Higher Education in Ethiopia Tebeje Molla, 2018-01-18 This book focuses on higher education in Ethiopia analysing persisting inequalities and policy responses against the backdrop of the extensive expansion and reform that the system has experienced in recent years Drawing on empirical data generated through interviews policy reviews and focus group discussions it explicates factors of structural inequality ranging from neoliberal policy orientations to repressive gender culture and geo political peripherality In a departure from conventional studies that consider policy a response to social problems the book takes a critical perspective to show the constitutive role of policy and explains how the representation of the problem of social inequality undermines equity policy outcomes in Ethiopian higher education Not only does the book problematise the framing of the problem of inequality in the system it also outlines strategies for designing transformative equity instruments In explaining structural factors of inequality and equity provisions the book productively combines sociological concepts with historical accounts and political economy insights Given the increased economic optimism associated with higher education in sub Saharan Africa and the neoliberal ideals underpinning much of the restructuring of the system in the region this is a timely and important contribution that sheds light on the social justice implications and consequences of such changes It offers fresh accounts of largely neglected qualitative cases of inequality making it a valuable read for students and researchers in the areas of Ethiopian education policy studies international and comparative education and international development

Kjølstad, 2023-05-30 Cooperation across borders requires both knowledge of and understanding of different cultures This is especially true when it comes to the law This handbook is the first to comprehensively present selected legal cultures based on a very specific set of structural elements which can be found in all such cultures Legal cultures are a product of and impacted by certain fundamental and commonly shared ideas on and expectations of the law In all modern societies these ideas are to a certain degree institutionalized or at least embedded in institutionalized practices These practices determine the way lawyers are educated and apply the law how they engage with the ongoing internationalization of law and what kind of values they adhere to Looking at these elements separately enables the reader to identify similarities and differences and to explain them contextually Understanding these general features of legal cultures can help avoid misunderstandings or misinterpretations of foreign law and its application Accordingly this handbook is a necessary starting point for all kinds of

State institutions and leadership in Africa Irma Taddia, Tekeste Negash, 2018-02-01 The central theme of this book is the role of education in the formation of a political class during and after the European colonial period in Africa. The volume focuses on the various actors that informed and were part of this process such as African intellectuals and political leaders, colonial troops, European missionaries and administrators. At the same time, the collection analyses the historical processes connected to the emergence and development of a new African leadership such as the creation of a colonial school system, the transformation of urban spaces, the development of new environmental policies and the processes of nation building after independence. The volume is made up of twelve contributions: four on Ethiopia, two on Eritrea, two on the Sudan, one on Somaliland, two on Tanzania and one on Ghana.

From A Shepard to a Tenured Professor Dr. Yegin Habtes, 2024-01-15 This book will take my readers through four continents and several cultures and languages I have experienced. Some of these countries are very different from each other. I could say this book has something for different readers. My readers in the northern hemisphere will be introduced to the fascinating history of Eritrea and Ethiopia. For those who appreciate different cultures, there is enough material about the cultures and customs practiced in certain parts of Africa and the Caribbean. Yet for educators I trained in Africa, the United States of America and the Caribbean, a section discusses how to train teachers. Above all, the message I want to leave with everyone who reads this book is to believe that anything is possible if you are with it and think there is more than one way to pursue life.

The Palgrave Handbook of Fashion and Politics Karen M. Kedrowski, Candice D. Ortals, Lori Poloni-Staudinger, J. Cherie Strachan, 2024-10-15 This book examines how fashion intersects with political expression in the United States and across the globe. The chapters cover a diversity of perspectives including experiences of men, minoritized people and women, and LGBTQ persons as well as examining strategic choices by political actors ranging from dictators to elected officials and from protesters to mothers. Perhaps more importantly, this handbook allows chapters written about the US by mainly US-based academics to be in dialogue with scholarship about other regions of the world largely written by non-US and non-European scholars. Several chapters address regions of the world often understudied by political scientists including Africa (Kenya, Ethiopia, Uganda, Sudan, Liberia, Nigeria and Cameroon), Asia (North Korea, Turkmenistan, Indonesia and Pakistan) and Latin America (Argentina and Mexico). This work goes beyond the usual analyses that cast clothing choices as trivial or constraining and shows how political actors, from dictators to elected officials and from citizen activists to social movement leaders, incorporate strategic choices about their clothing ranging from uniforms and business attire to hijab and traditional ethnic attire in order to advance their political agendas.

The Saho of Eritrea Abdul Kader Saleh Mohammed, 2013 This book presents an analysis of the identity of the agro-pastoral Saho community in Eritrea, which was cemented during centuries of confrontation with Abyssinian rulers and by their rebellion against external domination. It examines the emergence of the Saho's national consciousness and the process of political identity formation during the British Military Administration in competition with the pro Ethiopian Unionist Party The book describes the active participation of the Saho in the national liberation struggle of Eritrea and it evaluates the impact of post independence policies of the Eritrean People s Liberation Front People s Front for Democracy and Justice on the Saho community Series African Politics Politiques Africaines Vol 5
