Natural Resource Management in Premodern Europe, 1400-1800 Susan Broomhall, Clare Davidson, 2025-04-14 This innovative collection examines how European queens participated in the conceptualisation mobilisation and transformation of natural resources from the fifteenth to the end of the eighteenth century Early modern queens interacted with human and nonhuman worlds through natural resource management activities that have rarely been the focus of sustained historical analysis This volume engages with the wide range of nonhuman materials living and inanimate that premodern queens had the power to direct and dispose of to utilise enjoy and commercialise to visualise and commemorate and even to destroy on and in their lands forests waterways and oceans Both queenship and natural resource management were configured by contemporary gender ideologies which structured a dynamic relationship between queenship and the more than human world The case studies in this collection explore how queens' natural resource management was impacted by their cultural and personal contexts particularly their changing status as queens regnant consort dowager or regent The contributors draw on diverse materials and employ a variety of historical approaches including political economic cultural literary legal and animal studies to demonstrate how queens interacted with the nonhuman world and how their engagements were embedded in premodern gender rules This collection will be of great value for undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars in gender and women's history environmental history queenship studies and early modern studies The Book of Hours and the Body Sherry C. M. Lindquist, 2024-02-29 This book explores our corporeal connections to the past by considering what three theoretical approaches somaesthetics posthumanism and the uncanny may reveal about both premodern and postmodern terms of embodiment It takes as its point of departure a selection of fifteenth century northern European Books of Hours evocative objects designed at once to inscribe social status to strengthen religious commitment to entertain to stimulate emotions and to encourage discomfiting self scrutiny Studying their kaleidoscopically strange moving humorous disturbing and imaginative pages not only enables a window into relationships among bodies images and things in the past but also in our own internet era where surprisingly popular memes drawn from such manuscripts constitute a part of our own visual culture In negotiating theoretical post theoretical and historical concerns this book aims to contribute to an

the Past Anne Dawson Hedeman, 2008 In 1409 Laurent de Premierfait produced a French translation of Giovanni Boccaccio s De casibus virorum illustrium a fourteenth century text containing cautionary historical tales that exemplify the corrupting effects of power Richly illustrated copies of the translation known as Des cas des nobles hommes et femmes became enormously popular allowing for a consideration not only of how Boccaccio s Latin made its way into Laurent s French but also how the text was converted into visual images In Translating the Past art historian Anne D Hedeman traces the history of Laurent s work from the first copies made for the dukes of Berry and Burgundy to manuscripts independently produced by artists and booksellers in Paris In certain cases masterpieces resulted such as the copy owned by the J Paul Getty Museum which was painted around 1415 by the Boucicaut Master under King Charles VII of France Sacred Landscapes Bryan C. Keene , Alexandra Kaczinski, 2017-10-10 Distant blue hills soaring trees vast cloudless skies the majesty of nature has always had the power to lift the human spirit For some it evokes a sense of timelessness and wonder For others it reinforces religious convictions And for many people today it raises concerns for the welfare of the planet During the Renaissance artists from Italy to Flanders and England to Germany depicted nature in their religious art to intensify the spiritual experience of the viewer Devotional manuscripts for personal or communal use from small scale prayer books to massive choir books were filled with some of the most illusionistic nature studies of this period Sacred Landscapes which accompanies an exhibition at the J Paul Getty Museum presents some of the most impressive examples of this art gathering a wide range of illuminated manuscripts made between 1400 and 1600 as well as panel paintings drawings and decorative arts Readers will see the influence of such masters as Albrecht Dürer Jan van Eyck Leonardo da Vinci and Piero della Francesca and will gain new appreciation for manuscript illuminators like Simon Bening Joris Hoefnagel Vincent Raymond and the Spitz Master These artists were innovative in the early development of landscape painting and were revered throughout the early modern period The authors provide thoughtful examination of works from the fifteenth through seventeenth centuries

Textual and Visual Representations of Power and Justice in Medieval France Rosalind Brown-Grant, Anne D. Hedeman, Bernard Ribémont, 2016-12-05 Thoroughly interdisciplinary in approach this volume examines how concepts such as the exercising of power the distribution of justice and transgression against the law were treated in both textual and pictorial terms in works produced and circulated in medieval French manuscripts and early printed books Analysing texts ranging from romances political allegories chivalric biographies and catalogues of famous men and women through saints lives mystery plays and Books of Hours to works of Roman canon and customary law these studies offer new insights into the diverse ways in which the language and imagery of politics and justice permeated French culture particularly in the later Middle Ages Organized around three closely related themes the prince as a just ruler the figure of the judge and the role of the queen in relation to matters of justice the issues addressed in these studies such as what constitutes a just war what treatment should be meted out to prisoners what personal qualities are needed for the role of lawgiver and what limits are placed on women's participation in judicial processes are ones that are still the subject of debate today What the contributors show above all is the degree of political engagement on the part of writers and artists responsible for cultural production in this period With their textual strategies of exemplification allegorization and satirical deprecation and their visual strategies of hierarchical ordering spatial organization and symbolic allusion these figures aimed to show that the pen and paintbrush could aspire to being as mighty as the sword wielded by Lady Justice herself
