The Poetic "I" Ken Bazyn, 2021-12-17 One should never assume that the narrator in a poem is expressing views identical to the author's For words like Nature half reveal And half conceal the Soul within wrote Tennyson Autobiographical elements tend to be so mixed in with the fictional that lines blur Bazyn's revolving carousel of poetic I's includes an egotist who makes fun of his arrogance a baby confused by his wobbly surroundings the simple joys of a childhood Christmas youth's dilemma at forging a vocation the peculiar circumstances surrounding one's first love reminiscences of a recent class reunion a period of self-examination following the death of a neighbor anxiously awaiting a monogrammed invitation lessons gleaned from closely inspecting nature exhibiting faith in a secular metropolis dreaming of a technician's utopia and the frailty and ragged edges of old age The narrator is by turns nostalgic uneasy speculative forlorn elated discombobulated representing as he does different stages of life personality types and psychological moods Bazyn's language can be mysterious his sentences follow a winding course his stanzas end abruptly Bewitching black and white photos accent and enhance each poem's metaphors As you gaze into this verbal visual mirror likenesses of the hidden self emerge and take on unexpected shapes
