But she has been having very troubling dreams and isn't sure if they are going to come true. With her ESP she pictures herself still pregnant and attending her husband's funeral which scares her to death making their precious time and the renewal of their wedding vows even more intensely emotional for her. Not knowing if her premonitions will come true only knowing the shock of it may cause her to go into premature labor and lose her twins in her last trimester with a real chance of her being lost in a world of grief and misery too devastating to comprehend. In a place where no one can reach her not even her six year old daughter Julie or the twins growing inside her. The loss of her husband she knows will tear apart the hearts of everyone who loves and admires him. They will all become helpless to reach her in her fragile state of mind due to the unbelievable shock and grief that will cause her to lose touch with reality. But she prays to God she is wrong.

Who Wrote "The Night Before Christmas"? MacDonald P. Jackson, 2016-05-11 Published anonymously in 1823 The Night Before Christmas has traditionally been attributed to Clement Clarke Moore 1779-1863 who included it in his Poems 1844. But descendants of Henry Livingston 1748-1828 claim that he read it to his children as his own creation long before Moore is alleged to have composed it. This book evaluates the opposing arguments and for the first time uses the author attribution techniques of modern computational stylistics to settle the long standing dispute.
