A History Of Womens Writing In Russia:

A History of Women's Writing in Russia Adele Marie Barker, Jehanne M. Gheith, 2002-07-11 A History of Women's Writing in Russia offers a comprehensive account of the lives and works of Russia's women writers Based on original and archival research this volume forces a re examination of many of the traditionally held assumptions about Russian literature and women's role in the tradition In setting about the process of reintegrating women writers into the history of Russian literature contributors have addressed the often surprising contexts within which women's writing has been produced Chapters reveal a flourishing literary tradition where none was thought to exist They redraw the map defining Russia's literary periods they look at how Russia's women writers articulated their own experience and they reassess their relationship to the dominant male tradition The volume is supported by extensive reference features including a bibliography and guide to writers and their works

A History of Women's Writing in Russia Adele Marie Barker, Jehanne M. Gheith, 2009-12-03 A History of Women's Writing in Russia traces comprehensively the lives and works of Russia's women writers from the Middle Ages to the present Contributors have addressed the often surprising contexts within which women's writing has been produced Chapters reveal a flourishing literary tradition where none was thought to exist looking at how Russia's women writers articulated their own experience and reassessing their relationship to the dominant male tradition The volume is supported by extensive reference features including a bibliography and guide to writers and their works

New Women's Writing in Russia, Central and Eastern Europe Rosalind Marsh, 2020-12-07 Since the late 1980s there has been an explosion of women's writing in Russia Central and Eastern Europe greater than in any other cultural period This book which contains contributions by scholars and writers from many different countries aims to address the gap in literature and debate that exists in relation to this subject We investigate why women's writing has become so prominent in post socialist countries and enquire whether writers regard their gender as a burden or on the contrary as empowering We explore the relationship in contemporary women's writing between gender class and nationality as well as issues of ethnicity and post colonialism

Displacement and (Post)memory in Post-Soviet Women's Writing Marja Sorvari, 2022-04-22 The book examines prominent literary works from the past two decades by Russian women writers dealing with the Soviet past It explores works such as Daniel Stein Interpreter by Ludmilla Ulitskaya The Time of Women by Elena Chizhova Secondhand Time The Last of the Soviets by Svetlana Alexievich and In Memory of Memory by Maria Stepanova and uncovers connecting thematic structures and features Focusing on the concepts of displacement and postmemory the book shows how these works have given voice to those on the margins of society and of great history whose resistance was often silent In doing so these women writers portray the everyday experiences and trauma of displaced women and girls during the second half of the twentieth century This study offers new insights into the importance of these women writers work in creating and preserving cultural memory in post Soviet Russia

A History of Russian Literature Andrew Kahn, Mark

Naumovich Lipovet[skii], Irina Reyfman, Stephanie Sandler, 2018 Russia possesses one of the richest and most admired literatures of Europe reaching back to the eleventh century A History of Russian Literature provides a comprehensive account of Russian writing from its earliest origins in the monastic works of Kiev up to the present day still rife with the creative experiments of post Soviet literary life The volume proceeds chronologically in five parts extending from Kievan Rus in the 11th century to the present day The coverage strikes a balance between extensive overview and in depth thematic focus Parts are organized thematically in chapters which a number of keywords that are important literary concepts that can serve as connecting motifs and case studies in depth discussions of writers institutions and texts that take the reader up close and Visual material also underscores the interrelation of the word and image at a number of points particularly significant in the medieval period and twentieth century The History addresses major continuities and discontinuities in the history of Russian literature across all periods and in particular bring out trans historical features that contribute to the notion of a national literature The volume s time range has the merit of identifying from the early modern period a vital set of national stereotypes and popular folklore about boundaries space Holy Russia and the charismatic king that offers culturally relevant material to later writers This volume delivers a fresh view on a series of key questions about Russia s literary history by providing new mappings of literary history and a narrative that pursues key concepts rather more than individual authorial careers This holistic narrative underscores the ways in which context and text are densely woven in Russian literature and demonstrates that the most exciting way to understand the canon and the development of tradition is through a discussion of the interrelation of major and minor figures historical events and literary politics literary theory and literary innovation

Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes

Women in Nineteenth-Century Russia Wendy Rosslyn,Alessandra Tosi,2012 This collection of essays examines the lives of women across Russia from wealthy noblewomen in St Petersburg to desperately poor peasants in Siberia discussing their interaction with the Church and the law and their rich contribution to music art literature and theatre It shows how women struggled for greater autonomy and both individually and collectively developed a dynamic presence in Russia s culture and society Publisher s description

