A Visitation Of Spirits A Novel:

A Visitation of Spirits Randall Kenan, 1989 The Crosses are the oldest and proudest black family in Tims Creek NC a town still governed by the rhythms and rituals of farming and tobacco But sixteen year old Horace seeks love and fulfillment where no other Cross has been What emerges is the complex and sustaining truths of four generations of a black family s life in the South The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs s Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright s Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women s clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature The Queer Renaissance Robert McRuer, 1997-06 The Queer Renaissance puts a name to the unprecedented outpouring of creative work by openly lesbian and gay novelists poets and playwrights in the past two decades This volume is one of the first to critically analyze this cultural awakening and is one of the only books to consider the work of gay male and lesbian writers together Most importantly it is the first book to consider how this wave of creative activity has worked in tandem with a flourishing of radical queer politics The Queer Renaissance explores the work of such important figures as Audre Lorde Edmund White Randall Kenan Gloria Anzaldua Tony Kushner and Sarah Schulman to question the dichotomy between art and activism In addition it interrogates the ways queer theory deploys intersects with and contests contemporary theoretical movements such as cultural studies feminist theory African American theory and Chicano a theory Critical Essays Emmanuel Nelson, 2013-09-13 This pioneering work is the first book to systematically explore the literature of gay and lesbian writers of color in the United States Critical Essays challenges the marginalization and tokenization of gay men and lesbians of color in the dominant academic discourses by focusing exclusively on the imaginative work of representative Native American Asian American Latino a and African American gay and lesbian writers As the first book offering a scholarly assessment of ethnic gay and lesbian writing in the U S Critical Essays simultaneously defies ethnic and mainstream homophobia as well as straight and gay lesbian racism This deliberate counter to the dominant white discourse of gay and lesbian literature offers a lively contribution to the debate on the intersections of race ethnicity gender sexuality and class in American literature A wide range of critical approaches including historical readings cultural analysis and deconstructive criticism is employed to the works of such major literary figures as Audre Lorde James Baldwin John Rechy Paula Gunn Allen and Gloria Anzald a These thought provoking chapters disrupt the complacent notion of a unified gay lesbian community by questioning the presumed similarities of persons who share sexual identity Some of the specific topics explored in Critical Essays include post coloniality and gay lesbian identities emerging Asian American gay and lesbian writers redefining the Harlem Renaissance from gay perspectives contemporary African American gay male performance art relocating the gay Filipino This groundbreaking volume will be of immense interest to undergraduate graduate and advanced scholars in Gay and Lesbian studies Women s studies African American studies Asian American studies Latino a studies and Native American studies It will also serve students and scholars as a valuable introduction to the diversity of authors that comprise twentieth century American literature

Contemporary Black Men's Fiction and Drama Keith Clark, 2001 Demonstrating the extraordinary versatility of African American men s writing since the 1970s this forceful collection illustrates how African American male novelists and playwrights have absorbed challenged and expanded the conventions of black American writing and with it black male identity From the John Henry Syndrome a definition of black masculinity based on brute strength or violence to the submersion of black gay identity under equations of gay with white and black with straight the African American male in literature and drama has traditionally been characterized in ways that confine and silence him Contemporary Black Men s Fiction and Drama identifies the forces that limit black male discourse including traditions established by iconic African American male authors such as James Baldwin Richard Wright and Ralph Ellison This thoughtful volume also shows how contemporary black male authors use their narratives to put forward new ways of being and knowing that foster a more complete sense of self and more humane and open ways of communicating with and relating to others In the work of Charles Johnson Ernest Gaines and August Wilson contributors find paths toward broader less rigid ideas of what black literature can be what the connections among individual and communal resistance can be and how black men can transcend the imprisoning models of hyper masculinity promoted by American culture Seeking greater spiritual connection with the past John Edgar Wideman returns to the folk rituals of his family while Melvin Dixon and Brent Wade reclaim African roots and traditions Ishmael Reed struggles with a contemporary cultural oppression that he sees as an insidious echo of slavery while Clarence Major s experimental writing suggests how black men might reclaim their own voices in a culture that silences them Taking in a wide range of critical theoretical cultural gender and sexual concerns Contemporary Black Men s Fiction and Drama provides provocative new readings of a broad range of contemporary writers

After Southern Modernism Matthew Guinn, 2011-06-14 The literature of the contemporary South might best be understood for its discontinuity with the literary past At odds with traditions of the Southern Renaissance southern literature of today sharply refutes the Nashville Agrarians and shares few of Faulkner's and Welty's concerns about place community and history This sweeping study of the literary South's new direction focuses on nine well established writers who by breaking away from the firmly ensconced myths have emerged as an iconoclastic generation Harry Crews Dorothy Allison Bobbie Ann Mason Larry Brown Kaye Gibbons Randall Kenan Richard Ford Cormac McCarthy and Barry Hannah Resisting the modernist methods of the past they have established their own postmodern ground beyond the shadow of their predecessors This shift in authorial perspective is a significant indicator of the future of southern writing Crews's seminal role as a ground breaking poor white author Mason's and Crews's portrayals of rural life and Allison's and Brown's frank portrayals of the lower class pose a challenge to traditional depictions of the South The dissenting voices of Gibbons and Kenan who focus on gender race and sexuality create fiction that is at once identifiably southern and also distinctly subversive Gibbons's iconoclastic stance toward patriarchy like the outsider's critique of community found in Kenan's work proffers a portrait of the South unprecedented in the region's literature Ford McCarthy and Hannah each approach the South's traditional notions of history and community with new irreverence and treat familiar southern topics in a distinctly postmodern manner Whether through Ford's generic consumer landscape the haunted netherworld of McCarthy's southern novels or Hannah's riotous burlesque of the Civil War these authors assail the philosophical and cultural foundations from which the Southern Renaissance arose Challenging the conventional conceptions of the southern canon this is a provocative and innovative contribution to the region's literary study

