A Lovers Discourse Fragments:

A Lover's Discourse Roland Barthes, 2002 May be the most detailed painstaking anatomy of desire that we are ever likely to see or need again An ecstatic celebration of love and language Washington Post The language we use when we are in love is not a language we speak It is a language addressed to ourselves and to our imaginary beloved It is a language of solitude of mythology of what Barthes calls an image repertoire Reviving the notion of the amorous subject beyond psychological or clinical enterprises Barthes A Lover's Discourse is a book for everyone who has ever been in love or indeed thought themselves to be immune to its power A Lover's Discourse Roland Barthes, 1984 The intertextuality of Roland Barthes's "The Lover's Discourse" in Jeffrey Eugenides novel "The Marriage Plot" Olena Brandes, 2022-08-31 Seminar paper from the year 2021 in the subject Literature Comparative Literature grade 1 7 University of G ttingen language English abstract The aim of this paper is to explore the different intertextual links between the two literary works While the main character Madeleine deconstructs Barthes's deconstruction of love in her term paper and applies it to her own life the narrator deconstructs Madeleine's love life and this paper should deconstruct the narration's deconstruction of the relationship If the concept of love is to be seen as an architectural building consisting of a foundation roofs walls floors stairs openings standing in a specific location and having a personal interior design it can be disassembled into its individual parts Even though most buildings are different and fewest are identical they all share the same basic elements they are built of The French philosopher Roland Barthes breaks down the concept of love into its fragments in his work A Lover's Discourse 1977 34 years later the American novelist Jeffrey Eugenides publishes a romance novel The Marriage Plot 2011 where Barthes's fragments are a reference point to the narrator Some of these fragments are direct quotes but most remain unsaid lying under the surface Finding all fragments would go beyond the constraints of this paper Thus the focus should be on only a few fragments In particular focusing on the most prominent main character's perspective while the plot contains two more discourses on love from the main character's love interests Intimate Relations Christine Weder, 2024 Shows that engagement with art and literature was essential to the programmatic sexual theories of the late 1960s and early 70s and that the period's aesthetic theories were characterized by forms of sexual obsession In the period around and after 1968 sexuality and the arts entered into a remarkably intimate and mutually beneficial relationship on one hand scientific theories of sexuality and their pop psychological counterparts incorporated lengthy reflections on art movements and literary texts since artistic media were understood as crucial to the project of inventing radically new modes of human living and loving On the other hand the aesthetic ambitions that informed new conceptions of sexuality had their mirror image in the varying forms of sexual obsession that characterized contemporary aesthetic theories Approaches as diverse as those of Theodor W Adorno Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Leslie A Fiedler Peter Gersen and Herbert and Ludwig Marcuse all contributed to a dramatic eroticization of the arts Christine Weder's interdisciplinary study explores this largely neglected relationship

providing a dual insight into an era of profound transformation she demonstrates how and why the engagement with art and literature was essential to the programmatic theories of the new Eros At the same time she offers a fresh historical perspective on aesthetics around 1968 Whereas aesthetic developments in the late sixties have conventionally been conceived in terms of politicization Weder demonstrates that the sexualization of the arts was no less profound and in doing so contributes to a fundamental reframing of this tumultuous period Women, Pleasure, Film Simon Richter, 2013-08-20

The Lola film is a distinct subgenre of the woman's film in which woman's claim to pleasure is entertained without recourse to the figure of the femme fatale Lola embodies a recognizable set of characteristics through which over time a select group of directors actors and audiences have responded in ways that do not succumb to the imperatives of gender There are over thirty five Lola films starting with Marlene Dietrich in The Blue Angel many are German others are French American British Italian and Spanish but her claim has also resonated in Argentina China Egypt Mexico Thailand and the Philippines Lola can be working class lesbian transgender ethnic suburban or any combination This book examines Lola as a specific and enduring aspect of the early twentieth century new woman woman's forthright claim to pleasure on her own terms liberated if only as a cinematic fantasy from the usual constraints of sex and gender Choreonarratives ,2021-05-31

