Dialectics in World Politics Shannon Brincat, 2017-10-02 This volume explores the conceptual methodological and praxeological aspects of dialectical analysis in world politics As dialectics has remained an under-theorised analytical tool in international relations this volume provides a critical resource for those seeking to deploy dialectics in their own research by showcasing its effectiveness for understanding and transforming world politics Contributions demonstrate a number of innovative ways in which dialectical thinking can be of benefit to the study of world politics by covering three thematic concerns i conceptual or meta-theoretical dimensions of dialectics ii methodological features and general principles of dialectical approaches and iii applications and or case studies that deploy a dialectical approach to world politics Canvassing a diverse range of dialectical approaches on key issues in world politics from global security to postcolonial resistances from the theoretical problems of reification and complexity to the study of the global futures and the intercultural historical expressions of dialectics Dialectics and World Politics offers key insights into the social forces and contradictions that are generative of transformation in world politics and yet routinely downplayed in orthodox approaches to international relations Each chapter demonstrates how dialectics can be utilized more broadly in the discipline and deployed in a critical fashion as part of an emancipatory project This book was originally published as a special issue of Globalizations

The New Middle East Fawaz A. Gerges, 2014 The New Middle East critically examines the Arab popular uprisings of 2011 12 Revolution in the Making of the Modern World John Foran, David Lane, Andreja Zivkovic, 2007-11-05 Featuring contributions from leading thinkers on revolution it combines theoretical concerns with case studies of individual revolutions to question whether ideas of revolution are still relevant in the postmodern and globalized world of the twenty first century Free Trade and Transnational Labour Andreas Bieler, Bruno Ciccaglione, John Hilary, Ingemar Lindberg, 2016-04-14 Resistance against free trade agreements based on an expanded trade agenda including issues related to intellectual property rights trade in services and trade related investment measures has increased since the demonstrations at the WTO ministerial conference in Seattle in 1999 While the WTO Doha negotiations have broken down the EU and USA are increasingly engaged in bilateral free trade agreements building on this expanded trade agenda Free trade strategies have increasingly become a problem for the international labour movement While trade unions in the North especially in manufacturing have supported free trade agreements to secure export markets for their companies trade unions in the Global South oppose these agreements since they often imply deindustrialisation The purpose of this volume is to understand better these dynamics underlying free trade policy making Academics trade union researchers and social movement activists analyse these issues in detail in order to explore possibilities for transnational labour solidarity This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations Revisiting the Global Imaginary Chris Hudson, Erin K. Wilson, 2019-04-02 Manfred B Steger s extensive body of work on globalization has made him one of the most influential scholars working in the field of global studies today His conceptualization of the global imaginary is amongst the most significant developments in thinking about globalization of the last three decades Revisiting the Global Imaginary pays tribute to Steger s contribution to our intellectual history with essays on the evolution ontological foundations and methodological approaches to the study of the global imaginary The transdisciplinary framework of this field of enquiry lends itself to investigation in diverse sites This volume of essays explores practices associated with the reproduction of the global imaginary in such diverse sites as mobile money Irish pubs cyber capitalism urban space music in post apartheid South Africa and global political movements amongst others A Global Idea Mayssoun Sukarieh, 2023-08-15 A Global Idea outlines how youth as shown by the Arab Spring uprisings and subsequent state responses became a prominent social and political category during the first two decades of the twenty first century in the Middle East Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork interview data and textual analysis Mayssoun Sukarieh explains that the spread of youth as an important category is linked to the operation of a global youth development complex a diverse transnational network of state private sector civil society and international development aid organizations that worked through key urban areas such as Washington DC Amman and Dubai In its analysis of the arrival extension and embedding of the youth development complex in the Middle East during this period A Global Idea addresses a broader question that is of global and not just regional concern How are certain ideas that are central to the working and reproduction of global capitalism able to travel the world so that they are found virtually everywhere Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J. Shepherd, 2014-07-17 Fully revised and updated this second edition of Gender Matters in Global Politics is a comprehensive textbook for advanced undergraduates studying feminism War Terrorism and political violence Land food and water International legal institutions Peacebuilding institutions and post conflict reconstruction Citizenship Art aesthetics and emotionality and New social media and global resistance This text enables students to develop a sophisticated understanding of the work that gender does in policies and practices of global politics The Global 1989 George Lawson, Chris Armbruster, Michael Cox, 2010-09-23 1989 signifies the collapse of Soviet communism and the end of the Cold War a moment generally recognized as a triumph for liberal democracy and when capitalism became global The Global 1989 challenges these ideas An international group of prominent scholars investigate the mixed paradoxical and even contradictory outcomes engendered by these events unravelling the intricacies of this important moment in world history Although the political economic and cultural orders generated have for the most part been an improvement on what was in place before this has not always been clear cut 1989 has many meanings many effects and multiple trajectories This volume leads the way in defining how 1989 can be assessed both in terms of its world historical impact and in terms of its contribution to the shape of contemporary world politics Cybernetic Revolution and Global Aging Leonid Grinin, Anton Grinin, Andrey Korotayev, 2024-05-17 This book explores the global technological transformations that have shaped development of society for eons from the emergence of Homo sapiens to the modern day Looking at a potential future for all of this century and the beginning of the next the book explores how society is changing as a result of the two most powerful trends technological advances and global aging It studies the forthcoming technological wave the Cybernetic Revolution which will encompass AI medical technology and biotechnology robotics cognitive nanotechnology etc In turn it shows why and how global aging will become one of the most powerful factors influencing the evolution of society and the World System as a whole Lastly the book demonstrates how technological innovations can change the way people live and the society of the future assessing both the new opportunities and threats posed by uncontrolled technological progress Accordingly it will appeal to social scientists political scientists economists and historians who are interested in technological transformations and their social and economic impacts The Arab State and Neo-Liberal Globalization Laura Guazzone, Daniela Pioppi, 2022-07-01 Now available in paperback this collection of essays offers an alternative approach to the study of today's Arab states by focusing on their participation in neo liberal globalization rather than on authoritarianism or Islam The effects of the restructuring of traditional state power engendered by globalization are analyzed separately through updated empirical research into the political economic and security processes of each country considered Egypt Lebanon Morocco and Saudi Arabia are the case studies selected to represent different paths towards a shared model of a new Arab state which far from representing an exceptional case of resilience against global trends may be seen in many instances as typifying their effects The book offers both an overall conceptualization of change affecting the Arab states domestically and internationally and a series of in depth case studies by country and functional areas It is extremely timely when viewed within the context of the current political unrest and unprecedented change within the Middle East This paperback edition includes a new preface which links the author s research to the current Arab Spring crisis

