A Time Far Past A Novel Of Viet Nam Vietnamese Literature:

A Time Far Past Le Luu, 1997 Through two failed marriages Giang Minh Sai struggles to come to terms with his responsibilities his past and his future The novel s ending leaves its hero and Vietnamese socialism at a problematic and painful crossroads 2023-12-01 2023 Men After War Stephen McVeigh, Nicola Cooper, 2013-03-05 This book is an innovative collection of original research which analyzes the many varieties of post conflict masculinity Exploring topics such as physical disability and psychological trauma and masculinity and sexuality in relation to the feminizing contexts of wounding and desertion this volume draws together leading academics in the fields of gender history literature and disability studies in an inter and multi disciplinary exploration of the conditions and circumstances that men face in the aftermath of war A Checklist of Vietnam War Literature, 1994 The Oxford Handbook of Classical Chinese Literature (1000 BCE-900 CE) Wiebke Denecke, Wai-yee Li, Xiaofei Tian, 2017 This volume introduces readers to classical Chinese literature from its beginnings ca 10th century BCE to the tenth century BCE through a conceptual framework centered on textual production and transmission It focuses on recuperating historical perspectives for the period it surveys and attempts to draw connections between the past and present A Time for Peace Robert D. Schulzinger, 2006-08-15 The Vietnam War left wounds that have taken three decades to heal indeed some scars remain even today In A Time for Peace prominent American historian Robert D Schulzinger sheds light on how deeply etched memories of this devastating conflict have altered America s political social and cultural landscape Schulzinger examines the impact of the war from many angles He traces the long twisted and painful path of reconciliation with Vietnam the heated controversy over soldiers who were missing in action the influx of over a million Vietnam refugees into the US and the plight of Vietnam veterans many of whom returned home alienated unhappy and unappreciated Schulzinger looks at how the controversies of the war have continued to be fought in books and films and perhaps most important he explores the power of the Vietnam metaphor on foreign policy particularly in Central America Somalia the Gulf War and the war in Iraq Using a vast array of sources A Time for Peace provides an illuminating account of a war that still looms large in the American imagination Vietnam Over the Long Twentieth Century Liam C. Kelley, Gerard Sasges, 2024-07-22 This open access book provides fascinating insights into the incredible changes that Vietnam underwent in the long twentieth century as it transformed from an early modern kingdom to a European colony to a divided land with opposing ideologies and to a unified country in a globalized world At each stage in this long century of changes there were Vietnamese who sought to mold their society into some vision of modernity The book looks at multiple rather than one form of modernity and links those forms with the different political moments that Vietnam experienced in tandem with the outside interlocutors that were maintained during those periods As such this book provides a holistic view of the many forms of modernity and their global links that can be found in Vietnam over the course of the long twentieth century These multiple modernities are documented in this book and the authors do so by bringing together the strengths of traditional language based area studies scholarship with the insights that an awareness of trans national and global perspectives provides Relevant to historians and researchers in the broader arena of Southeast Asian studies with a particular interest in Vietnam its journey from past to present this book is a must read engagement with a country that has undergone and continues to experience rapid transformation Vietnam and the Southern Imagination Owen W. Gilman,1992 Much recent fiction from the American South has spotlighted the American ordeal in Vietnam and a generation of southern writers has been imaginatively preoccupied with ironic parallels that rise out of the Vietnam experience and their own region s tragic past This stimulating study of American cultural history discovers the powerful and intriguing links It shows how profoundly the Vietnam experience has penetrated the imaginations of some of America s most acclaimed writers and how their compulsive sense of southern history unites their vision with the history of the Vietnam War Set against the backdrop of their homeland Vietnam reveals striking parallels Works by a profusion of southern writers have disclosed this astonishing connection in their heritage James Webb Bobbie Ann Mason Jayne Anne Phillips Clyde Edgerton Madison Smartt Bell Barry Hannah Winston Groom Gustav Hasford Harry Crews Larry Brown Sydney Blair Pat Conroy David Huddle Yusef Komunyakaa and Walter McDonald have found in Vietnam many provocative echoes of fundamental issues that first came to a head in the American Civil War Out of the past the issue of race and the dedication to the land remain distinct themes in contemporary southern fiction about Vietnam This absorbing study of cultural echoes that have charged the creative imaginations of fifteen southern writers unites shades of the southern past with the reality of the American present Both periods have evinced an alarming impulse toward violence In this context James Dickey s Deliverance although not a novel about Vietnam becomes a paradigm of force and southern violence It serves to reveal the modern southern storyteller s imaginative vision of violence both past and present Whether writing of soldiers at war or of the tumult at home whether expressing the persisting anxiety about race relations or sustaining the community through storytelling southern writers have found in Vietnam a weirdly revelatory mirror of their own cultural heritage

The Companion to Southern Literature Joseph M. Flora,Lucinda Hardwick MacKethan,2001-11-01 Selected as an Outstanding Academic Title by Choice Selected as an Outstanding Reference Source by the Reference and User Services Association of the American Library Association There are many anthologies of southern literature but this is the first companion Neither a survey of masterpieces nor a biographical sourcebook The Companion to Southern Literature treats every conceivable topic found in southern writing from the pre Columbian era to the present referencing specific works of all periods and genres Top scholars in their fields offer original definitions and examples of the concepts they know best identifying the themes burning issues historical personalities beloved icons and common or uncommon stereotypes that have shaped the most significant regional literature in memory Read the copious offerings straight through in alphabetical order Ancestor Worship Blue Collar Literature Caves or skip randomly at whim Guilt The Grotesque William Jefferson Clinton