Choreonarratives a collection of essays by classicists dance scholars and dance practitioners explores the uses of dance as a narrative medium Case studies from Greek and Roman antiquity illustrate how dance contributed to narrative repertoires in their multimodal manifestations while discussions of modern and contemporary dance shed light on practices discourses and ancient legacies regarding the art of dancing stories Benefitting from the crossover of different disciplinary historical and artistic perspectives the volume looks beyond current narratological trends and investigates the manifold ways in which dance can acquire meaning disclose storyworlds ranging from myths to individual life stories elicit the narratees responses and generate powerful narratives of its own Together the eclectic approaches of Choreonarratives rethink dance's capacity to tell enrich and inspire stories Contributors are Sophie M Bocksberger Iris J B hrle Marie Louise Crawley Samuel N Dorf Karin Fenb ck Susan L Foster Laura Gianvittorio Ungar Sarah Olsen Lucia Ruprecht Karin Schlapbach Danuta Shanzer Christina Thurner Yana Zarifi Sistovari Bernhard Zimmermann Dialectical Readings Stephen N. Dunning, 1997-07-18

Interpretation pervades human thinking Whether perception or experience spoken word or written theory whatever enters our consciousness must be interpreted in order to be understood Every area of inquiry art and literature philosophy and religion history and the social sciences even many aspects of the natural sciences involves countless opportunities to interpret the object of inquiry according to very different paradigms These paradigms may derive from the language we speak the nature of our education or personal preferences The abundance and diversity of paradigms make interpretation both fascinating in its complexity and often frustrating for the conflicts it generates In Dialectical Readings Dunning distinguishes three types of interpretation each defined in terms of a distinctive dialectical way of thinking theoretical interpretation which assumes binary oppositions transactional interpretation which seeks reciprocal relations and transformational interpretation which discerns paradoxical meanings Dunning offers new and insightful readings of familiar texts by B F Skinner Claude L vi Strauss Lee Benson Roland Barthes Friedrich Nietzsche and Michel Foucault and sheds new light on works by Thomas Kuhn Joseph Campbell Reinhold Niebuhr S ren Kierkegaard Paul Tillich and Paul Ricoeur Dialectical Readings enables readers to recognize diverse dialectical approaches to understanding their own as well as those of others in a way that provides new and helpful insights into a wide variety of subjects in which conflicting interpretations abound Radical Realism, Autofictional Narratives and the Reinvention of the Novel Fiona J.

Doloughan,2023-02-14 This monograph treats modes of fictionality in contemporary auto biography memoir and autofiction Adopting a case study approach it demonstrates the extent to which contexts of production and reception are important in framing generic expectations with respect to the representation of lived experience and in helping to determine the status of the narrator as fictional persona or implied author Love's Litany Kevin Kopelson,1994 This is an extensive analysis of the relation of erotic philosophy to homosexuality in the modern period The book focuses on homoerotic mis appropriations and subversions of homoerotic conceptions of romantic love in texts by eight authors Oscar Wilde Andre Gide Ronald Firbank Virginia Woolf Gertrude Stein Marguerite Yourcenar Mary Renault and Roland Barthes In doing so the author both positions these authors as experimental and influential erotic theorists and protests against the critical undervaluation of love as opposed to desire in the construction of sexuality as we know it Discourses of Mourning in Dante, Petrarch, and Proust Jennifer Rushworth,2016 This book brings together in a novel and exciting combination three authors who have written movingly about mourning two medieval Italian poets Dante Alighieri and Francesco Petrarca and one early twentieth century French novelist Marcel Proust Each of these authors through their respective narratives of bereavement grapples with the challenge of how to write adequately about the deeply personal and painful experience of grief In Jennifer Rushworth s analysis discourses of mourning emerge as caught between the twin conflicting demands of a comforting readable shared generality and a silent solitary respect for the uniqueness of any and every experience of loss Rushworth explores a variety of major questions in the book including what type of language is appropriate to mourning What effect does mourning have on language Why and how has the Orpheus myth been so influential on discourses of mourning across different time periods and languages Might the form of mourning described in a text and the form of closure achieved by that same text be mutually formative and sustaining In this way discussion of the literary representation of mourning extends to embrace topics such as the medieval sin of acedia the proper name memory literary epiphanies the image of the book and the concept of writing as promise In addition to the three primary authors Rushworth draws extensively on the writings of Sigmund Freud Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Roland Barthes These rich and diverse psychoanalytical and French theoretical traditions provide terminological nuance and frameworks for comparison particularly in relation to the complex term melancholia

