

The background is a vibrant, hand-drawn fantasy landscape. At the top, a purple, cloud-like creature with a face and a long tongue is on the left, and a brown, winged creature resembling a griffin or a winged horse is on the right. Below them, a large, yellow, parchment-like banner with a torn edge contains the title. The landscape below the banner features a green field with a large skull in the center, two knights on horseback (one on a red horse, one on a brown horse) in the middle right, and a body of water at the bottom. In the bottom left, there's a small island with a lighthouse and a ship. In the bottom right, there's a small island with a castle. The overall style is reminiscent of classic fantasy role-playing game art.

Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic David Frankfurter, 2019-03-19 In the midst of academic debates about the utility of the term magic and the cultural meaning of ancient words like mageia or khesheph this Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic seeks to advance the discussion by separating out three topics essential to the very idea of magic The three major sections of this volume address 1 indigenous terminologies for ambiguous or illicit ritual in antiquity 2 the ancient texts manuals and artifacts commonly designated magical or used to represent ancient magic and 3 a series of contexts from the written word to materiality itself to which the term magic might usefully pertain The individual essays in this volume cover most of Mediterranean and Near Eastern antiquity with essays by both established and emergent scholars of ancient religions In a burgeoning field of magic studies trying both to preserve and to justify critically the category itself this volume brings new clarity and provocative insights This will be an indispensable resource to all interested in magic in the Bible and the Ancient Near East ancient Greece and Rome Early Christianity and Judaism Egypt through the Christian period and also comparative and critical theory Contributors are Magali Bailliot Gideon Bohak Vronique Dasen Albert de Jong Jacco Dieleman Esther Eidinow David Frankfurter Fritz Graf Yuval Harari Naomi Janowitz Sarah Iles Johnston Roy D Kotansky Arpad M Nagy Daniel Schwemer Joseph E Sanzo Jacques van der Vliet Andrew Wilburn Manual of Sacred History to help students construct meaning for declarative knowledge internalize procedural knowledge and see the relevance of what they are expected to learn The authors provide many examples at the elementary and secondary classroom levels