Whatever approach you take The Companion's authority scope and variety in tone and interpretation will prove a boon and a delight Explored here are literary embodiments of the Old South New South Solid South Savage South Lazy South and Sahara of the Bozart As up to date as grit lit K Mart fiction and postmodernism and as old fashioned as Puritanism mules and the tall tale these five hundred entries span a reach from Lady to Lesbian Literature The volume includes an overview of every southern state's belletristic heritage while making it clear that the southern mind extends beyond geographical boundaries to form an essential component of the American psyche The South's lavishly rich literature provides the best means of understanding the region's deepest nature and The Companion to Southern Literature will be an invaluable tool for those who take on that exciting challenge Description of Contents 500 lively succinct articles on topics ranging from Abolition to Yoknapatawpha 250 contributors including scholars writers and poets 2 tables of contents alphabetical and subject and a complete index A separate bibliography for most entries

Thirty Years After Mark Heberle, 2009-01-14
 Thirty Years After New Essays on Vietnam War Literature Film and Art brings together essays on literature film and media representational art and music of the Vietnam War that were generated by a three day conference in Honolulu during Veterans Week 2005 This large and extensive volume the first collection of Vietnam War criticism published since the 1990s reflects significant cultural and historical changes since then including U S Vietnamese cultural transactions in the wake of political reconciliation and the Vietnamese diaspora popular commodification and memorialization of the war in America and renascent American imperialism Contributors include well established and well published writers and critics like Philip Beidler Cathey Calloway Lorrie Goldensohn Wayne Karlin Andrew Lam Jerry Lembcke Tim O'Brien John S Schafer and Alex Vernon as well as emerging Vietnam scholars and critics Among other contributions the volume provides important quasi bibliographical essays on canonical American and Vietnamese literature and film African American Vietnam war narratives Chicano fiction and poetry and American Vietnam war art music as well as essays on such subjects as real and digital war memorials Vietnamese popular war songs and Vietnamization of the Gulf War Teachers scholars and the general public will find Thirty Years After a valuable guide to ongoing critical discussion of the most important event in American history between 1945 and 9 11 I highly recommend this book Although it is almost a cliché say the Vietnam War has left deep and lingering scars on American society Thirty Years underscores the still traumatic cultural legacy of this conflict Attuned to the divergent voices and genres of representation Thirty Years is an indispensable work not only for literary scholars but for anyone seeking to understand the enduring impact of the Vietnam War An impressive work Mark Heberle is commended for organizing such an insightful and gracefully written set of essays G Kurt Piehler author of Remembering War the American Way

Shih,2017-03-21 This book presents studies on Chinese intellectuals in Southeast Asia and how they understand China and Chineseness in the 21st century It posits through analyses of works and oral histories of a number of Chinese scholars in the region that the dominant but distinctive approaches adopted by them are those that are rooted in humanism and pragmatism In doing so the book explores the significant population local conditions and strategy of survival among the Southeast Asian Chinese as factors that influence their views and perspectives Studies presented in the book simultaneously implicate subjectivity where authors and their readers position themselves among ethnic national and civilizational identities It highlights that while national level identity necessarily involves dangerous self interrogation and at times politics that is often suppressive and confrontational intellectual writings on China that stick to the ethnic and civilizational levels provide more sensible exits With that the book then goes on to make the argument that in Southeast Asian Chinese studies the humanities usually prevail over the social sciences at these two alternative levels Lastly the book also shows how the humanities can be instrumental to Southeast Asian Chinese scholars choice of identity strategy which makes pragmatism an important theme The book will be of interest to students and researchers involved in Southeast Asian and Chinese studies Remnants of Empire in Algeria and Vietnam Pamela A. Pears,2004-01-01 In Remnants of Empire in Algeria and Vietnam Women Words and War author Pamela A Pears proposes a new approach to Francophone studies The work uses postcolonial theory along with gender and feminist inquiries to emphasize the connections between two Francophone literatures Algerian and Vietnamese Specifically Pears focuses on four novels Yamina Mechakra s La Grotte ZclatZe Ly Thu Ho s Le Mirage de la paix Malika Mokeddem s L Interdite and Kim Lef_vre s Retour la saison des pluies All four novels show the profound transformation of women s roles in Algeria and Vietnam during and following the presence of French colonialism These four authors never attempt to unfold a clear and single definition of the postcolonial female subject Instead they explore the various subjective possibilities expand on them and ultimately place them in question Although the differences between Algeria and Vietnam are striking it is through their connections to one another that we can foreground postcolonial gender issues Whereas geographical boundaries and official nationalities serve as divisive classifications the links between the works lead us to a much more engaging dialogue and ultimate understanding of postcolonial Francophone literature

Parameters ,1984 Social Inequality in Vietnam and the Challenges to Reform Philip Taylor,2004 Offers detailed descriptions of disparities in income spatial access gender ethnicity and statue addressing their causes and consequences It illustrates the changing ways in which people have accumulated wealth social and cultural capital in Vietnam s move from a socialist to a market oriented society Taylor from ANU Diem's Final Failure Philip E.

Catton,2002 Catton treats the Diem government on its own terms rather than as an appendage of American policy Focusing on the decade from Dien Bien Phu to Diem s assassination in 1963 he examines the Vietnamese leader s nation building and reform efforts particularly his Strategic Hamlet Program which sought to separate guerrilla insurgents from the peasantry and build grassroots support for his regime Catton's evaluation of the collapse of that program offers fresh insights into both Diem's limitations as a leader and the ideological and organizational weaknesses of his government while his assessment of the evolution of Washington's relations with Saigon provides new insight into America's growing involvement in the Vietnamese civil war
