College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary Being Missional, Becoming Missional Banseok Cho, 2021-12-10 This book explores the theme of the missional conversion of the church namely how the church is transformed toward its missionary vocation from a biblical theological perspective The purpose of this book is to find biblically grounded theologically sound and practically applicable principles helpful for the church which seeks to be continuously shaped into a missional community which authentically and fully participates in God's mission today The biblical theological findings on how the triune God in the biblical narrative shapes the people of God toward their missionary vocation demonstrates first that in Scripture the missional conversion of the church is primarily the consequence of its continuous encounter with the triune God and second that this divine human encounter for the missional conversion of the church is ineluctable in view of the ongoing tension between the missional faithfulness of God in fulfilling the missionary vocation of the church on the one hand and the missional failure of the church in its missionary vocation on the other hand

The Missions and Missional Purpose of Ephesians Timothy A. van Aarde, 2023-01-12 The purpose of the letter to the Ephesians is unknown The book suggests that the purpose of Ephesians is about missions and being missional The author of Ephesians committed the task of missions to the church The author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of God The redemptive plan oikonomia of God consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of Israel the mission of Christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church The term missional has been used ambiguously The existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of Ephesians The mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 1:3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 4:6 The author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church He intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church The mission of the church has been grounded in the Great Commission The missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in Eph 4:6 Becoming a Missionary Church Michael W. Goheen, Timothy M. Sheridan, 2022-07-19 This book offers a historical assessment and balanced critique of contemporary church movements especially in light of missional ecclesiology An expert on Lesslie Newbigin and an expert on contemporary church models show how Newbigin's ideas have been developed and contextualized in three popular contemporary church movements missional emergent and center church In addition the authors explain that some of Newbigin's insights have been neglected and need to be retrieved for the present day This book calls for the recovery of the missionary nature of the church and commends church practices applicable to any congregation Reformed theology today: Practical-theological, missiological and ethical perspectives J. (Hans) Kommers, Ben J. de Klerk, Ferdi P. Kruger, H.G. (Henk) Stoker, Gert Breed, Ignatius Wilhelm (Naas) Ferreira, P.J. (Flip)

Buyss, Alfred Brunsdon, Daniël J. Louw, J.M. (Koos) Vorster, J.H. (Jacoba) van Rooy, 2017-11-23 his book is unique and of great importance for theologians from diverse traditions but who all share the relevance of the academic Reformed discourse The book focuses on and forms part of celebrating 500 years since the start of the Reformation during the 16th century Its purpose is to commemorate the quincentenary anniversary of the Reformation in Europe and to indicate the way in which the rich legacy of this important period in the history of the church and society still influences globally the theological landscape in the fields of Practical Theology Missiology and Ethics Specific attention is given to the manner in which the core principles of the Reformation can be utilised for these disciplines and applied in a contemporary context The Reformation changed the ecclesiastical landscape of the day and still provides the benchmark for theological principles and praxis in many Protestant denominations This book illustrates and underscores the practical theological legacy and importance of the Reformation for church and society The collected works by various theologians reflect on the impact of Reformed Theology on their respective fields of expertise The original research is based on literature studies and has not been published previously in any form Its aim is to stimulate discourse in Theology and related disciplines Although the chapters represent different perspectives the collective aim is to propose the vast impact of the Reformational views as they relate to the current context The target audience is Reformed theologians This book focuses on ways in which the legacy of the Reformation addresses practical and relevant issues for 21st century believers scholars and churches It explores inter alia important homiletical and liturgical aspects of the Reformation and contemplates the importance of continual reformation in this regard Furthermore it discusses a Reformed approach to apologetics evaluates the driving forces behind the Reformation of the 16th century and its relevance to missions today as well as examines the sola Scriptura principle of the Reformation and provides a critical perspective on Prosperity Theology Several pastoral themes take centre stage before various aspects of xenophobia and civil prejudice are being investigated both being very relevant topics throughout the world today The book also focuses on hermeneutics and ethics in a quest for a biblical ethical approach as well as congregational hymns in the Reformed churches of South Africa today The research outcomes are relevant not only for the South African context but also globally 40

Porter, Hughson T. Ong, 2019-05-02 Is the Gospel Good News was the theme of the 2015 H H Bingham Colloquium at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario Canada held on June 4 5 The fourteen participants in this colloquium presented their own individual perspectives on the theme from three broad vantage points Bible theology and crucial topics The good news that Jesus proclaimed concerning the kingdom of God became the gospel proclaimed by his followers throughout church history This gospel is about the coming of Jesus Christ in fulfillment of God's will for humanity This volume presents some accounts of how this good news has been understood through the ages and continues to be understood in relation to some of the major topics and issues of our contemporary world The papers in the Bible section discuss this good news from both Old and New Testament passages and themes The papers in the Theology section address theological topics in light of the question of what constitutes the good news Finally the papers in the Crucial Topics section explore new and different perspectives on ways in which the gospel is good news This volume highlights diverse perspectives and proposals by scholars from various locations in different stages of their academic careers resulting in a stimulating discussion of the topic of the gospel as good news God and Creation Rodney L. Reed, David K. Ngaruiya, 2019-12-31 This collection of essays the product of the 8th annual conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology wrestles with the topics of God and creation from distinctly African perspectives Touching on topics from environmentalism to ethnic conflict to childlessness the contributors present a powerful and timely reflection on the nature of God as creator and the implications of that identity on our relationship with the divine with the earth and with each other Highlighting the rich wisdom of African voices this book explores the particularities and complexities of an African cultural context while presenting biblical truth that extends beyond geographical limits Anyone interested in thinking theologically about our role in the universe God has made or what African culture in dialogue with Scripture has to teach us will find this book to be an invaluable resource Singing into Splintered Spaces E. Janet Warren,2022-12-07

