Donald M. Lewis

A Treatise On Regeneration Puritan Writings:

A Treatise on Regeneration Peter van Mastricht, 2002 Jesus said that people must be born again and without that occurring they could not enter the kingdom of God Thus the new birth or regeneration is a thing of great importance But is regeneration the result of faith or is it the cause of faith And what part does the human will play in this eternally significant event These are the questions that Van Mastricht answers in this book which contains a useful introduction by Brandon A New Treatise Upon Regeneration in Baptism William Adams, 1871 Puritans and Predestination Dewey D. Wallace Jr., 2004-03-17 A major contribution to Puritan scholarship Puritans and Predestination presents the first consistent and thorough historical analysis of a key Puritan theological concept predestination For almost two centuries prior to 1695 English religious and cultural life endured a period of great upheaval Dewey Wallace illuminates this complex era by tracing patterns of religious thought that took root in early English Protestantism and by explaining their social cultural and ecclesiastical implications Puritans and Predestination concludes that the differences between Puritan and Anglican theology were often subtle and sometimes nonexistent Central to Protestant theology was the doctrine of grace the notion that salvation was a divine gift a free gift to those who believed Among the many elements that constituted the doctrine of grace predestination was the foremost Wallace believes that shifting attitudes toward and emphases on predestination serve as both a measure of the extent of theological unity and an index of theological change Among the significant conclusions documented in the course of this study are the importance of the Bucerian order of salvation in the early English Reformation the anachronistic character of reading sharp differences in outlook between Puritan and Anglican and the centrality of the piety and theology of grace in Puritanism Wallace also explores the radically innovative character of the Laudian and Arminian theology the inroads of rationalistic moralism into theology by the middle of the seventeenth century and the emergence among later Stuart Dissenters of an evangelical pietism prefiguring the religion of the awakenings This book will be indispensable to those interested in Puritanism and the theology of the Church of England Historical Theology Made Easy C. Matthew McMahon, 2012-09-05 This work on historical theology follows key Christian beliefs chronologically discussing the most important movements and doctrinal developments for theology according to their historical appearance Historical Theology Made Easy offers students of the Bible the opportunity to study the historical development of theology according to God's providence throughout the history of the Christian church This approach allows readers to concentrate practically on the development of Christian teachings and their formulation in the early church through the Middle Ages Reformation post Reformation and into the modern period This book includes key primary sources citing quotes from Iranaeus Augustine Aquinas Luther Calvin the Puritans and others It makes historical theology which is often overwhelming easy to follow Puritans and Predestination Dewey D. Wallace, 2004-03-17 A major contribution to Puritan scholarship Puritans and Predestination presents the first consistent and thorough historical analysis of a key Puritan theological concept predestination For almost two centuries prior to 1695 English religious and cultural life endured a period of great upheaval Dewey Wallace illuminates this complex era by tracing patterns of religious thought that took root in early English Protestantism and by explaining their social cultural and ecclesiastical implications Puritans and Predestination concludes that the differences between Puritan and Anglican theology were often subtle and sometimes nonexistent Central to Protestant theology was the doctrine of grace the notion that salvation was a divine gift a free gift to those who believed Among the many elements that constituted the doctrine of grace predestination was the foremost Wallace believes that shifting attitudes toward and emphases on predestination serve as both a measure of the extent of theological unity and an index of theological change Among the significant conclusions documented in the course of this study are the importance of the Bucerian order of salvation in the early English Reformation the anachronistic character of reading sharp differences in outlook between Puritan and Anglican and the centrality of the piety and theology of grace in Puritanism Wallace also explores the radically innovative character of the Laudian and Arminian theology the inroads of rationalistic moralism into theology by the middle of the seventeenth century and the emergence among later Stuart Dissenters of an evangelical pietism prefiguring the religion of the awakenings This book will be indispensable to those interested in Puritanism and the theology of the Church of England TREATISE ON REGENERATION PETER VAN. MASTRICHT, 2018 Edwards, Religious Affections, and the Puritan Analysis of True Piety, Spiritual Sensation, and Heart Religion Brad Gospel-Centered Idolatry R L Coursey, 2022-10-18 Thomas Chalmers in his classic sermon entited The Walton, 2002 Expulsive Power of a New Affection correctly ascribes subjective power to subjective affections for love does have an expulsive power whether one loves God to the despising of self or loves self to the despising of God But he incorrectly sides with objective justification full pardon and gracious acceptance as the power that creates love and the engine that empowers sanctification He is right to suggest that a new affection has expulsive power but wrong to suggest that the source and power of a new affection is primarily in the indicative benefits Jonathan Edwards on the other hand sided with regeneration for the obvious reason that without a new nature the natural man can only be constrained by outside considerations the indicatives to superficially walk in newness of life the imperatives Such considerations mght produce change that rises as high as the outward performance of the Legalist but it is still only the superficial height that self love alone can achieve The Spirit's work of illuminating the higher glory and beauty of Christ to the soul is the only source of an affection that can be called new If the expulsive power of a new affection does not dethrone self as one s primary concern in life and theology then what exactly is being expulsed by the power of the gospel If one s religion does not surpass one s primary concern for what s in it for oneself then one s self love may have an expulsive power but it will be the light of the glory of God in the face of Christ Jesus that is expulsed by the power of self love The irony of the cross was that Christ was crucified by those who already had a knowledge of God's steadfast love and rejoiced in spiritual priviledges. The proper force and source behind the believer's love for God is not found in the objective benefits as they reflect upon the believer s high privileges but God s power alone as it is exerted in the soul by the Spirit imparting a new heart new affections and a new principle of action that did not exist prior Good fruit is produced only by a good tree and however constrained by outside forces a bad tree cannot be manipulated to produce fruit Liturgical purity, our rightful inheritance.
