A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 Evangelism John F. MacArthur, Grace Community Church Staff, 2011-03-21 A clear biblical theology of evangelism presented with a historical foundation and practical instruction Expand your MacArthur Pastor s Library to include this much needed topic Evangelism begins by comparing the current state of outreach in American Christianity with evangelism throughout church history and also in the Bible Presenting a theology on the subject that addresses the theological principles that govern evangelism showing how they are played out in the church as well as the family and personal interaction It includes preaching one on one witnessing missions parenting evangelism and commissioning and supporting missionaries This book s substantive and doctrinally insightful guide to biblical outreach complements the previous volumes Preaching Biblical Counseling and Pastoral Ministry

Church in Translation Dan Collison, Shelly Barsuhn, 2010-08-01 Church in Translation shows today s leaders how to reframe and revitalize ten essential practices of our faith to speak more effectively to the people of our time in our current culture The context of Christianity is ever changing but the durability and relevance of the message of Jesus has been proven over time Imagine life and the very different practice of Christianity in the days of the Early Church the Dark Ages the Industrial Revolution the Great Depression and the

Digital Age The relevant vibrant and effective church of today will always ask Where has God placed us In what time and what cultural context Cultural changes can seem to diminish the gospel's value as outdated styles and forms create barriers between contemporary people and a timeless God Dan Collison provides insights into ministry that will help shrink the cultural walls that people must scale to experience Jesus Jesus Church is a living entity that beautifully fits every context in every century But it does take work This fitting in is not pandering or caving in to culture it is a recognition that we exist not in 1950 1492 1060 or 33 A D We exist now today at a time and place that God designed The effective church in any age must be Biblically inspired Prayer designed Communally formed Intellectually informed Socially aware Collaboratively led Artistically Infused Culturally Engaged Missionally Minded Grace filled The question is how will you translate these essentials into your ministry context

The Lord Gave Me This Terrell Carter, 2016-09-29 When it comes to learning necessary ministry leadership skills African Americans are unique in their view towards traditional theological education They have a historical educational experience that requires anyone attempting to teach them ministry skills to acknowledge the differences in how blacks and whites have learned leadership skills through the history of the United States Those who seek to teach these pastors and leaders must be supported by a creative learning process and delivery system that incorporates the felt needs of leaders acknowledges their long held distrust towards traditional white theological educational processes develops a way to have a regular presence and relationship with black churches offers learning experiences that are provided through multiple formats and is taught by instructors who have similar life experiences as the pastors and leaders being taught There are opportunities for traditional seminaries and universities to help meet the needs of African American ministry leaders through the development of programs that take these points into account and create opportunities that make these potential learners feel welcome and accepted as brothers and sisters in Christ whose experiences within ministry are valuable and contribute to the building of God's kingdom
