And Pastor of the first Church in Northampton.

Levit. ix. ult. and x. 1, 2. *And there came a Fire out from before the Lord,-----upon the Altar ; -----which when all the People saw, they shouted and fell on their Faces. Religious Affections, In Three Parts Revised Jonathan Edwards, 2019-11-15 In a time where religion intellectualism has started to wane and the mystical philosophies of emotion have started to take over the church this work is vitally important Even in his day Edwards dealt with people that were putting too much emphasis on either Intellectualism or Affection and not seeing the importance of both of them together This volume helps to bridge the gap and gives us an alternative to worrying about bad emotions in our church to allowing a balanced experience of emotion in our churches Now in larger print

A Treatise Concerning Religious Affections Jonathan Edwards, 2012-04-01 In A TREATISE CONCERNING THE RELIGIOUS AFFECTIONS Jonathan Edwards provides an incisive analysis of genuine Christian feelings Drawn from his experiences during the Great Awakening his insights are every bit as relevant to our own times as they were then Religion is not a matter of mere emotionalism but neither is it a matter of doctrines with no personal emotional investment Some signs of Christianity conversion are unreliable but there are twelve genuine marks of a Christian Jonathan Edwards was a preacher and missionary in colonial America The son of a minister he attended Yale while still a teenager and went on to study theology While he was pastoring a church in Northampton the Great Awakening reached the town Amid the fervor of religious revival Edwards preached both encourage to true Christianity and to alert congregations to superficial imitations A TREATISE CONCERNING THE RELIGIOUS AFFECTIONS is a systematic collection of his preaching at that time Above all he says it is changed lives and characters that provide evidence of true Christianity A Treatise Concerning Religious Affections Jonathan Edwards, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1812 edition Excerpt friendship towards Christ Reason says the same that Christ said in John xiv 21 He that hath my commandments and keepeth them he it is that loveth me Thus if we see a man who in the course of his life seems to follow and imitate Christ and greatly to exert and deny himself for the honour of Christ and to promote his kingdom and interest in the world reason teaches that this is an evidence of love to Christ more to be depended on than if a man only says he has love to Christ and tells of the inward experiences he has had of love to him what strong love he felt and how his heart was drawn out in love at such and such a time when it may be there appears but little imitation of Christ in his behaviour and he seems backward to do any great matter for him or to put himself out of his way for the promoting of his kingdom but seems to be apt to excuse himself whenever he is called to deny himself for Christ So if a man in declaring his experiences tells how he found his heart

weaned from the world and saw the vanity of it so that all looked as nothing to him at such and such times and professes that he gives up all to God and calls heaven and earth to witness to it but yet in his practice is violent in pursuing the world and what he gets he keeps close is exceeding loth to part with much of it to charitable and pious uses it comes from him almost like his heart's blood But there is another professing Christian that says not a great deal yet in his behaviour appears ready at all times to forsake the world whenever it stands in the way of his duty and is free to part with it at any time to promote religion and the good of his fellow creatures Reason teaches that the latter gives far the most credible Religious

Affections Jonathan Edwards, 2013-12 Jonathan Edwards published A Treatise Concerning Religious Affections more commonly known as Religious Affections in 1746 to explain how true salvation occurs The work was born out of a concern for outbursts of emotion that were common during the Great Awakening which had begun in Edwards's church in 1734 In this work Edwards explains how emotion and intellect may both be present but are inadequate for salvation A show of emotion is neither evidence of or evidence against one's salvation It is God's converting grace that leads people to recognize and accept salvation through Jesus Christ Edwards systematically explains that the true religious affections are the Fruits of the Spirit all of which must flow out of love A Treatise Concerning Religious Affections Jonathan Edwards, 1794 A Treatise
