Demeanor, 2018 They say tough times don't last but tough people do Mona Lisa and Delano have had their share of ups and downs but their bond was unbreakable However the storm is far from over as they struggle to become untangled from the lies they fell victim to in the beginning Just when Marissa was trying to put her life back together karma came back around and dealt her a hand that she may have to throw in Will Mona Lisa and Delano be able to stand the pressure of a love that's been nothing but drama from day one or will they finally have to call it quits Will Marissa be forgiven so that she can move on or is she left standing on the other side Since fighting for his life Todd has come to realize the error of his ways Without anyone in his corner all he can rely on are his old methods and hope they don't become his last ones The tension mounts on the streets of Atlanta for the last time Who will be left standing when the smoke clears Provided by publisher A Hood Love in Atlanta 2 Mz.

Demeanor, 2018 They have the good love and then there's that hood love After Todd hurt her to her core Mona Lisa thought she would never love again but when she met Delano her whole world did a tailspin She didn't quite know what to do with his love but a bad decision changed that Todd had to learn the hard way about screwing her over but the streets teach their own lessons What happens when old wounds are opened lies are revealed and lines are crossed The streets of Atlanta just got hotter and it has nothing to do with the temperature Will Mona Lisa have to let go of both of the men she has loved or will she get to take that walk into the sunset Heaven knows how their story will end but you better believe there will be hell all the way Provided by publisher A Fool In Love J. Jean Elliott, 2007-11-07 Marina Frances had been in love with Jettson Frame from the moment she had laid eyes on him eleven years earlier But Jettson had never noticed for drooling all over Flame who had noticed him for the same length of time it took her to dump him and marry another man Then Jettson had moved out of the state and Marina hadn't seen nor heard of him in six years. Plus she had gotten on with her life to the point of becoming engaged to marry her attorney boyfriend of a year and a half and the marriage was six weeks away. Now Jettson was back in her life busily chasing after her divorced Cousin Flame while trying to foist her off onto his nerdy Cousin Berry all just like old times. How was Marina supposed to cope with her imminent marriage knowing she was still in love with Jettson, a man who didn't know she was alive in that way and a man who could never seem to get her name straight?

Nervously Marina marched down the aisle on her father's arm Monday evening after her succession of bridesmaids. Her mother had been seated at the front of the church by one of Harvey's groomsmen, an impatient look on her face as if the wedding wouldn't take place fast enough for her. Harvey's parents had been seated across the aisle from her, Harland Jr and Amy Lennox looking on at her entrance with interest. But Marina barely took note of any of them as her gaze fixed on her fiancé as he stood tall and proud before the Reverend Ansley with Ty Wallerstein officiating as his best man. It was only a wedding rehearsal and Marina was a total mess, her heart thudding in her chest like a jackhammer. Harvey was a good man, her mother had been right about that and he loved her very much. Marina would be a fool not to marry him in light of his newfound status at his law firm. By the same token, how could she possibly marry him knowing she was in love with another man? What guarantee did she have that she would learn to love him after they were married when it didn't work for her Aunt Nadine three times? And how did Marina know that Harvey wouldn't be able to detect by her marital frigidity that she didn't love him in the true sense of the word? She should be telling Harvey right now that she could not marry him because she was not in love with him. But by the same token she wanted to marry him because she would be a fool to let a great catch like him go. She was torn, wanting him but for all the wrong reasons. Marina fought to get a grip on herself as she and her father neared the altar. Perhaps if she recalled the playful banter that had taken place between her and her bridesmaids out in the lobby before the rehearsal had started. Simone joking about how eldest son Drancy had gotten in a fight with a neighboring child that day and how Azar had beat him behind when he'd arrived home that evening. Gale telling her something about Darnell having returned home from his weekend business and their plans to get together later on that evening. Shawna telling her something about being voted employee of the month at one of her jobs. And Flame laughing about how Jettson had taken her to Six Flags Over Georgia for the day on Sunday and how she had gotten him to spend all of his money on her. So what else was new? Yet as her mind lingered on thoughts of him, Marina had to fight the urge to scream JETTSON FRAME. He was the cause of all of her problems, the cause of all of her doubts concerning Harvey. Marina just did manage to pull herself together as her father deposited her at Harvey's side. She forced warmth to her expression as she met the expectant look he turned on her. And at this point I will say: Who gives this woman to be with this man? And you will say the Reverend Ansley prompted her father: I do, answered Orin Francis. And then you will give your daughter to Harvey and turn

Matthew T. Lee,Amos Yong,2012-06-15 Arguing that there are ways to move beyond the limitations of methodological atheism without compromising scientific objectivity the essays gathered in The Science and Theology of Godly Love explore the potential for collaboration between social science and theology They do so within the context of the interdisciplinary study of Godly Love which examines the perceived experience of loving God being loved by God and thereby being motivated to engage in selfless service to others This volume serves as an introduction to and a call for further research in this new field of study offering ten methodological perspectives on the study of Godly Love written by leading social scientists and theologians Drawing on the work of Douglas Porpora and others the contributors contend that agnosticism is the appropriate methodological stance when religious experience is under the microscope Godly Love does not force a theistic explanation on data instead these essays show that it sensitizes researchers so that they can take seriously the faith and beliefs of those they study without the assumption that these theologies represent an incontestable truth A Hood Love in Atlanta 4 M.