Southscapes Thadious M. Davis, 2011 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies The Cambridge Companion to the African American Novel

Maryemma Graham, 2004-04-15 This Companion presents new essays covering the one hundred and fifty year history of the African American novel South to the Future Fred C. Hobson, 2002 Until recently the American South has often been treated in isolation by historians and literary critics In these essays five scholars of southern history and literature evaluate elements of contemporary and future southern experience including place community culture class gender and racial roles Fred Hobson observes in his introductory essay that the U S South must be seen in relation to a larger world the Caribbean and Central and South America as well as European countries with a similar grounding in hardship and defeat Moreover the South can no longer be viewed in black and white terms especially if the subject is race Joel Williamson's essay challenges fellow historians to broaden their purview by getting acquainted with Gone with the Wind Elvis Presley and other phenomena of southern culture's Linda Wagner Martin discusses the innovative ways in which contemporary southern writers such as Charles Frazier take on traditional southern concerns and shows us how place becomes space for Alice Walker Barbara Kingsolver Cormac McCarthy and other southern born writers whose works are often set outside the geographical South

Thadious Davis looks at the youngsters of southern poetry fiction and drama revealing how their work reflects a racially and ethnically mixed digitized and otherwise reconfigured South In the writings of Shay Youngblood Randall Kenan Donna Tartt Mona Lisa Salloy and others one can see the collapsing of distinctions between the literary and the popular and a greater comfort with social fluidity and mobility The concluding essay by Edward Ayers set in 2076 offers a witty glimpse of things perhaps to come Through a series of short dispatches from a sixteen year old narrator of Scottish Ghanian Honduran Korean Cherokee descent Ayers transports us to the Consolidated South that counts Incarceration Incorporated among its largest employers As these writings signal new depths and directions in southern historical and literary studies they compose a witty and erudite album of snapshots revealing a region on the verge of big changes Killing the Buddha Peter Manseau, Jeff Sharlet, 2004-01-13 From Peter Manseau and Jeff Sharlet comes the most original and insightful spiritual writing to come out of America since Jack Kerouac first hit the road Publishers Weekly If you meet the Buddha on the road kill him The 9th century sage Lin Chi gave this advice to one of his monks admonishing him that this Buddha would only be a reflection of his unexamined beliefs and desires Peter Manseau and Jeff Sharlet took Lin Chi's advice to heart and set out on a car trip around America looking for Buddhas along the road and the people who meet them prophets in G strings dancing to pay the rent storm chasers hunting for meaning in devastating tornados gangbangers inking God on their bodies as protection from bullets cross dressing terrorist angels looking for a place to sing Along the way Manseau and Sharlet began to wonder what the traditional scripture they encountered everywhere in motels on billboards up and down the radio dial would look like remade for today's world To find out they called upon some of today's most intriguing writers to recast books of the Bible by taking them apart blowing them up with ink and paper Rick Moody recasts Jonah as a modern day gay Jewish man living in Queens A L Kennedy meditates on the absurdity of Genesis In Samuel April Reynolds visits a man of tremendous vision in Harlem Peter Trachtenberg unravels the Gordian logic of Job by way of the Borscht Belt Haven Kimmel dives into Revelation and comes out in a swoon Woven through these divine books are Manseau and Sharlet's dispatches from the road their Psalms of the people What emerges from this work of calling is not an attack on any religion but a many colored positively riveting look at the facets of true belief Together these curious minds tell the strange funny sad and true story of religion in America for the spiritual seeker in all of us A Heretic's Bible All Y'all Heidi Siegrist, 2024-11-11 The South is often perceived as a haunted place in its region's literature one that is strange deviant or queer The peculiar often sexually charged literary worlds of contemporary writers like Fannie Flagg Monique Truong and Randall Kenan speak to this connection between queerness and the South Heidi Siegrist explores the boundaries of negotiating place and sexuality by using the concept of Southernness a purposefully fluid idea of the South that extends beyond simple geography eschewing familiar ideas of the Southern canon When the connection between queerness and Southernness becomes apparent Siegrist shows a Southern branded queer deviance can not only change the way we think about literature but can also change

