Excerpt from A Village Class for Drawing and Wood Carving Hints to Teachers During a residence of some months in a country parish in Scotland I started with the help of my sister an evening class for drawing and wood carving and it has occurred to me that a record of what we did might be useful to others willing and able to conduct such a class if they had a handbook to suggest a plan of work The laird kindly gave the use of a room which had been the village school before a new building had been set up by the School Board Some old tables and forms were borrowed until after a year or two by means of a Penny Beading sufficient funds were raised to have two excellent steady tables made by a village carpenter Private friends who found the class already started came forward most willingly with donations to help in the first outlay About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