Ancient Epistolary Fictions Patricia A. Rosenmeyer, 2001-04-30 A comprehensive look at fictive letters in Greek literature from Homer to Philostratus first published in 2001 It includes both embedded epistolary narratives in a variety of genres epic historiography tragedy the novel and works consisting solely of letters such as the pseudonymous letter collections and the invented letters of the Second Sophistic The book challenges the notion that Ovid invented the fictional letter form in his Heroides and considers a wealth of Greek antecedents for the later European epistolary novel tradition Epistolary technique always problematizes the boundaries between fictionality and reality Based on a process of selection and self censorship the letter is a construction not a reflection of reality The author bypasses the question of sincerity for a close look at epistolary self representation the function of the letter form and the nature of the relationship between writer and reader in a wide range of ancient Greek texts

Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G. Toth, 2025-03-10 An Open Access edition is available thanks to the kind sponsorship of the libraries participating in the Jisc Open Access Community Framework OpenUP initiative Debates about reading in postcolonial studies rarely discuss non professional readers except to secure the authority of professional reading practices In Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G Toth places non professional reading practices in dialogue with received academic wisdom to debunk common sense assumptions about non professional readers as Western or neocolonial consumers Drawing on reading practices recorded in academic books journal articles and on online book reviewing platforms like Amazon and Goodreads Toth draws attention to important continuities between professional and non professional practices of reading postcolonial literature At the same time she highlights that non professionals often have little desire to emulate the practices of professional postcolonial critics Precisely by not adopting the established protocols and methods of postcolonial studies non professional readers call attention to the limits of dominant approaches to reading in the discipline Across four chapters Toth examines the relationship between reading and identity during the Rushdie affair the difference between reading and address the challenges posed by difficult texts and the legitimacy of non understanding and the reception of popular texts primarily read by non professional audiences Reading Postcolonial Literature demonstrates that reception matters in any claims we make about the value of reading postcolonial literature and offers new ways forward for the practice study and teaching of reading in the discipline

Open World Empire Christopher B. Patterson, 2020-04-14 Finalist 2021 John Hope Franklin Prize given by the American Studies Association Seeking ways to understand video games beyond their imperial logics Patterson turns to erotics to re invigorate the potential passions and pleasures of play Video games vastly outpace all other mediums of entertainment in revenue and in global reach On the surface games do not appear ideological nor are they categorized as national products Instead they seem to reflect the open and uncontaminated reputation of information technology Video games are undeniably imperial products Their very existence has been conditioned upon the spread of militarized technology the exploitation of already existing labor and racial hierarchies in their manufacture and the utopian promises of digital technology Like literature and film before it video games have become the main artistic expression of empire today the open world empire formed through the routes of information technology and the violences of drone combat unending war and overseas massacres that occur with little scandal or protest Though often presented as purely technological feats video games are also artistic projects and as such they allow us an understanding of how war and imperial violence proceed under signs of openness transparency and digital utopia But the video game as Christopher B Patterson argues is also an inherently Asian commodity its hardware is assembled in Asia its most talented e sports players are of Asian origin Nintendo Sony and Sega have defined and dominated the genre Games draw on established discourses of Asia to provide an Asiatic space a playful sphere of racial otherness that straddles notions of the queer the exotic the bizarre and the erotic Thinking through games like Overwatch Call of Duty 4 Modern Warfare Shenmue II and Alien Isolation Patterson reads against empire by playing games erotically as players do seeing games as Asiatic playthings that afford new passions pleasures desires and attachments The Crimes of Marguerite Duras Anne Brancy, 2020-07-09 This book studies Marguerite Duras's use of mass media and criminal facts as critical components of her literary project Transgressing Boundaries in Jeanette Winterson's Fiction Sonia Front, 2009 The subsequent chapters of the book deal with selected questions from Jeanette Winterson's fiction such as gender issues love and eroticism language and time constituting areas within which Winterson's characters seek their identity As they contest and repudiate cliché's stereotypes and patterns their journey of self discovery is accomplished through transgression The book analyzes how the subversion of phallogocentric narrative and scenarios entails the reenvisioning of relations between the genders and reconceptualization of female desire The author attempts to determine the consequences of Winterson's manipulations with gender sexuality and time and her disruption of the binary system In Search of the Lost Eros Loreta Iftinchi, 2024-10-11 In Search of the Lost Eros is a meditation on love and its challenges in our modern times This book pairs literary and philosophical quotations from many renowned authors with the author's own reflections trying to create a framework for contemplation on the predicament of love today What is love really What is the cosmic Eros that moves the sun and the other stars Is this the same love that forms the essence of our deepest being Is falling in love a form of madness Is love blind or visionary Does it inevitably cause suffering And what about marriage must we stay together at all costs until death do us part What are the challenges of sexuality today What distinguishes erotic art from pornography These are some of the questions this essay seeks to explore offering answers that are necessarily incomplete while hoping to inspire readers to gain their own insights into these inexhaustible topics Mystics of the major spiritual traditions have always maintained that our spiritual essence is love and that we ultimately cannot lose it Yet many modern individuals feel that genuine love is missing from their lives This book aims to make a modest contribution to rediscovering some of the lost Eros that we all so ardently long for Phenomenologies of Love, 2025-03-13 This edited volume offers a comprehensive view of various possible phenomenological approaches of the experience of love ranging from classical historical perspectives up to contemporary and critical viewpoints It explores both the crucial importance of the question of love for the history of phenomenology as well as the rich potential of phenomenology for a deeper insight in the experience of love and its various dimensions such as its affective relational but also ethical and religious aspects Moving Sites Victoria

