Arabic Thought and Islamic Societies (RLE Politics of Islam) Aziz Al-Azmeh, 2013-07-18 This is a study of the structure and composition of the official learning current in medieval Arabic culture This comprises natural sciences both exoteric and esoteric medicine alchemy astrology and others traditional and religious sciences such as theology exegesis and grammar philosophical sciences such as metaphysics and ethics in addition to technical disciplines like political theory and medicine and other fields of intellectual endeavour The book identifies and develops a number of conceptual elements common to the various areas of official Arabic scientific discourse and shows how these elements integrate these disparate sciences into an historical epistemic unity The specific profile of each of these different sciences is described in terms of its conceptual content but especially with reference to its historical circumstances These are seen to be embodied in a number of institutional supports both intellectual and social paradigms schools of thought institutions of learning pedagogic techniques and a body of professionals all of which combine to form definite albeit ever renewed traditions of learning Finally an attempt is made to relate Arabic scientific knowledge in the Middle Ages to patterns of scientific and political authority First published in 1986 Arabic Thought and Islamic Societies Aziz Al-Azmeh, 2013 This is a study of the structure and composition of the official learning current in medieval Arabic culture This comprises natural sciences both exoteric and esoteric medicine alchemy astrology and others traditional and religious sciences such as theology exegesis and grammar philosophical sciences such as metaphysics and ethics in addition to technical disciplines like political theory and medicine and other fields of intellectual endeavour The book identifies and develops a number of conceptual elements common to the various areas of official Arabic scientific discourse and shows how these elements integrate these disparate sciences into an historical epistemic unity The specific profile of each of these different sciences is described in terms of its conceptual content but especially with reference to its historical circumstances These are seen to be embodied in a number of institutional supports both intellectual and social paradigms schools of thought institutions of learning pedagogic techniques and a body of professionals all of which combine to form definite albeit ever renewed traditions of learning Finally an attempt is made to relate Arabic scientific knowledge in the Middle Ages to patterns of scientific and political authority First published in 1986 Arab Society (Routledge Revivals) Samih Farsoun, 2013-10-08 The Arab world has long been subjected to super power rivalry for influence and control The area has been characterized by bloody conflict with Israel and the internal instability that has been particularly prevalent in the last few years Whilst these political struggles have been highly visible and at times spectacular over the decades other transformations have taken place within the societies and peoples of the region on a less pronounced although just as profound scale The integration of the region into the world economy and the spread of Islamic revivalism are perhaps the most significant of these transformations This volume inspired by a lecture series on the Arab world in transition at the American University Washington D C was first published in 1985 It discusses a wide range of issues from economic to religious which together form an in depth analysis of the complex processes of transformation in Arab society This is a fascinating work that holds the same interest and value to scholars and students of Middle Eastern history politics and domestic affairs as it did when it was first published Routledge Library Editions: Islam, State and Society Various Authors,2022-07-30 The seven volumes in this set originally published between 1923 and 1987 explore the influence of Islam on law politics science and development in the Muslim world This set will be of interest to students of both Islamic and Middle Eastern studies Routledge Library Editions: Feminist Theory Various,2021-08-07 Routledge Library Editions Feminist Theory brings together as one set or individual volumes a series of previously out of print classics from a variety of academic imprints With titles ranging from The Liberation of Women to Feminists and State Welfare from Married to the Job to Julia Kristeva this set provides in one place a wealth of important reference sources from the diverse field of gender studies Ibss: Political Science: 1988 British Library of Political and Economic Science,1992 This bibliography lists the most important works in political science published in 1988 Contemporary Arab Thought Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi,2003-11-20 Contemporary Arab Thought is a multifaceted book encompassing a constellation of social political religious and ideological ideas that have evolved over the past two hundred years ideas that represent the leading positions of the social classes in modern and contemporary Arab societies Distinguished Islamic scholar Ibrahim Abu Rabi addresses such questions as the Shari ah human rights civil society secularism and globalisation This is complimented by a focused discussion on the writings of key Arab thinkers who represent established trends of thought in the Arab world including Muhammad Abid al Jabiri Adallah Laroui Muhammad al Ghazali Rashid al Ghannoushi Qutatnine Zurayk Mahdi Amil and many others Before 1967 some Arab countries launched hopeful programmes of modernisation After the 1967 defeat with Israel many of these hopes were dashed This book retraces the Arab world s aborted modernity of recent decades Abu Rabi explores the development of contemporary Arab thought against the historical background of the rise of modern Islamism and the impact of the West on the modern Arab world The New Cultural Atlas of the Islamic World Marshall Cavendish Corporation,2010 Examine the ancient Islamic world through expertly designed maps and site drawings bringing history to life Sacred Kingship in World History A. Azfar Moin,Alan Strathern,2022-05-10 Sacred kingship has been the core political form in small scale societies and in vast empires for much of world history This collaborative and interdisciplinary book recasts the relationship between religion and politics by exploring this institution in long term and global comparative perspective Editors A Azfar