Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region Kristín Loftsdóttir, Lars Jensen, 2016-02-11 This book examines the influence of imperialism and colonialism on the formation of national identities in the Nordic countries exploring the manner in which contemporary discourses in Nordic society are rendered meaningful or obscured by references to past events and tropes related to the practices and ideologies of colonialism Against the background of Nordic exceptionalism it explores the manner in which the interwoven racial gendered and nationalistic ideologies associated with the colonial project form part of contemporary Nordic identities An important challenge to national identities that can become increasingly inward looking Whiteness and Postcolonialism in the Nordic Region sheds light on the ways in which certain notions and structural inequalities understood as residue from the colonial period become recreated or projected onto different groups Presenting a variety of case studies drawn from Sweden Finland Norway Greenland Denmark and Iceland this book will be of interest to scholars across the social sciences and humanities conducting research in the fields of race and ethnicity identity and belonging media representations of the other and colonialism and postcolonialism

Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century and Du Bois s Dialectics Reiland Rabaka s Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climactic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois s rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe s ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academe

Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures - Continental Europe and its Empires Prem Poddar, 2011-09-21 The first reference work to provide an integrated and authoritative body of information about the political cultural and economic contexts of postcolonial literatures that have their provenance in the major European Empires of Belgium Denmark France G Critical Theory Today Lois Tyson, 2012-09-10 Critical Theory Today is the essential introduction to contemporary critical theory It provides clear simple explanations and concrete examples of complex concepts making a wide variety of commonly used critical theories accessible to novices without sacrificing any theoretical rigor or thoroughness This new edition provides in depth coverage of the most common approaches to literary analysis today feminism psychoanalysis Marxism reader response theory new criticism structuralism and semiotics deconstruction new historicism cultural criticism lesbian gay queer theory African American criticism and postcolonial criticism The chapters provide an extended explanation of each theory using examples from everyday life popular culture and literary texts a list of specific questions critics who use that theory ask about literary texts an interpretation of F Scott Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby through the lens of each theory a list of questions for further practice to guide readers in applying each theory to different literary works and a bibliography of primary and secondary works for further reading Postwar British Literature and Postcolonial Studies Graham MacPhee, 2011-06-08 Explores a wide range of writers through the lens of postcolonial theory focusing on themes of imperialism and decolonisation globalisation and national identity What is Colonialism? Patrick Colm Hogan, 2023-11-30 What is Colonialism develops a clear and rigorous account of what colonialism is and how it works It draws on and synthesizes recent work in cognitive science affective science and social psychology along with Marxism and related forms of analysis Hogan begins with some fundamental conceptual distinctions such as the degree to which a group shares beliefs dispositions and skills versus the degree to which they share identification with a category Building on these distinctions he defines colonialism in terms of political economic and cultural autonomy clarifying the nature of culture and autonomy particularly He goes on to articulate an invaluable systematic account of the varieties of colonialism The final chapters outline the motives of imperialists differentiating these from their ideological rationalizations and sketching the harms caused by colonialism The book concludes by considering when or if one can achieve a genuinely postcolonial condition Hogan illustrates these analyses by examining influential literary works by European writers such as Joseph Conrad and by non Europeans such as Athol Fugard Kamala Markandaya and Wole Soyinka This accessible and informative volume is the ideal resource for students and scholars interested in colonialism and empire Kwéyòl in Postcolonial Saint Lucia Aonghas St-Hilaire,2011 Can historically marginalized threatened languages be saved in the contemporary global era In relation to the wider postcolonial world especially the Caribbean this book focuses on efforts to preserve and promote Lesser Antillean French Creole Kw y l as the national language of Saint Lucia and on the legacy of colonialism and impact of globalization with which English has become the universal lingua franca as mitigating factors undermining these efforts It deals specifically with language planning for democratization and government literacy the schools and higher education and the mass media It also examines changes in the status of and attitudes toward Kw y l English and French since national independence and presents language planning implications from these changes and steps already undertaken to elevate Kw y l The book offers new insight into globalization and its impact on linguistic pluralism