Political Theories of Decolonization Margaret Kohn,Keally McBride,2011-03-16 Political Theories of Decolonization provides an introduction to some of the seminal texts of postcolonial political theory The difficulty of founding a new regime is an important theme in political theory and the intellectual history of decolonization provides a rich albeit overlooked opportunity to explore it Many theorists have pointed out that the colonized subject was a divided subject This book argues that the postcolonial state was a divided state While postcolonial states were created through the struggle for independence they drew on both colonial institutions and reinvented pre colonial traditions Political Theories of Decolonization illuminates how many of the central themes of political theory such as land religion freedom law and sovereignty are imaginatively explored by postcolonial thinkers In doing so it provides readers access to texts that add to our understanding of contemporary political life and global political dynamics

Socioeconomic Protests in MENA and Latin America Irene Weipert-Fenner,Jonas Wolff,2019-07-05 This edited volume presents a detailed account of the dynamics of socioeconomic contention in Egypt and Tunisia since 2011 Combining quantitative and qualitative methods it analyses what has happened to the socioeconomic grievances that played a key role in the mass mobilizations of 2010 and 2011 The book is based on an original data set of socioeconomic protests in the two countries and on in depth case studies that cover the two most important types of socioeconomic contention labor protests and protests by socioeconomically disadvantaged people outside the formal economy Drawing on a systematic review of comparative research on Latin America the authors argue that the dynamics of socioeconomic contention in contemporary Egypt and Tunisia reflect a deep seated crisis of popular sector incorporation This work promises to enrich the scholarly and the political debates on Egypt and Tunisia the MENA region and on contentious politics in times of political change Chapter 10 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at link.springer.com

