A Saint In The City Sufi Arts Of Urban Senegal:

A Saint in the City Allen F. Roberts, Mary Nooter Roberts, Gassia Armenian, Ousmane Guèye, 2003 A Saint in the City examines the elaborate visual culture of the Mourides a Senegalese Sufi movement based upon the mystical teachings of Sheikh Amadou Bamba 1953 1927 In the boldly visual city of Dakar images abound despite the fact that Senegal is largely a Muslim country Vibrant street murals calligraphy and calligrams didactic posters drawings that protect and heal advertising images colourful clothing Web sites intricate glass paintings and innovative architecture all attest to the transformative potency that expressive culture has for Mourides One image is ubiquitous throughout urban Senegal the portrait of Sheikh Amadou Bamba based upon a colonial photograph from 1913 Sacred images work for Mourides and as Bamba is a saint Wali Allah or Friend of God in Arabic his portrait actively conveys powerful blessings called baraka that help people to address everyday difficulties challenges and goals The Mouride Way is observed by over four million Senegalese and thousands more around the globe including increasing numbers of African Americans and others converting to this most African of Islamic paths Amadou Bamba's pacifism dignity and self reliance as well as his emphasis on the sanctity of work offer a view of Islam quite different from those currently suggested by Western media Indeed A Saint in the City reminds us that there are many faces of Islam in Africa and throughout the world It also assists readers to reconsider misconceptions concerning the prohibition of images in Islam in light of the explosion of visual culture derived from a single photograph of Sheikh Amadou Bamba A Saint in the City grows from a decade of interdisciplinary research and focuses upon nine contemporary artists who base their works upon the spiritual teachings of Amadou Bamba regardless of their particular backgrounds training or styles The book boldly transgresses the boundaries normally enforced between local and global fine and popular arts gallery and streets historical and contemporary circumstances An emphasis upon Mouride artists own voices further decenters the narrative Allen F Roberts is professor of world arts and cultures and director of the James S Coleman African Studies Center at UCLA Mary Nooter Roberts is deputy director and chief curator of the UCLA Fowler Museum of Cultural History

A Saint in the City Lyn Avins, Betsy D. Quick, 2003 Fighting the Greater Jihad Cheikh Anta Mbacké Babou, 2007 In Senegal the Muridiyya a large Islamic Sufi order is the single most influential religious organization including among its numbers the nation's president Yet little is known of this sect in the West Drawn from a wide variety of archival oral and iconographic sources in Arabic French and Wolof Fighting the Greater Jihad offers an astute analysis of the founding and development of the order and a biographical study of its founder Cheikh Amadu Bamba Mbacké Cheikh Anta Babou explores the forging of Murid identity and pedagogy around the person and initiative of Amadu Bamba as well as the continuing reconstruction of this identity by more recent followers He makes a compelling case for reexamining the history of Muslim institutions in Africa and elsewhere in order to appreciate believers motivation and initiatives especially religious culture and education beyond the narrow confines of political collaboration and resistance Fighting the Greater Jihad also reveals how religious power is built at the intersection of genealogy knowledge and spiritual force and how this power in turn affected colonial policy Fighting the Greater Jihad will dramatically alter the perspective from which anthropologists historians and political scientists study Muslim mystical orders West African Migrations M. Okome,2012-01-30 Drawing on the interdisciplinary research projects of scholars from various social science and humanities disciplines this book explores how African migration to Western countries after the neo liberal economic reforms of the 1980s transformed West African states and their new transnational populations in Western countries From Dust to Digital Maja Kominko,2015-02-16 Much of world s documentary heritage rests in vulnerable little known and often inaccessible archives Many of these archives preserve information that may cast new light on historical phenomena and lead to their reinterpretation But such rich collections are often at risk of being lost before the history they capture is recorded This volume celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Endangered Archives Programme at the British Library established to document and publish online formerly inaccessible and neglected archives from across the globe From Dust to Digital showcases the historical significance of the collections identified catalogued and digitised through the Programme bringing together articles on 19 of the 244 projects supported since its inception These contributions demonstrate the range of materials documented including rock inscriptions manuscripts archival records newspapers photographs and sound archives and the wide geographical scope of the Programme Many of the documents are published here for the first time illustrating the potential these collections have to further our understanding of history Political Creativity Gerald Berk,Dennis C. Galvan,Victoria Hattam,2013-11-14 Political Creativity intervenes in the lively debate currently underway in the social sciences on institutional change Editors Gerald Berk Dennis C Galvan and Victoria Hattam along with the contributors to the volume show how institutions inevitably combine order and change because formal rules and roles are always available for reconfiguration Creative action is not the exception but the very process through which all political formations are built promulgated and changed Drawing on the rich cache of antidualist theoretical traditions from poststructuralism and ecological theory to constructivism and pragmatism a diverse group of scholars probes acts of social innovation in many locations land boards in Botswana Russian labor relations international statistics global supply chains Islamic economics in Algeria Islamic sects and state authority in Senegal and civil rights reform colonization industrial policy and political consulting in the United States These political scientists reconceptualize agency as a relational process that continually reorders the nature and meaning of people and things order as an assemblage that necessitates creative tinkering and interpretation and change as the unruly politics of time that confounds the conventional ordering of past present and future Political Creativity offers analytical tools for reimagining order and change as entangled processes Contributors Stephen Visibility Heike Behrend, 2014-03-15 Since the introduction of photography by commercial studio photographers and the colonial state in Kenya this global medium has been intensely debated and contested among Muslims on the cosmopolitan East African coast This book does not only explore the making circulation and consumption of popular photographs but also the other side their rejection and obliteration an essential aspect of a medium's history that should not be neglected It deals with various social spaces of refusal in the local Muslim milieu and in that of traditional spirit mediums in which gendered visibility was and is contested in various and creative ways It focuses on the aesthetics of withdrawal the various ways and techniques that process the photographic act as well as the photographic image to theatricalize the surface of the image in new ways by veiling masking and concealing In a fragmented historical perspective Heike Behrend seeks to complement decenter and counter the history of photography as it has been told by the West and to narrate another history beginning with preceding local media such as textiles and spirit possession Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2007 United States.
