the necessity of securitizing this site of memory agentic factions including the families of those who died on 9 11 public supporters security agents and politicians created an ideologically oriented security assemblage that remembers 9 11 through counter terroristic performances at Ground Zero In chronological order from the 2001 dustbowl to the present popularization of 9 11 memories the authors present seven chapters of rich rhetorical analysis that show how the National September 11 Memorial and Memorial Museum perpetuates grief uncertainty and angst that affects public memory in multidirectional ways

Official Gazette Philippines,2007 Architecture, Technology and Process Chris Abel,2007-03-30 This new selection of essays follows Chris Abel s previous best selling collection Architecture and Identity Drawing upon a wide range of knowledge and disciplines the author argues that underlying technological changes in the process of architectural production are fundamental changes in the way we think about machines and the world we live in Key topics include new patterns of urbanism in the fast growing cities of asia pacific metaphorical extensions of mind and body in cyberspace the divergent European and North American values shaping Sir Norman Foster s and Frank Gehry s work and the collaborative work methods and technologies creating the adaptable design practices of today Severan Culture Simon Swain,Stephen Harrison,Jaś Elsner,2007-10-04 This book surveys the Severan period s many developments in literature philosophy religion art archaeology and culture Architectural Regionalism Vincent B. Canizaro,2012-03-20 In this rapidly globalizing world any investigation of architecture inevitably leads to considerations of regionalism But despite its omnipresence in contemporary practice and theory architectural regionalism remains a fluid concept its historical development and current influence largely undocumented This comprehensive reader brings together over 40 key essays illustrating the full range of ideas embodied by the term Authored by important critics historians and architects such as Kenneth Frampton Lewis Mumford Sigfried Giedion and Alan Colquhoun Architectural Regionalism represents the history of regionalist thinking in architecture from the early twentieth century to today Architecture and Identity Chris Abel,1997 This work is a collection of the author s writings on the technological cultural and theoretical developments reshaping modern architecture The author approaches the subject from a range of knowledge including cybernetics new human science and philosophy Research Anthology on Rehabilitation Practices and Therapy Management Association, Information Resources,2020-08-21 The availability of practical applications techniques and case studies by international therapists is limited despite expansions to the fields of clinical psychology rehabilitation and counseling As dialogues surrounding mental health grow it is important to maintain therapeutic modalities that ensure the highest level of patient centered rehabilitation and care are met across global networks Research Anthology on Rehabilitation Practices and Therapy is a vital reference source that examines the latest scholarly material on trends and techniques in counseling and therapy and provides innovative insights into contemporary and future issues within the field Highlighting a range of topics such as psychotherapy anger management and psychodynamics this multi volume book is ideally designed for mental health professionals counselors therapists clinical psychologists sociologists social workers researchers students and social science academicians seeking coverage on significant advances in rehabilitation and therapy