language planning national development Creole languages and cultural identity in the Caribbean Preparing Antiracist Teachers Christine Montecillo Leider,Christina L. Dobbs,Erin Nerlino,2024-12-27 Preparing Antiracist Teachers Fostering Antiracism and Equity in Teacher Preparation examines multiple strategies and theories for developing antiracist attitudes and actions in teachers and teacher candidates This textbook uses critical consciousness as a framework to help practitioners and scholars to facilitate the process of doing antiracist work The book is divided into three sections with Part 1 focusing on critical reflection which refers to a social analysis and moral rejection of societal inequities such as social economic racial ethnic and gender inequities that constrain well being and human agency It shows that those who are critically reflective view social problems and inequalities in systemic terms and are therefore better able to address them Part 2 examines sociopolitical efficacy which refers to the perceived capacity to effect social and political change by individual and or collective activism Part 3 centers on critical action that is individual or collective action taken to change aspects of society such as institutional policies and practices that are perceived to be unjust This is a broad view of activism that can include participation in activities such as voting community organizing and peaceful protests Showcasing both USA based and international case studies Preparing Antiracist Teachers will support teacher educators in their work by presenting nuanced and important means of teacher education for antiracism and critical consciousness It will also benefit those studying related courses including Teacher Education Social Justice Education and Multicultural Education Tracking the Literature of Tropical Weather Anne Collett,Russell McDougall,Sue Thomas,2017-01-09 This book tracks across history and cultures the ways in which writers have imagined cyclones hurricanes and typhoons collectively understood as tropical weather Historically literature has drawn upon the natural world for its store of symbolic language and technical device making use of violent storms in the form of plot drama trope and image in order to highlight their relationship to the political social and psychological realms of human affairs Charting this relationship through writers such as Joseph Conrad Herman Melville Gis le Pineau and other writers from places like Australia Japan Mauritius the Caribbean and the Philippines this ground breaking collection of essays illuminates the specificities of the ways local national and regional communities have made sense and even relied upon the literary to endure the devastation caused by deadly tropical weather A Rich Field Full of Pleasant Surprises Alejandra Moreno-Álvarez, José Francisco Fernández, 2014-06-19 The essays collected in A Rich Field Full of Pleasant Surprises have been written by a number of lecturers from different Spanish universities in order to offer a picture of the current state of affairs in English Studies covering the areas of Contemporary Literature Postcolonial Studies Feminist and Gender Studies Globalization and Media Film Music and Crime Fiction among others The essays comprised in this volume tackle theoretical issues as well as practical cases showing the vitality and scholarly rigour of all kinds of literary and cultural manifestations worldwide particularly within a European framework The title of the book gives expression to the innovative and inspiring teaching of Professor Socorro Su rez Lafuente to whom the collection is dedicated Handbook of Research on Cross-Cultural Approaches to Language and Literacy Development Smith, Patriann, Kumi-Yeboah, Alex, 2015-08-04 With rapid technological and cultural advancements the 21st century has witnessed the wide scale development of transnationalist economies which has led to the concurrent evolution of language and literacy studies expanding cross cultural approaches to literacy and communication Current language education applies new technologies and multiple modes of text to a diverse range of cultural contexts enhancing the classroom experience for multi lingual learners The Handbook of Research on Cross Cultural Approaches to Language and Literacy Development provides an authoritative exploration of cross cultural approaches to language learning through extensive research that illuminates the theoretical frameworks behind multicultural pedagogy and its myriad applications for a globalized society With its comprehensive coverage of transnational case studies trends in literacy teaching and emerging instructive technologies this handbook is an essential reference source for K 20 educators administrators in school districts English as a Second Language ESL teachers and researchers in the field of Second Language Acquisition SLA This diverse publication features comprehensive and accessible articles on the latest instructional pedagogies and strategies current empirical research on cross cultural language development and the unique challenges faced by teachers researchers and policymakers who promote cross cultural perspectives Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2006-08-21 With a new Preface by leading educationist Peter McLaren the updated second edition of this comprehensive book provides an important educational perspective on world wide equality issues for student teachers and teachers at all stages Each of the five equality issues of gender race sexuality disability and social class are covered as areas in their own right and in relation to education Written by experts in each particular field the chapters trace