Hunter, 2015-03-27 Moving Sites explores site specific dance practice through a combination of analytical essays and practitioner accounts of their working processes In offering this joint effort of theory and practice it aims to provide dance academics students and practitioners with a series of discussions that shed light both on approaches to making this type of dance practice and evaluating and reflecting on it The edited volume combines critical thinking from a range of perspectives including commentary and observation from the fields of dance studies human geography and spatial theory in order to present interdisciplinary discourse and a range of critical and practice led lenses through which this type of work can be considered and explored In so doing this book addresses the following questions How do choreographers make site specific dance performance What occurs when a moving body engages with site place and environment How might we interpret analyse and evaluate this type of dance practice through a range of theoretical lenses How can this type of practice inform wider discussions of embodiment site space place and environment This innovative and exciting book seeks to move beyond description and discussion of site specific dance as a spectacle or novelty and considers site dance as a valid and vital form of contemporary dance practice that explores reflects disrupts contests and develops understandings and practices of inhabiting and engaging with a range of sites and environments Dr Victoria Hunter is Senior Lecturer in Dance at the University of Chichester Re-reading Wagner Reinhold Grimm, Jost Hermand, 1993 This multidisciplinary collection of readings offers suggestive new interpretations of Richard Wagner's ideological position in German history The issues discussed range from the biographical the reasons for Wagner's travels his spotted political life to the aesthetic and ideological regarding his re-creation of medieval Nuremberg his representations of gender and nationality his vocal iconography his anti-Semitism and his vegetarian arguments and finally his musical heirs The essays are written by Tamara S

Evans Edward R Haymes Peter Uwe Hohendahl Peter Morris Keitel Alexa Larson Thorisch Audrius Dundzila Marc A Weiner Jost Hermand Frank Trommler and Hans Rudolf Vaget Avoiding journalistic or iconoclastic approaches to Wagner these writers depart from the usual uncritical admiration of earlier scholars to develop a stimulating and ultimately cohesive collection of new perspectives Making Love Modern Nina Miller, 1999 In the teens and twenties New York was home to a rich variety of literary subcultures Within these intermingled worlds gender lines and other boundaries were crossed in ways that were hardly imaginable in previous decades Among the bohemians of Greenwich Village the sophisticates of the Algonquin Round Table and the literati of the Harlem Renaissance certain women found fresh powerful voices through which to speak and write Enda St Vincent Millay and Dorothy Parker are now best remembered for their colorful lives Genevieve Taggard Gwendolyn Bennett and Helene Johnson are hardly remembered at all Yet each made a serious literary contribution to the meaning of modern femininity relationship and selfhood Making Love Modern uncovers the deep historical sensitivity and interest in these women's love poetry Placing their work in the context of subcultures nested within national culture Nina Miller explores the tensions that make this literature so rewarding for contemporary readers A poetry of intimate expression it also functioned powerfully as public assertion The writers themselves were high profile embodiments of femininity the local representatives of New Womanhood within their male centered subcultural worlds This book captures the literary lives of these women as well as the complex subcultures they inhabited Harlem the Village and glamorous midtown Manhattan

The Top Books of the Year A Lovers Discourse Fragments The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. A Lovers Discourse Fragments : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
