The Politics of Sex, Race and Working-Class Slang in Late Second Empire French Caricature Russell Stephens, 2025-08-11 This study examines caricatures as they appeared within popular Parisian magazines in mid 19th century France at the time of the 1867 World's Fair Chapters compare the comic mockery of several of the most important satirists of this time including Amédée de Noailles and Honoré Daumier 1808 1879 as he was more popularly known and Honoré Daumier 1808 1879 A major theme within the analysis is how these caricaturists secretly used argot street slang as documented in two slang dictionaries by Parisian litterateur Alfred Delvau 1825 1867 within their comic images to carry hidden encrypted messages in order to evade the censorship of the day The book focuses primarily on caricatures of Chinese visitors who were part of the 1866 diplomatic visit to Paris and images of Chinese at the 1867 Exposition Universelle showing how the satires which were published by Cham used argot to create highly sexualised images that were often racist in nature In contrast the volume proposes that Daumier used slang in his caricatures to challenge racism and to make secret reference to current political leaders and politics The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture media studies and communication studies
