Modern Death in Irish and Latin American Literature Jacob L. Bender, 2020-09-22 This comparative literature study explores how writers from across Ireland and Latin America have both in parallel and in concert deployed symbolic representations of the dead in their various anti colonial projects In contrast to the ghosts and revenants that haunt English and Anglo American letters where they are largely either monstrous horrors or illusory frauds the dead in these Irish Latinx archives can serve as potential allies repositories of historical grievances recorders of silenced voices and disruptors of neocolonial discourse
