A Kitten Called Moonlight:

A Kitten Called Moonlight Martin Waddell, 2006 A little girl and her mother recall how a special kitten came into their lives one dark and stormy night Monsters Under the Bed Andrew Melrose, 2013-06-17 Monsters Under the Bed is an essential text focussing on critical and contemporary issues surrounding writing for early years children. Containing a critically creative and a creatively critical investigation of the cult and culture of the child and childhood in fiction and non-fictional writing, it also contains a wealth of ideas and critical advice. This text dynamically explores the issue of picture books literacy and writing for early years children with a wider view on child-centred culture, communication and media. Internationally recognised as an expert in the field, Andrew Melrose encourages academics, researchers and students to examine the fundamental questions in writing for and addressing early years children through an exploration of text and images. Accessibly written and lively in its approach, this book includes an accessible and critically important challenge to the latest international academic research and debates in the field of children's literature and creative writing, an extensive investigation of early years writing and reading, a pathway to developing critical awareness of children's literature, allowing students to develop their own critical ability and writing skills, constant checkpoints throughout in which the reader is encouraged to reflect on critically creative and creatively critical development. Providing a coherent and pedagogical approach, this compelling text will be an indispensable resource for critics, writers and students interested in children's writing, as well as those on Creative Writing, Children's Literature and English BA and MA programmes. It will also be of great interest to those in teacher training, PGCE students and for those studying at Doctoral and Post Doctoral level.

Write for Children Andrew Melrose, 2004-01-14 Writing for children is not about writing little stories; it is about writing big stories, shorter. Children's literature is an art form in its own right, and this book is for everyone who wants not just to write for children but to write well for them. This short guide to creative writing for children is based on the author's own successful MA course. Andrew Melrose provides guidance on every aspect of the process of writing for children. He stresses the importance of writing for the child and not writing to or at them. Literacy and learning depend on writing and reading, and it is therefore the responsibility of the writer to understand who they are writing for. The book is divided into four sections which cover all aspects of the writing process. This book goes far beyond the how-to format to help writers learn the finely balanced craft of writing for children. It will be an indispensable handbook for aspiring and practising children's authors.

Here Comes the Bogeyman Andrew Melrose, 2012-03-12 Here Comes the Bogeyman is an essential text focussing on critical and contemporary issues surrounding writing for children. Containing a critically creative and a creatively critical investigation of the cult and culture of the child and childhood in fiction and non-fictional writing, it also contains a wealth of ideas and critical advice to be shared with writers, students of children's writing and students of writing. With scores of published children's fiction books and films to his name, Andrew Melrose shares his extensive critical teaching, writing and research experience to provide a critical and creative investigation of writing and reading for children in the early middle and pre teen years an accessible and critically important challenge to the latest international academic research and debates in the field of children s literature and creative writing an evaluation of what it means to write for a generation of media savvy children encouragement for critics writers and students to develop their own critical creative and writing skills in a stimulating and supportive manner guidance on writing non fiction and poetry creative writing craftwork ideas which could be used as seminar topics or as individual reflections This one stop critical and creative text will be an indispensable resource for critics writers and students interested in the cult and culture of writing for children on Creative Writing BA and MA programmes Children s Literature BA and MA programmes English BA and MA programmes Teacher Training PGCE students and for those studying at Doctoral and Post Doctoral level who are interested in writing for children