Southern queer people's lived experiences Siegrist gathers a bevy of undertheorized writers from Kenan and Truong to Dorothy Allison and even George R R Martin showing that there are many queer Souths Siegrist offers these multiverses as a way to appreciate a place that is often unfriendly even deadly to queer people But as Siegrist argues none of these Souths from the terrestrial to the imaginary would be what they are without the influence and power of queer literature A

Visitation of Spirits Randall Kenan, 2000 Sixteen year old Horace Cross is plagued by issues that hover in his impressionable spirit and take shape in his mind as loathsome demons culminating in one night of horrible and tragic transformation In the face of Horace's fate his cousin Reverend James Jimmy Green questions the values of a community that nourishes a boy places their hopes for salvation on him only to deny him his destiny Gothic to Multicultural A. Robert Lee, 2009 Gothic to Multicultural Idioms of Imagining in American Literary Fiction twenty three essays each carefully revised from the past four decades explores both range and individual register The collection opens with considerations of gothic as light and dark in Charles Brockden Brown war and peace in Cooper's The Spy Antarctica as world genesis in Poe's The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym the link of The Custom House and main text in Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter reflexive codings in Melville's Moby Dick and The Confidence Man Henry James Hawthorne as self mirroring biography and Stephen Crane's working of his Civil War episode in The Red Badge of Courage Two composite lineages address apocalypse in African American fiction and landscape in women's authorship from Sarah Orne Jewett to Leslie Marmon Silko There follow culture and anarchy in Henry James The Princess Casamassima text into film in Edith Wharton's The Age of Innocence modernist stylings in Fitzgerald Faulkner and Hemingway and roman noir in Cornell Woolrich The collection then turns to the limitations of protest categorization for Richard Wright and Chester Himes autofiction in J D Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye and the novel of ideas in Robert Penn Warren's late fiction Three closing essays take up multicultural genealogy Harlem then the Black South in African American fiction and the reclamation of voice in Native American fiction A Robert Lee is Professor of American Literature at Nihon University Tokyo having previously taught at the University of Kent UK His publications include Designs of Blackness Mappings in the Literature and Culture of Afro America 1998 Multicultural American Fiction Comparative Black Native Latino a and Asian American Fictions 2003 which won the American Book Award for 2004 Japan Textures Sight and Word with Mark Gresham 2007 and United States Re-viewing Multicultural American Literature 2008 Secular Steeples Conrad Ostwalt, 2003-03-24 Conrad Ostwalt explores the confluence of religion and popular cultural forms in the secular world demonstrating that a secular religiosity has co-opted some of the functions previously reserved for religions institutions The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty-First Century Richard Perez, Victoria A. Chevalier, 2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre

Comics and the U.S. South Brannon Costello,Qiana J. Whitted,2012-01-20 Comics and the U S South offers a wide ranging and long overdue assessment of how life and culture in the United States South is represented in serial comics graphic novels newspaper comic strips and webcomics Diverting the lens of comics studies from the skyscrapers of Superman s Metropolis or Chris Ware s Chicago to the swamps backroads small towns and cities of the U S South this collection critically examines the pulp genres associated with mainstream comic books alongside independent and alternative comics Some essays seek to discover what Captain America can reveal about southern regionalism and how slave narratives can help us reread Swamp Thing others examine how creators such as Walt Kelly Pogo Howard Cruse Stuck Rubber Baby Kyle Baker Nat Turner and Josh Neufeld A D New Orleans after the Deluge draw upon the unique formal properties of the comics to question and revise familiar narratives of race class and sexuality and another considers how southern writer Randall Kenan adapted elements of comics form to prose fiction With essays from an interdisciplinary group of scholars Comics and the U S South contributes to and also productively reorients the most significant and compelling conversations in both comics scholarship and in southern studies

Faithful Vision James W. Coleman,2009-08-01 This is a marvelous and sustained discussion of faithful vision and its significant influence on African American literature American Literature In Faithful Vision James W Coleman places under his critical lens a wide array of African American novels written during the last half of the twentieth century In doing so he demonstrates that religious vision not only informs black literature but also serves as a foundation for black culture generally The Judeo Christian tradition according to Coleman is the primary component of the African American spiritual perspective though its syncretism with voodoo hoodoo a religion transported from West Africa through the West Indies and New Orleans to the rest of black America also figures largely Reviewing novels written mainly since 1950 by writers including James Baldwin Randall Kenan Toni Morrison John Edgar Wideman Alice Walker Gloria Naylor Erna Brodber and Ishmael Reed among others Coleman explores how black authors have addressed the relevance of faith especially as it relates to an oppressive Christian tradition He shows that their novels no matter how critical of the sacred or supernatural or how skeptical the characters viewpoints ultimately never reject the vision of faith With its focus on religious experience and tradition and its wider discussion of history philosophy gender and postmodernism Faithful Vision brings a bold critical dimension to African American literary studies An insightful interrogation of the complexities of religious discourse in the African American literary tradition Because it superbly translates complex spiritual ethos into literary tradition this remarkable book is a must for anyone interested in intersections of the sacred and the secular in black cultural productions Southern Literary Journal Faithful Vision both looks intently into faith and shows us how to look Christianity and Literature     The Publishers Weekly ,1895     New York Magazine ,1989-08-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
