A House Of My Own Stories From My Life:

A House of My Own Sandra Cisneros, 2015 A book of essays spanning the author's career and reflecting upon the various homes she's lived in around the world Publisher information Ay Tú! Sonia Saldívar-Hull, Geneva M. Gano, 2024-10-22 A comprehensive volume on the life and work of renowned Chicana author Sandra Cisneros Sandra Cisneros b 1954 author of the acclaimed novel The House on Mango Street and a recipient of the National Medal of the Arts a MacArthur Genius Grant and the PEN Nabokov Award for International Literature was the first Chicana to be published by a major publishing house Ay T is the first book to offer a comprehensive critical examination of her life and work as a whole Edited by scholars Sonia Saldívar Hull and Geneva M Gano this volume addresses themes that pervade Cisneros's oeuvre like romantic and erotic love female friendship sexual abuse and harassment the exoticization of the racial and ethnic other and the role of visual arts in the lives of everyday people Essays draw extensively on the newly opened Cisneros Papers housed in the Wittliff Collections at Texas State University and the volume concludes with a new long form interview with Cisneros by the award winning journalist Macarena Hernández As these essays reveal Cisneros's success in the literary field was integrally connected to the emergent Chicana feminist movement and the rapidly expanding Chicana literary field of the late twentieth century This collection shows that Cisneros didn't achieve her groundbreaking successes in isolation and situates her as a vital Chicana feminist writer and artist

Making Strangers: Outsiders, Aliens and Foreigners Abbas Maazaoui, 2019-04-05 Studies on foreignness have increased substantially over the last two decades in response to what has been dubbed the migration refugee crisis Yet they have focused on specific areas such as regions periods ethnic groups and authors Predicated on the belief that this so called twenty first century problem is in fact as old as humanity itself this book analyzes cases based on both long term historical perspectives and current occurrences from around the world Bringing together an international group of scholars from Australia Asia Europe and North America it examines a variety of examples and strategies mostly from world literatures ranging from Spain's failed experience with consolidation as a nation state type entity during the Golden Age of Castile to Shakespeare's rhetorical subversion of the language of fear and hate to Mario Rigoni Stern's random status at the unpredictable Italian Austrian borders to Lawrence Durrell's ambivalent approach to noticing the physically visible other to the French government's ongoing criminalization of hospitality to Sandra Cisneros's attempt at straddling two countries and cultures while belonging to neither one to the illusive legal limbo of the DREAMers in the United States We are not born foreigners we are made The purpose of the book is to assert as denoted by the title this fundamental premise that is the making of strangers is the result of a deliberate and purposeful act that has social political and linguistic implications The ultimate expression of this phenomenon is the compulsive labeling of people along artificial categories such as race gender religion birthplace or nationality A corollary purpose of the book is to help shed light worldwide on one of the most pressing issues facing the world today the place of the other amid fear mongering and unabashedly contemptuous acts and rhetoric toward immigrants refugees and all those excluded within because of race gender national origin religion and ethnicity As illustrated by the examples examined in this book humans have certainly evolved in many areas dealing with the other might not have been one of those It is hoped that the book encourages reflection on how the arts and especially world literatures can help us navigate and think through the ever present crisis the place of the stranger among us

Ignacio F. Rodeño Iturriaga,2021-02-19 Acclaimed by many as one of the most gifted essayists and stylists in American letters these last few decades Richard Rodriguez has left an indelible imprint on the tradition of autobiographical writing of the nation Rode o s study of the four installments of Rodriguez s self writing offers an insightful and perspicacious analysis of the evolution and the most controversial elements in this Chicano writer s production so far Delving deeply into issues of racial and ethnic identity sexual orientation religious background various types of hybridity and different forms of socio cultural adaptation this book presents all kinds of incisive observations about the contested space s that minority self writers are often pushed to occupy in the American tradition of the genre Women Escaping Violence Elaine J.

Lawless,2013-03-07 The statistics are alarming Some say that once every nine minutes a woman in the United States is beaten by her spouse or partner Others claim that once every four minutes a woman in the world is beaten by her spouse or partner More women go to emergency rooms in the United States for injuries sustained at the hands of their spouses and partners than for all other injuries combined Shelters for battered women are filled beyond capacity every single day of the year Despite the overwhelming evidence that violence in our homes is a daily reality most of us are not willing to acknowledge this private violence or talk about it openly Women Escaping Violence brings women s stories to the attention of the academy as well as the reading public While we may be unwilling or unable to talk about the issue of battered women many of us are ready to read what women have to say about their endangered lives Considerable scholarship is emerging in the area of domestic violence including many self help books about how to identify and escape abuse Women Escaping Violence offers the unique view of battered women s stories told in their own words as well as a feminist analysis of how these women use the power of narrative to transform their sense of self and regain a place within the larger society Lawless shares with the reader the heart wrenching experiences of battered women who have escaped violence by fleeing to shelters with little more than a few items hastily shoved into a plastic bag and often with small children in tow The book includes women s stories as they are told and retold within the shelter in the presence of other battered women and of caregivers It analyzes the uses made of these narratives by those seeking to counsel battered women as well as by the women themselves

Victims and Survivors' Own Stories of Intrafamilial Child Sexual Abuse Steve Broome, Anna Gekoski, 2019-11-25 In the UK today it is estimated that nearly one in twenty children are subjected to sexual abuse with the overwhelming majority being abused within the family environment However despite its prevalence intrafamilial child sexual abuse remains largely shrouded in silence shame and stigma Taking a phenomenological approach this book presents ten retrospective first person accounts from adult victims and survivors exploring the impact of such abuse throughout the life course These stories illustrate how child sexual abuse can cause trauma affecting almost every aspect of life emotionally psychologically interpersonally behaviourally and cognitively However they also demonstrate the remarkable resilience of the human spirit of how adverse experiences can be lived with processed and assimilated These accounts address a gap in what academics practitioners and policy makers know about child sexual abuse give victims and survivors a voice and open up a conversation about one of the most enduring societal and cultural problems Catalogue of Books ...
