A Lorraine Hansberry S A Raisin In The Sun:

The Black Theatre Movement in the United States and in South Africa Olga Barrios, 2008 El creixement dels moviments sociopolítics entre els anys seixanta i noranta als Estats Units i a Sudàfrica va establir els fermes fonaments sobre els quals amb una força i ímpetu sense precedents es va forjar el teatre negre d'aquests anys. Forma i contingut van sorgir a l'una del compromís polític i artístic adoptat per aquests artistes contra l'imperialisme, el colonialisme i el racisme occidentals. Per primera vegada en la història el teatre negre dels Estats Units i de Sudàfrica analitzava i valorava les arrels negres per a poder il·luminar la recerca d'un futur de llibertat. No obstant això, el context sociopolític i les circumstàncies específiques de cada país han generat igualment els trets distintius del teatre afro nord-americà i negre sud-africà incloses les diferències de gènere manifestes en ramificacions artístiques totalment heterogènies i niques.

The Cambridge Companion to Race and American Literature John Ernest, 2024-06-27 A comprehensive study of how American racial history and culture have shaped and have been shaped by American literature.

Women's Activist Theatre in Jamaica and South Africa Nicosia M. Shakes, 2023-08-15 Theater is an essential theoretical and practical site for forging Black radical thought. Africana feminisms and womanism. Nicosia M. Shakes draws on ethnographic research in Jamaica and South Africa to analyze the vital relationship between activism and theater production. Concentrating on four performance events, Shakes situates the work of theater groups and projects within a trajectory of women-led social justice movements established in Jamaica, South Africa, and globally from the early 2000s to the present. Her analysis reveals movements driven by Black women's artistic, intellectual, and organizational labor and focused on issues that range from sexual violence to reproductive justice to the spatial manifestations of racial gender and economic oppression. Shakes shows how theater's political and pedagogical roles become entangled with histories and geographies of oppression and resistance, the identities and connections created by movements of people in the context of colonial and settler colonial histories and ideas of womanism and feminism.

The Drama of South Africa Loren Kruger, 2005-11 Chronicles the development of dramatic writing and performance from the time South Africa was established to post-apartheid. Investigates the impact of sketches and manifestos and the oral preservation of scripts that could not be written.

American Theater in the Culture of the Cold War Bruce A. McConachie, 2005-06 1 A theater of containment liberalism 2 Empty boys, queer others, and consumerism 3 Family circles, racial others, and suburbanization 4 Fragmented heroes, female others, and the bomb.

The Cambridge Companion to African American Theatre Harvey Young, 2013 With contributions from the leading scholars in the field, this Companion provides a comprehensive and accessible overview of African American theatre from the early nineteenth century to the present day. Along the way, it chronicles the evolution of African American theatre and its engagement with the wider community.

Race and the Revolutionary Impulse in The Spook Who Sat by the Door Michael T. Martin, David C. Wall, Marilyn Yaquinto, 2018-03-01 Ivan Dixon's 1973 film The Spook Who Sat by the Door captures the intensity of social and political upheaval during a volatile period in American history. Based on Sam Greenlee's novel by the same name, the film is a searing portrayal of an American Black underclass brought to the brink of revolution. This series of critical essays situates the film in its social, political, and cinematic contexts and presents a wealth of related materials, including an extensive interview with Sam Greenlee, the original United Artists press kit, numerous stills from the film, and the original screenplay. This fascinating examination of a revolutionary work foregrounds issues of race, class, and social inequality that continue to incite protests and drive political debate.

Lorraine Hansberry Susan Sinnott, 1999-01-01 Lorraine Hansberry tells the fascinating story of the brave and talented woman who almost single-handedly overcame the racial obstacles that made for a segregated American theatre in the years following World War II. Hansberry was just twenty-nine years old when her play A Raisin in the Sun opened in 1959, an era where her very existence as a black female writer was considered unusual. The play was an overnight sensation, earning its author the double distinction of being the youngest playwright and first black person to win the New York Drama Critics Circle Award. In Hansberry's own words, A Raisin in the Sun tells the truth about people: "We have among our miserable and downtrodden ranks people who are the very essence of human dignity. That is what, after all the laughter and tears, the play is supposed to say."

Le XXe siècle des femmes Françoise Audé, Caroline Helfter, Laurence Klejman, Florence Montreynaud, Monique Perrot-Lanaud, 1995-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une réédition numérotée d'un livre paru au XXe siècle désormais indisponible dans son format d'origine.

Interracial Justice Eric K. Yamamoto, 2000-12 The United States in the twenty-first century will be a nation of so-called minorities. Shifts in the composition of the American populace necessitate a radical change in the ways we, as a nation, think about race, relations, identity, and racial justice. Once dominated by black-white relations, discussions of race are increasingly informed by an awareness of strife among nonwhite racial groups. While white influence remains important in nonwhite racial conflict, the time has come for acknowledgment of ways communities of color sometimes clash and their struggles to heal the resulting wounds and forge strong alliances. Melding race, history, legal theory, theology social psychology and anecdotes Eric K Yamamoto offers a fresh look at race and responsibility He tells tales of explosive conflicts and halting conciliatory efforts between African Americans and Korean and Vietnamese immigrant shop owners in Los Angeles and New Orleans He also paints a fascinating picture of South Africa s controversial Truth and Reconciliation Commission as well as a pathbreaking Asian American apology to Native Hawaiians for complicity in their oppression An incisive and original work by a highly respected scholar Interracial Justice greatly advances our understanding of conflict and healing through justice in multiracial America

Africa and Its Significant Others, 2016-08-09 When did the intimate dialogue between Africa Europe and the Americas begin Looking back it seems as if these three continents have always been each other's significant others Europe created its own modern identity by using Africa as a mirror but Africans traveled to Europe and America long before the European age of discovery and African cultures can be said to lie at the root of European culture This intertwining has become ever more visible Nowadays Africa emerges as a highly visible presence in the Americas and African American styles capture Europe's youth many of whom are of North African descent This entanglement however remains both productive and destructive The continental economies are intertwined in ways disastrous for Africa and African knowledge is all too often exported and translated for US and European scholarly aims which increases the intercontinental knowledge gap This volume proposes a fresh look at the vigorous and painful but inescapable relationships between these significant others It does so as a gesture of gratitude and respect to one of the pioneering figures in this field Dutch Africanist and literary scholar Mineke Schipper who is taking her leave from her chair in Intercultural Literary Studies at the University of Leiden Where have the past four decades of African studies brought us What is the present day state of this intercontinental dialogue Sixteen of Mineke's colleagues and friends in Europe Africa and the Americas look back and assess the relations and debates between Africa Europe America Ann Adams Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Liesbeth Bekers Wilfried van Damme Ariel Dorfman Peter Geschiere Kathleen Gyssels Isabel Hoving Frans Willem Korsten Babacar M Baye Harry Olufunwa Ankie Peypers Steven Shankman Miriam Tlali and Chantal Zabus write about the place of Africa in today's African