Mapping Experience in Polish and Russian

Women's Writing Urszula Chowaniec,2010-09-13 The volume encompasses eleven articles which discuss the critical views that Polish and Russian women writers have articulated with regard to the notion of experience and constructions of femininity in the national imagination from the 19th to the 21st centuries Major themes of the articles include women s experiences as writers in the 19th century women s embodied experiences of a traumatic past body and sexuality in the different ages of women political and aesthetic discourses and femininity Although the articles are arranged in chronological order they do not form an absolute chronological or periodic continuum i e from Romanticism to Postmodernism although references to certain aesthetic periods are made The authors of the articles reflect in detail on how the women writers and their literary texts represent different understandings and experiences in relation to dominant perceptions for example of the memory of war of motherhood of art and aesthetics and so on Readers are encouraged to seek parallels and continuities between the different historical times and spaces between women s writing in Russia and Poland between different scholarly approaches and aims The articles of this volume bring together important critical standpoints in women s writing in Poland and Russia in which parallels continuities and resemblances can be traced but in which discontinuities breaks and differences also make themselves visible Apart from the conspicuous resemblances between individual Russian and Polish women writers works or even between groups of women writers the articles document the diversity within Russian and Polish women s writing respectively and even within individual writers

Masquerade and Femininity

Urszula Chowaniec,Ursula Phillips,Marja Rytkönen,2009-03-26 Masquerade and Femininity Essays on Russian and Polish Women Writers introduces the reader to the diversity of women s writing in Poland and Russia in the 19th and 20th centuries in the light of the notion of masquerade The present articles scrutinize particular works by women writers Nadezhda Dmitrievna Khvoshchinskaia Irina Odoevtseva Vera Pavlova Narcyza michowska Maria Komornicka Irena Krzywicka and others and the strategies of masquerading female experience Taken together the articles draw attention to the feeling of an inexpressible gap between the living body and its everyday life experience of pain and suffering or happiness and pleasure and the culturally constructed powerfully imposed code of expression that readily makes use of various masks guises and acts of pretending applied especially cleverly in literary works The concept of masquerade illuminates the complexity of what we call femininity by combining two sides of the divide the real feelings and the constructed expressions This volume uses both feminist and non feminist approaches to women s writing and sheds new light on the themes of femininity woman s identity experience masks body gender relations nature culture and authorship Masquerade and Femininity brings together East European literary studies and gender studies offering a comparative perspective on literature literary theory and cultural phenomena in Poland and Russia and featuring a range of both eastern European and western scholars In its pages the reader is invited to move beyond Russian literature and language into a dialogic approach between Slavic literatures This book will also contribute to filling the comparative gap which is still relatively unexplored not only with regard to the application of western scholarship to East European studies but also with regard to the dialogue between Russian and Polish scholarship

Women in Russia and Ukraine Rosalind J. Marsh, 1996-03-14 In this book leading western specialists and Russian and Ukrainian feminists examine how gender has shaped Russian and Ukrainian history from the twelfth century to the present In particular they analyse the current backlash against women s emancipation Using new archival materials and the insights of feminist theory the contributors explore the relevance of gender equality and difference in Russian history They find that women have not merely submitted to the patriarchal system but instead have found creative ways of resisting it Chapters focusing on contemporary Russia discuss abortion pornography sexual minorities young women s lifestyles the impact of economic reform on women and the development of the women s movement This book will be of interest to students and specialists in Russian Ukrainian and women s studies as well as to historians political scientists sociologists and economists

Gender and Russian Literature Rosalind J. Marsh, 1996-03-28 A 1996 overview of key issues in Russian women s writing and of important representations of women by men from 1600 onwards

Aspasia Krassimira Daskalova, 2008-09 Aspasia is an international peer reviewed yearbook that brings out the best scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary women s and gender history focused on and produced in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe In this region the field of women s and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the international canon

The Woman Question in Nineteenth-Century English, German and Russian Literature Kathryn L. Ambrose, 2015-09-29 Kathryn Ambrose offers a new approach to the Woman Question in mid to late nineteenth century English German and Russian literature Using a methodological framework based on feminist theory and post structuralism she provides a revision of canonical texts such as Jane Eyre Wuthering Heights Middlemarch Effi Briest Fathers and Children and Anna Karenina alongside lesser known works by Emily and Charlotte Brontë George Eliot Theodor Storm Theodor Fontane Ivan Turgenev and Leo Tolstoy Her exploration of the semiotics of barriers as opposed to the established approach of the semiotics of space makes for a rewarding reading of this period of literature and establishes new cross cultural and literary connections between the three countries
