A Treasury Of Hours Selections From Illuminated Prayer Books:

A Treasury of Hours Fanny Faÿ-Salloy, 2005 Selected from precious fourteenth and fifteenth century manuscripts many of which have never before been published these pages from books of hours are arranged and annotated as a guide to understanding both the prayers and the illustrations the books contain They are also an invitation to readers young and old to dream to savor and to immerse themselves in their ardor and mystery and to take delight in some of the most beautiful works of European art Back of book

Faces of Power & Piety Erik Inglis, 2008 Faces of Power and Piety is the second in the Medieval Imagination series of small affordable books that draw on manuscript illuminations in the collections of the J Paul Getty Museum and the British Library Each volume focuses on a particular theme to provide an accessible and delightful introduction to the imagination of the medieval world The vivid and charming faces featured in this volume include portraits of both illustrious historical figures and celebrated contemporaries They reveal that medieval artists often disregarded physical appearance in favor of emphasizing qualities such as power and piety capturing how their subjects wished to be remembered for the ages Faces of Power and Piety also looks at the development of portraiture in the modern sense during the Renaissance when likeness became an important component of portrait painting An exhibition of the same name will be on view at the J Paul Getty Museum from August 12 through October 26 2008

A Treasury of Illuminated Manuscripts Österreichische Nationalbibliothek, 1967

Beasts Elizabeth Morrison, 2007 Beasts Factual and Fantastic is the first in the Medieval Imagination series of small affordable books that will draw on manuscript illuminations from the Middle Ages and early Renaissance Each volume will focus on a particular theme or subject as represented by medieval artists Often as in the case of the imaginary beasts that readers will encounter in this volume artists depicted that which they did not see or know but which was nonetheless shaped by the prevailing beliefs fears and rudimentary science of the time In other cases manuscript illuminators recorded what they indeed did see which centuries later reveals much about the world in which they lived This inaugural volume features vivid and charming details from the wealth of manuscripts in the collections of the J Paul Getty Museum and the British Library along with a lively text together both word and image provide an accessible and delightful introduction to the imagination of the medieval world Future volumes in this series will cover such topics as costumes portraiture and marginalia among others

The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture

A Masterpiece Reconstructed J. Paul Getty Museum, Victoria and Albert Museum, 2005 Janet Backhouse who originally assembled the evidence that revealed this long forgotten masterpiece introduces the Hours of

Louis XII and its cycle of miniatures Thomas Kren discusses the book's provocative miniature of Bathsheba bathing within the context of the king's own taste and predilections and within the then emerging genre of the female nude in French painting Nancy Turner considers the importance of Bourdichon's painting and illuminating technique in the Hours of Louis XII in relation to his other work Mark Evans examines the individual histories of each of the surviving portions of the book Lastly an appendix reconstructs the book's devotional contents and program of illumination BOOK JACKET The Publishers Weekly, 1887 The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 2006 Selection Adapted to the Seasons of the Ecclesiastical Year from the Parochial & Plain Sermons of John Henry Newman Saint John Henry Newman, 1878
