century novels are largely unchanged and are likely to remain so given that Dorset enjoys England's highest proportion of conservation areas. The county is trimmed by the spectacular Jurassic Coast starring locations such as Durdle Door and Lulworth Cove, England's first natural World Heritage Site whose cliffs are continuously revealing their prehistoric fossilised secrets. History buffs meanwhile will love innumerable sites of archaeological interest including Britain's largest Iron Age hillfort Maiden Castle. Practical information covers where and what to eat, where and what to see and how to get around. This fourth edition integrates recent changes across the county, covers additional villages in north Dorset, celebrates child-friendly activities, introduces local food and drink producers, artisans and community projects and suggests new walks. Discover Dorset's award-winning vodka made from milk, discover what really goes on at the Filly Loo Festival, challenge your tastebuds at the Great Dorset Chilli Festival, hunt fossils on beaches featured in the biopic film Ammonite where Kate Winslet portrays world famous palaeontologist Mary Anning, learn where never to say the word rabbits and why, discover the Lyme Regis rubber duck race and get to grips with the fabulous Dorset dialect. Whatever your interest be it local food, tours of award-winning wineries, horseriding, relaxing on award-winning beaches or spectacular coastal hikes, Dorset Slow Travel remains the essential companion guide for both enjoying the obvious sites and getting off the beaten track to understand what really makes this gorgeous varied county tick.