Moin and Alan Strathern present a theoretical framework for understanding sacred kingship which leading scholars reflect on and respond to in a series of essays They distinguish between two separate but complementary religious tendencies immanentism and transcendentalism which mold kings into divinized or righteous rulers respectively Whereas immanence demands priestly and cosmic rites from kings to sustain the flourishing of life transcendence turns the focus to salvation and subordinates rulers to higher ethical objectives Secular modernity does not end the struggle between immanence and transcendence flourishing and righteousness but only displaces it from kings onto nations and individuals After an essay by Marshall Sahlins that ranges from the Pacific to the Arctic the book contains chapters on religion and kingship in settings as far flung as ancient Egypt classical Greece medieval Islam Mughal India modern European drama and ISIS Sacred Kingship in World History sheds new light on how religion has constructed rulership with implications spanning global history religious studies political theory and anthropology 'Abd al-Laṭīf al-Baġdādī's Philosophical Journey Cecilia Martini Bonadeo, 2013-10-02 Although the philosopher Abd al La f al Ba d d 1162 1231 received an extensive education in the thought of Avicenna he still journeyed long in search of true philosophy It was in Cairo that he finally discovered a model of philosophical metaphysics rooted in Greek thought as set out in Kindian and Farabian writings This volume is devoted to the study of Aristotle s Metaphysics and other Greek metaphysical writing gathered together by this Muslim philosopher to form a Metaphysical Science in his Book of the Science of Metaphysics Kit b f ilm m ba d al ab a Political Islam, World Politics and Europe Bassam Tibi, 2014-07-11 The new and updated edition of Political Islam World Politics and Europe focusses on the shift within political Islam in light of 9 11 and the events of the Arab Spring from a jihadist struggle to institutional Islamism Refuting what has often been referred to by commentators as the moderation of Islamism the second edition of this book introduces the concept of institutional Islamism a process which Tibi argues was accelerated in the aftermath of the Arab Spring Both jihadist and institutional Islamism pursue the same goal of an Islamist state but disagree fundamentally on the strategy for achieving it Whilst jihadism is committed to the idea of a violent Islamic world revolution institutional Islamism embraces political institutions as a means to an end Turning to the events of the Arab Spring in Tunisia Libya and Egypt this book attempts to determine whether an abandonment of violence is enough to underpin a shift to genuine democracy Analysing the fall of Morsi in particular Tibi questions what lessons can be learnt from his presidency and argues that this event will not change the overall trend of development from jihadism to institutional Islamism A timely addition to existing literature this book will be of interest to students and scholars studying Middle Eastern and European Politics Political Islam and International Relations What is Islamic Philosophy? Roy Jackson, 2014-02-05 What is Islamic Philosophy offers a broad introduction to Islamic thought from its origins to the many challenging issues facing Muslims in the contemporary world The chapters explore early Islamic philosophy and trace its development through key themes and figures up to the twenty first century Topics covered include ethical issues such as just war abortion women s rights homosexuality and cloning questions in political philosophy regarding what kind of Islamic state could exist and how democratic can or should Islam really be the contribution of Islam to big questions such as the existence of God the concept of the soul and what constitutes truth This fresh and original book includes a helpful glossary and suggestions for further reading It is ideal for students coming to the subject for the first time as well as anyone wanting to learn about the philosophical tradition and dilemmas that are part of the Islamic worldview Routledge Library

Arabo-Islamic Philosophy Kaouther Karoui,2023-12-04 What is justice from the perspective of contemporary Arabo Islamic philosophy Kaouther Karoui takes a transcultural approach open to different philosophical traditions and seeks to decenter Western notions of normativity She focuses on two thinkers namely the feminist Fatima Mernissi d 2015 and Mohammed Arkoun d 2010 a well known critic of hegemony and orthodoxy She situates their thinking within current debates among Arab thinkers and brings their ideas into dialog with Western political philosophy This study thus challenges stereotypes about the Arab Islamic world by discussing postcolonial theories of gender justice political freedom and religion The Culture of Islam Lawrence Rosen,2004-04-01 Having worked for several decades in North Africa anthropologist Lawrence Rosen is uniquely placed to ask what factors contribute to the continuity and changes characterizing the present day Muslim world In The Culture of Islam he brings his erudition and his experiences to illuminating key aspects of Muslim life and how central tenets of that life are being challenged and culturally refashioned Through a series of poignant tales from the struggle by a group of friends against daily corruption to the contest over a saint s identity from nostalgia for the departed Jews to Salman Rushdie s vision of doubt in a world of religious certainty Rosen shows how a dazzling array of potential changes are occurring alongside deeply embedded continuity a process he compares to a game of chess in which infinite variations of moves can be achieved while fundamental aspects of the game have had a remarkably enduring quality Whether it is the potential fabrication of new forms of Islam by migrants to Europe creating a new Euro Islam as Rosen calls it the emphasis put on individuals rather than institutions or the heartrending problems Muslims may face when their marriages cross national boundaries each story and each interpretation offers a window into a world of contending concepts and challenged coherence The Culture of Islam is both an antidote to simplified versions of Islam circulating today and a consistent story of the continuities that account for much of ordinary Muslim life It offers in its human stories and its insights its own contribution as the author says to the mutual understanding and forgiveness that alone will make true peace possible
