L. S. Gboku, Rebecca Nthogo Lekoko, 2007 This book identifies quantitative qualitative and multi method approaches and is based upon existing research methods teaching in Africa It is grounded in African adult education contexts and draws on material and experiences from research courses taught in African universities

It emphasises the importance of combining quantitative methods with qualitative research that is embedded in adult education contexts and that builds on indigenous knowledge. Examples of the contexts addressed in the book include village communities, agriculture development, workers literacy and income generation projects, community policing strategies, brigades, vocational training centres, mass health awareness campaigns such as HIV/AIDS work-based education and training management development needs analyses and the training of adult education trainers.

Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Arthur L. Wilson, Elisabeth Hayes, 2009-04-27. Sponsored by the American Association of Adult Continuing Education. This monumental work is a testimony to the science of adult education and the skills of Wilson and Hayes. It is a veritable feast for nourishing our understanding of the current field of adult education. The editors and their well-chosen colleagues consistently question how we know and upon what grounds we act. They invite us to consider not only how we can design effective adult education but also why we practice in a particular socio-economic context. Jane Vella, author of Taking Learning to Task and Learning to Listen. Learning to Teach. This new handbook captures the exciting intellectual and professional development of our field in the last decade. It is an indispensable resource for faculty, students and professionals. Jack Mezirow, emeritus professor, Adult and Continuing Education Teachers College, Columbia University. For nearly seventy years, the handbooks of adult and continuing education have been definitive references on the best practices, programs and institutions in the field. In this new edition, over sixty leading authorities share their diverse perspectives in a single volume exploring a wealth of topics including learning from experience, adult learning for self-development, race and culture in adult learning, technology and distance learning, learning in the workplace, adult education for community action and development and much more. Much more than a catalogue of theory and historical facts, this handbook strongly reflects the values of adult educators and instructors who are dedicated to promoting social and educational opportunity for learners and to sustaining fair and ethical practices.

Resources in Vocational Education, 1978 Bibliographic Index, 1994 Adult Education and Literacy Resources, 1991 Australian national bibliography, 1961 The Cumulative Book Index, 1996. A world list of books in the English language.
