Corrigan,2021-11-03 Slaughtered along our highways roadkill may be observed regularly but aren't likely to be given much thought Research scientists animal rights activists roadkill artists writers ethicists and lyricists however are increasingly sounding the alarm They report that we are killing the very animals we love and are driving many of them to the brink of extinction Detailing the death and destruction of mammals reptiles amphibians and insect pollinators this study examines the ways in which we are thus jeopardizing our own futures Beginning in the Model T era biologists counted the common carnage of the time cottontails woodchucks and squirrels mostly That record keeping continues today Beyond the bleak statistics zoologists are rerouting migratory paths of animals and are advocating for cat and dog companions This book illuminates both our successes and failures in keeping animals out of harm's way and what those efforts reflect about ourselves and our capacity to care enough to alter the road ahead Chester the Brave Audrey Penn,2012-08-07 Little Chester Raccoon the beloved character who has helped so many children with issues in their lives learns the meaning of bravery and a method for overcoming his fears in this new Audrey Penn title After sharing the story of a little bird who is afraid to have flying lessons in front of his friends Mrs Raccoon tells Chester that being brave doesn't mean being unafraid being brave means not letting that fear stop him Mrs Raccoon teaches Chester an important strategy Think Tell Do When he thinks he is afraid he tells himself he can do it and then he just does it Of course getting a Kissing Hand helps a little too This simple strategy can be helpful to children in many different situations Welcoming Linguistic Diversity in Early Childhood Classrooms Edna Murphy,2011-06-06 Teachers in multilingual classrooms have been working for some years to improve their repertoire of ways to address the needs of very young children who enter school not speaking the language of instruction The work of 22 seasoned teachers and administrators in international schools all over the world this book contains a wealth of information for classroom teachers enabling them to face a new school year with confidence and for administrators to understand more clearly what is involved in the teaching of young children who do not yet understand the school's language. Written by teachers well experienced in addressing the needs of this young and vulnerable group, this book will come as a boon to new teachers presented with a multilingual classroom for the first time. The Kissing Hand Series Bindup Audrey Penn, 2018-09-11

A bind up book comprising all seven of the heartwarming Kissing Hand picture books by New York Times bestselling author Audrey Penn is perfect for gift giving. Twenty five years ago Audrey Penn wrote The Kissing Hand featuring Chester Raccoon and his loving mother Mrs Raccoon who shares a family secret called The Kissing Hand to give Chester the reassurance of her love any time his world feels a little scary. Through the years Chester has encountered numerous situations where he must be brave, resilient and kind, all attributes children learn and nurture as they grow. Issues covered in this series include starting school, a new sibling, moving, bullying, bravery, grief and memorial services and a first sleepover. Now Chester's adventures are available together for the first time. The perfect gift for a child new to or familiar with The Kissing Hand, this never before assembled collection is also a gift that will keep giving. As your child encounters these common situations, Chester is there to share his experiences and offer a positive perspective for both children and parents. Letter of the Week, Grades Preschool - K, 2012-09-01