Reconsidering the Limits to Growth Viktor Sadovnichy,Askar Akaev,Ilya Ilyin,Sergey Malkov,Leonid Grinin,Andrey Korotayev,2023-09-25 Echoing the famous The Limits to Growth report from 1972 this edited volume analyses the changes that the World System has undergone to the present on the fiftieth anniversary of the original report During the past fifty years both the concept and understanding of these limits have significantly changed This book highlights that the evolution of the World System has approached a new critical milestone moving into a fundamentally new phase of historical development when the old economic and social technologies no longer work as efficiently as before or even begin to function counterproductively which leads the World System into a systemic crisis The book discusses the transition of human society to a new phase state the shape of which has not yet been determined New approaches are needed for both for the analysis of the global situation and for forecasts The book is based on an integrated approach including the world systems historical and evolutionary perspectives as well as a systematic view of society in which changes in one subsystem cause transformations in others Through mathematical modeling it defines the main vectors of transformations of the World System makes a detailed forecast of the development of all the main subsystems of the society and the World System while presenting horizons of changes from short term to ultra long term and presents different development scenarios as well as recommendations on how to achieve a transition to the most favorable scenario The book will appeal to members and followers of the Club of Rome policy makers as well as to scholars from various disciplines interested in a better understanding of the World System evolution global futures development studies climate change and future societies

Global Governance, Legitimacy and Legitimation Magdalena Bexell, 2017-10-02 Rules set by global governance organizations affect communities across the world Such organizations increasingly seek to obtain legitimacy in the eyes of groups beyond their member state elites This book advances scholarly debate on the politics of legitimacy and legitimation in global governance It brings together researchers from different subfields of International Relations in order to highlight trends and contradictions in the contemporary politics of legitimacy across areas of sustainable development humanitarian relief responsible investment sustainable fisheries and labour standards The chapters explore legitimation efforts by various forms of global governance bodies such as intergovernmental organizations public private partnerships and fully private bodies The book demonstrates that different governance forms beyond the nation state share deep legitimacy challenges and engage in continuous legitimation attempts Questions on the audiences of such legitimation attempts are particularly pivotal in understanding the politics of legitimacy Audiences are not predetermined but constituted through interaction between legitimation efforts and the reactions to those of targeted and other groups mirroring broader global power relations This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations

Gods, Guns, and Globalization Mary Ann Tétreault, Robert Allen Denmark, 2004 Is it accurate to equate fundamentalism with antimodernism What explains the growing importance of religious activists in world politics Guns Gods and Globalization explores the multifaceted phenomenon of religious resurgence ranging from the Christian right in the United States to ethnonationalist movements across North Africa and Asia The authors focus on the complex relationship between religious revivalism and globalization results in a nuanced study of religious political movements as they emerge in the context of rapid socioeconomic change

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Gender, Globalization, and Violence Sandra Ponzanesi, 2014-07-11 This wide ranging collection of essays elaborates on some of the most pressing issues in contemporary postcolonial society in their transition from conflict and contestation to dialogue and resolution It explores from new angles questions of violent conflict forced migration trafficking and deportation human rights citizenship transitional justice and cosmopolitanism The volume focuses more specifically on the gendering of violence from a postcolonial perspective as it analyses unique cases that disrupt traditional visions of violence by including the history of empire and colony and its legacies that continue to influence present day configurations of gender race nationality class and sexuality Part One maps out the gendered and racialized contours of conflict zones from war zones prisons and refugee camps to peacekeeping missions and humanitarian aid reframing the field and establishing connections between colonial legacies and postcolonial dynamics Part Two explores how these conflict zones are played out not just outside but also within Europe demonstrating that multicultural Europe is fraught with different legacies of violence and postcolonial melancholia Part Three gives an idea of the kind of future that can be offered to post conflict societies defined as contact zones by exploring opportunities for dialogue restoration and reconciliation that can be envisaged from a gendered and postcolonial perspective through alternative feminist practices and the work of art and their redemptive power in mobilizing social change or increasing national healing processes Though strongly anchored in postcolonial critique the chapters draw from a range of traditions and expertise including conflict studies gender theory visual studies new media theory sociology race theory international security studies and religion studies
