Sharing Friendship John B. Thomson, 2016-03-03 Sharing Friendship represents a post liberal approach to ecclesiology and theology generated out of the history practices and traditions of the Anglican Church Drawing on the theological ethics of Stanley Hauerwas this book explores the way friendship for the stranger emerges from contextually grounded reflection and conversations with contemporary Anglican theologians within the English tradition including John Milbank Oliver O Donovan Rowan Williams Daniel Hardy and Anthony Thiselton Avoiding abstract definitions of character mission or friendship John Thomson explores how the history of the English Church reflects a theology of friendship and how discipleship in the New Testament the performance of worship and the shape of Anglican ecclesiology are congruent with such a theology The book concludes by rooting the theme of sharing friendship within the self emptying kenotic performance of Jesus mission and looks at challenges to the character of contemporary Anglican ecclesiology represented by secularization and globalization as well as by arguments over appropriate new initiatives such as Fresh Expressions

Black Popular Music in Britain Since 1945 Dr Nabeel Zuberi, Professor Jon Stratton, 2014-12-28 Black Popular Music in Britain Since 1945 provides the first broad scholarly discussion of this music since 1990 The book critically examines key moments in the history of black British popular music from 1940s jazz to 1970s soul and reggae 1990s Jungle and the sounds of Dubstep and Grime that have echoed through the 2000s While the book offers a history it also discusses the ways black musics in Britain have intersected with the politics of race and class multiculturalism gender and sexuality and debates about media and technology Contributors examine the impact of the local the ways that black music in Birmingham Bristol Liverpool Manchester and London evolved differently and how black popular music in Britain has always developed in complex interaction with the dominant British popular music tradition This tradition has its own histories located in folk music music hall and a constant engagement since the nineteenth century with American popular music itself a dynamic mixing of African American Latin American and other musics The ideas that run through various chapters form connecting narratives that challenge dominant understandings of black popular music in Britain and will be essential reading for those interested in Popular Music Studies Black British