Contemporary society can be described as splintered busy and noisy but also empty and in need of healing Christians are called to sing the Lord s song anew to the world but are sometimes confused about whether to prioritize loving God or loving our neighbor This collection of essays shows that both are needed mission and spiritual disciplines are actually intertwined and reciprocal Some contributors to this volume take a theoretical perspective others write from their experience in ministry Disciplines discussed include classic ones like prayer and study as well as novel ones like cruciformity mindfulness and neighborhood engagement Written in accessible language with multiple anecdotes this book aims to inspire both the practice of spiritual disciplines and the practice of mission Join us as we journey from the Philippines to American nationalism to a prayer truck in inner city Hamilton as we engage in quiet contemplation as well as compassionate action Guided by the Holy Spirit we dance rhythms of resting and responding listening and leading praying and proclaiming Whether through solitude discipleship groups inviting strangers to dinner speaking out against idolatry and injustice or simply being present we join Jesus as he repairs the splintered spaces of our lives A Bird's-Eye View of Luke and Acts Michael Bird,2023-11-21 This accessible and compelling introduction draws us into the wide ranging narrative of Luke Acts to discover how Luke frames the life of Jesus and of the first disciples These two books when read together tell a cohesive narrative about Jesus the Church and the mission of God with implications for the whole our lives today The Missionary Spirit Ireland, Jerry M.,2021-08-25 Argues for a return to the early emphasis in Pentecostal missiology on the need for cross cultural evangelism as opposed to the current trend focusing on a broader more amorphous understanding of the field American Christian

Programmed Quaker Ecclesiology Derek Brown,2024-02-06 In American Christian Programmed Quaker Ecclesiology Derek Brown argues that American Christian Programmed Quakerism has inherited a practical and pragmatic ecclesiology at the expense of an ontological understanding of the church Inspired by the work of Gerben Heitink Brown proposes a normative deductive ontological ecclesiology based on the biblical concept of koinonia which would act as a foundational model for future confessional empirical and practical efforts To help form the proposed ecclesiology Brown explores the ecclesiological views of George Fox and Robert Barclay the adoption of the pastoral system and the emergence of the Evangelical Friends Church The ecclesiological writings of Miroslav Volf Wolfhart Pannenberg Hans K ng Jennifer Buck and C Wess Daniels are also surveyed Christian Dogmatics van der Kooi & van den Brink,2017 A fresh inviting text on the content of Christian faith in our contemporary context This one volume systematic theology presents an accessible orthodox overview of the Christian faith for students teachers pastors and serious lay readers Cornelis van der Kooi and Gijsbert van den Brink not only cover all the traditional themes creation sin Jesus Christ Scripture and so on but also relate those classical themes to contemporary developments like Pentecostalism postfoundationalism and evolutionary theory Consisting of sixteen chapters the book is ideal for classroom use Each chapter begins with engaging questions and a statement of learning goals and concludes with a list of recommended further reading Written in a student friendly tone and style and expertly translated and edited van der Kooi and van den Brink s Christian Dogmatics splendidly displays the real practical relevance of theology to the complexities of our world today Creation and Doxology Gerald L. Hiestand, Todd Wilson, 2018-10-23 What does it mean to both affirm the goodness of God s creation and anticipate the new creation Bringing together contributions from church leaders academic theologians and scientists on the doctrine of creation this volume engages with Scripture scientific theory church history and current issues to help Christians understand the beginning and ending of God s good creation

Russian Baptist Mission Theology in Historical and Contemporary Perspective Andrey Kravtsev, 2019-10-31 Since the disintegration of the USSR many Russian Baptists have actively engaged in evangelism church planting and acts of social service This book is a response to the need to critically evaluate the effectiveness of past mission efforts and their undergirding theology In this detailed study Dr Andrey Kravtsev combines historical and qualitative studies to outline the understanding of mission developed by Russian Baptists during the Soviet era when they were almost completely isolated from global missiological developments First Kravtsev identifies four key missiological concepts and uses them to analyze the history of mission theology in global evangelical mission movements and the Russian Baptists He then interviewed thirty leaders from the Russian Union of Evangelical Christian Baptists to find their view of these concepts and their convictions of the need to reconsider traditional missiological views From his findings Dr Kravtsev suggests five themes for facilitating the transition of Russian Baptist mission theology from the late Soviet model of eschatological escapism to a holistic missional evangelicalism This book places evangelical mission in contemporary Russian socio political and ideological contexts and provides an important contribution for leading churches to a renewed missionary encounter with culture Fire, Water, and Wind Norbert Haukenfrers, 2016-05-09 Fire Water and Wind explores the forming of a healthy sense of personal identity The impetus for Fire Water and Wind was the observation that people are searching for meaning and identity are dissatisfied with their current situations and many are actively seeking escape from their current life experiences This is evidenced by the number of people involved in high risk activities be it drug or alcohol abuse gambling prostitution multiple sex partners smoking or violent crimes But does it have to be this way Following the finding in the fields of psychology and neuroscience that narrative plays a key role within the context of identity formation Fire Water and Wind offers an understanding of identity formation that is grounded in the biblical narrative that enables and equips one to face the varied challenges of life

Concluding that a narrative understanding of ones identity and ongoing formation as a follower of Jesus incorporates an integration of heart and mind body and soul that requires the nurturing of a biblical imagination and unconscious looking at the signs symbols and metaphors encouraging ones life wholly alive Enabling one to answer the What should I live for question
