Death or Deliverance Teresa Iacobelli, 2013-08-27

Soldiers found guilty of desertion or cowardice during the Great War faced death by firing squad Novels histories movies and television series often depict courts martial as brutal and inflexible and social memories of this system of frontline justice have inspired modern movements to seek pardons for soldiers executed on the battlefield In this revealing look at military law in the Canadian Expeditionary Force Teresa Iacobelli brings to light not only the trials of 25 Canadian soldiers who were executed but also the untold cases of 197 men sentenced to death but spared Looking beyond stories of callous generals and quick executions Iacobelli reveals a disciplinary system capable of thoughtful review and compassion for the individual soldier Published to coincide with the centennial anniversary of the outbreak of the First World War Death or Deliverance reconsiders an important and unexamined chapter in the history of both a war and a nation

Bow Bells, 1868 The Joy of Reading Charles Van Doren, 2008-04-01 Charles Van Doren has laid a feast before all of us that is irresistible Mortimer J Adler This engaging love letter to reading follows the great authors and classics that transformed the world from Aristotle and Herodotus in ancient Greece to Salinger and Heinlein in 20th century America Like a professor whose enthusiasm enwraps his students Van Doren explains what's wonderful in the books you've missed and awakens your desire to reopen the books you already know Divided chronologically by the periods in which these classics were written each book is put in its historical context and brought to life by Van Doren's brilliant analysis The Joy of Reading delves into a wide range of genres fiction poetry drama children's books philosophy history and science This is the one book that brings together everything you need to know about the classics you missed and ignites your passion to read and reread the greatest books the world has ever known This book is the fruit of a lifelong love affair Reading I believe is my favorite thing to do books and I have been inseparable almost as long as I can remember To this day I become distressed if I am anywhere without a book a magazine a newspaper any scrap of paper to read I like the smell of books certainly the feel of them Life without books would be for me a vacant horror Charles Van Doren Nothing recommends the joy of reading better than the communication of it by a person who has spent a lifetime enriched by the delights of reading Charles Van Doren is that kind of reader He has laid a feast before us that is irresistible Mortimer J Adler author of How to Read a Book Mr Van Doren is that rarity a truly well read man who reads not for professional purposes but for pleasure His book spurs us on to explore more deeply and joyfully the infinitely varied terrain of good books Clifton Fadiman author of The New Lifetime Reading Plan The Classical Guide to World Literature

The Mormons and the Theatre; or, The History of Theatricals in Utah John S. Lindsay, 2022-09-16 In The Mormons and the Theatre or The History of Theatricals in Utah John S Lindsay explores the intricate relationship between the Mormon community and the theatrical arts from the mid 19th century onwards The book presents a detailed historical account couched in rich narrative style intertwining cultural religious and social dimensions that shaped theatrical expression in Utah Lindsay adeptly situates the emergence of theater within the broader spectrum of Mormon history revealing how performances served not merely as entertainment but also as a vehicle for communal identity and resilience amidst adversity John S Lindsay a prominent historian and cultural critic draws from his extensive research into Mormon culture and American theater to illuminate an often overlooked aspect of Utah s history His insights are steeped in a personal connection to the subject matter as Lindsay himself grew up in a region where these themes resonate profoundly His academic background paired with a lifelong curiosity about the intersection of religion and art informs his analysis with both rigor and nuance This book is a must read for scholars of American theater religious studies and cultural history Lindsay s thorough examination not only enriches the understanding of Mormon contributions to the arts but also offers a compelling narrative that can engage general readers interested in the power of performance as a historical and cultural force The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza,2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens s A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne s The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon s Jr s The Klansman basis for the film Birth of a Nation In recent years Nick Hornsby s About a Boy and each of Helen Fielding s Bridget Jones s Diary novels were the basis for popular movies bearing the same names A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films this volume includes books both fiction and non fiction short stories newspaper and magazine articles and poems Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title with cross listings for films made under different titles Each entry includes the original work s title author year of first publication literary prizes and a brief plot summary Information on film adaptation s of the work including adaptation titles director screenwriter principal cast and the names of the characters they portray major awards and availability in the most common formats DVD VHS is also offered Learning to Dream Again Samuel Wells,2013-07-31 This striking guide to thoughtful Christian living explores the everyday experience of Christian hope and wisdom In thirty six short and engaging reflections Sam Wells explores what influences and shapes how we live love think read Scripture feel and dream equipping us to respond with our whole selves Natalie, 60, Looking For... What? Val Erasmus,2024-09-28 Natalie facing retirement returns to the UK from South Africa to care for her elderly mother whose mischievous ways have caused nothing but trouble amongst her three daughters Unsure about what her future holds Natalie wonders if she is still young enough to have a life She reunites with her old friend Maggie a wickedly cynical veteran of the 36 year marriage gone stale club who cannot fathom why Natalie would consider introducing another man into her life let alone actively seek one out on the internet Especially since according to Maggie Natalie has always been a terrible judge of men But when Natalie meets 59 year old Richard she believes she has found the one a softy spoken gentle giant who wines and dines her takes her on a Caribbean cruise and enjoys time on the beautiful South African south coast with her But is Richard too good to be true And will Maggie be proven right
