A View Of The Harbour:

A View Of The Harbour Elizabeth Taylor, 2011-09-29 INTRODUCED BY SARAH WATERS Every one of her books is a treat and this is my favourite because of its wonderful cast of characters and because of the deftness with which Taylor's narrative moves between them A wonderful writer SARAH WATERS In the faded coastal village of Newby everyone looks out for and in on each other and beneath the deceptively sleepy exterior passions run high Beautiful divorcee Tory is secretly involved with her neighbour Robert while his wife Beth Tory's best friend is consumed by the worlds she creates in her novels oblivious to the relationship developing next door Their daughter Prudence is aware however and is appalled by the treachery she observes Mrs Bracey an invalid whose grasp on life is slipping forever peers from her window constantly prodding her daughters for news of the outside world And Lily Wilson a lonely young widow is frightened of her own home Into their lives steps Bertram a retired naval officer with the unfortunate capacity to inflict lasting damage while trying to do good Her stories remain with one indelibly as though they had been some turning point in one's own experience ELIZABETH BOWEN Always intelligent often subversive and never dull Elizabeth Taylor is the thinking person's dangerous housewife Her sophisticated prose combines elegance icy wit and freshness in a stimulating cocktail VALERIE MARTIN A magnificent and underrated mid 20th century writer the missing link between Jane Austen and John Updike DAVID BADDIEL