Laughing in the Face of Terrorism Bahadur Tejani, 2009 LAUGHING IN THE FACE OF TERRORISM is a collection of five books under a new title making the works affordable and a bargain for teachers and students of literature culture diversity seekers and the general public The search for harmony is a main theme in Tejani's work and here he speaks of it in words destined to be classic Music has the sweetness of the September sun the tenderness of a bird call in the woods the depth of unknown oceans and the serenity of the earth's swift strong glide across space You will marvel at the incredibly comic mission of the new Indian immigrant in America to teach Americans how to speak English properly Or rejoice in the friendship between Washington America's First President and a Muslim boy on Mount Rushmore Even wonder at Shakespeare committing suicide on the stage For variety Tejani teases the women of the world by comparing their scent to the aroma of rain on earth and exposes the vulnerability of men with satire on their preoccupation with the thermostat between their legs In this collection Ba Tejani has set out with mischief in his heart irreverent wisdom in his hands and a tickling teasing imagination which carries you on with a smile and a large question Just what is he upto What gifts of humanist synthesis does he have in his heart that we emerge refined and delighted and not peeved after reading one of his stories or watching his play 451 Pages Chinese-Japanese Competition and the East Asian Security Complex Jeffrey

Reeves, Jeffrey Hornung, Kerry Lynn Nankivell, 2017-07-14 This edited volume examines contemporary diplomatic economic and security competition between China and Japan in the Asia Pacific region focusing on their respective foreign policies under President Xi Jinping and Prime Minister Shinz Abe and regional security dynamics within and between Asian states institutions INDEPENDENCE TO FREEDOM Samanga Amarasinghe, 2011-08-24 The current research signifies that the resolutions for a solid post war development in Sri Lanka are hidden within its own history Through a close study of the Sri Lankan history from 6th century BC to 2009 AD using various research methods one can uncover this Moreover utilizing a range of diverse resources which include documents compiled by Colonial governors addition to parliamentary debates of Sri Lanka and Britain archeological research conducted by the department of archeology eyewitness accounts and other historical documents pertaining to the selected time frames has been strictly studied and compared in proving the weight of this theory Peasant Pasts Vinayak Chaturvedi, 2007-06-19 Publisher description In the Shadow of Partition Nalini

Iyer, Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2024-12-02 This book brings together conversations about the Partition and its haunting residues in the present as represented in literary visual oral and material cultures of the subcontinent and beyond The seventy fifth anniversary of Partition confronts scholars with significantly new subjects for reflection The question of historical memory has now largely transformed to one of its reproductions through mass politics and mass media and perhaps professional academic inquiry while the very meaning or value of Independence is in crisis This edited volume includes chapters on representations of partition experiences and the re drawing of the subcontinent's political map While the impact of the partition of the Punjab has been the focus of much scholarly studies in the past and Bengal to a smaller extent this collection extends the examination of the impact of this political event elsewhere in other communities in the subcontinent and across other differentials This book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Indian history Partition studies literature popular culture and performance postcolonial studies and South Asian studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asian Review

Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature

Postcolonial Thought in the French Speaking World Charles Forsdick, David Murphy, 2022-04-01 In the late 1990 s Postcolonial Studies risked imploding as a credible area of academic enquiry Repeated anthologization and an overemphasis on the English language literatures led to sustained critiques of the field and to an active search for alternative approaches to the globalized and transnational formations of the post colonial world In the early twenty first century however postcolonial began to reveal a new openness to its comparative dimensions French language contributors to postcolonial debate such as Edouard Glissant and Abdelkebir Khatibi have recently risen to greater prominence in the English speaking world and there have also appeared an increasing number of important critical and theoretical texts on postcolonial issues written by scholars working principally on French language material It is to such a context that this book responds Acknowledging these shifts this volume provides an essential tool for students and scholars outside French departments seeking a way into the study of Francophone colonial postcolonial debates At the same time it supplies scholars in French with a comprehensive overview of essential ideas and key intellectuals in this area
